

Highlands Highlights

MRS. H. G. STORY

CHURCH NOTES

Highlands Baptist Church
 Rev. J. G. Benfield, Pastor
 10 a. m.—Sunday school.
 11 a. m.—Sermon.
 6:30 p. m.—B. T. U.
 7:30 p. m.—Sermon.

Highlands Presbyterian Church
 Rev. R. B. DuPree, Paator
 10:45 a. m.—Church school.
 11 a. m.—Worship.
 7:30 p. m.—Christian Endeavor

Highlands Methodist Church
 Rev. J. S. Higgins, Pastor
Highlands:
 10 a. m.—Church school.
 11 a. m.—Worship.
Clear Creek:
 3 p. m.—Worship.

Church of the Incarnation
 Rev. Frank Bloxham, Rector
 No service Sunday.

WEATHER REPORT

Zero and sub-zero temperatures prevailed most of last week, and with the bright sunshine over the week-end, the weather was ideal for ice skating. Approximately 300 people, scores of them from South Carolina and Georgia, gathered at Lake Sequoyah on Sunday afternoon to indulge in this very popular sport. The fair weather was ended by another snowstorm on Monday night and Tuesday of this week.

CURRENT EVENTS CLASS AT 3 O'CLOCK FRIDAY

According to an announcement by Mrs. Annie Westbrook, the current events class will meet at 3 o'clock on Friday afternoons, beginning this week, instead of 2 o'clock as formerly. With the time changed to a more convenient hour, it is believed that an even larger number of persons will take advantage of these interesting meetings.

BENEFITS FOR INFANTILE PARALYSIS FUND

Jack Potts, Highlands township chairman for the infantile paralysis foundation, announces the following benefits:

A square dance at Helen's Barn on Saturday night, January 27, courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Wilson.

On Tuesday, January 30, a movie, "Indianapolis Speedway," by courtesy of Highlands School Theatre. The entire proceeds from both of the above benefits will go to the foundation.

A combination keno and bridge party is also planned, the date to be fixed later.

Mr. Potts has interested the student council of Highlands school in the sale of the "Fight Infantile Paralysis buttons" and a manager has been appointed in each of the elementary classes and two in high school.

Sunday, January 28, is Infantile Paralysis Sunday throughout the United States and will be observed as such by the Highlands churches in this campaign.

MRS. HARBISON HOSTESS TO CARD CLUB

Mrs. T. C. Harbison entertained the Wednesday Card Club last week at her home on East Main street. Flowering plants in the sunny windows lent added attractiveness to the living room where the players assembled. The high score prize was won by Mrs. F. C. Hentz, Miss Sara Gilder was final winner of the traveling prize, and the consolation was awarded to Mrs. J. A. Hines.

Mrs. E. R. Gilbert and Mrs. Tudor N. Hall assisted the hostess in serving a delicious Mexican salad course. The Mexican idea was further carried out in the gay score cards and the pottery prizes.

MRS. OVERTON CHAMBERS ENTERTAINED IN WASHINGTON

Mrs. Overton Chambers, of Highlands and Chicago, returned last week to her home in Chicago, after a visit in Washington, where she enjoyed many social activities while the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Tufty, formerly of Chicago. Mrs. Chambers was invited by Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt to a musicale at the White House. She was a guest at Mrs. Cordell Hull's "at home" at the Carlton hotel, and attended a luncheon in the famous Senators' dining room in the Capitol, where Senator Prentiss M. Brown of Michigan was the ranking guest.

Mrs. Tufty is the Washington correspondent for a number of mid-west newspapers. She writes a political newspaper column, and is on the contributing staff of the Newsweek magazine. Mrs. Tufty and Mrs. Chambers have been friends since their college days at the University of Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Tudor N. Hall and children, Sarah, Isabel and Tudor Gilbert Hall, and Mrs. E. R. Gilbert left last Saturday for a two or three weeks' trip to Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Speed are making a two weeks' tour of Florida, going down the east coast and returning by way of the west coast.

Colonel and Mrs. Ralph H. Mobray are in Culver, Ind., for a short visit. On their return they plan to begin the erection of their new home in the Shortoff section.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Townsend are visiting in New Orleans before going on to Florida for their usual winter's stay.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cobb were guests of Dr. William C. Dabney in Atlanta several days last week, and as his guests attended a performance of "Gone With the Wind."

Miss Bertha Norton from near Franklin is visiting her cousin, Miss Flora Norton, here for the next several weeks.

Mrs. Clark Foreman of Washington, D. C., and a friend spent the week-end at Hotel Edwards and were among those enjoying the ice skating.

A contest in church attendance is being carried on by the Presbyterian Sunday School, and the losing side will entertain the winners with a Valentine party.

Mrs. Maiden Keener spent last Saturday in Dillard, Ga., attending to various items of business.

George Talley, who has been a patient at Angel hospital, is at home again and very much improved. His many friends are glad to know of this.

Friends of Mr. J. M. Rogers will regret to learn that he has been quite ill at his home on East Main street for the past several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Furman Merrill of Bryson City spent the past week-end here with Mrs. Merrill's mother, Mrs. L. F. Pierson, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Thad D. Smith, who have been making their home in Manchester, Tenn., for the past three months are spending a few days at their cottage on Spring street.

Mrs. F. C. Hentz is substitute teacher for Miss Cynthia Moretz who was called to her home in Boone last Friday because of the illness of her mother.

Otto

By MISS JOSEPHINE BRADLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Vinson, of Highlands, visited Mrs. Vinson's mother, Mrs. A. B. Bradley, the past week-end.

Ralph Henson and Billy Parrish spent the past week in Florida.

Mrs. Will Seagle is seriously ill with paralysis.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carrello and family, of Turnerville, Ga., visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Vinson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshal Lowery have moved from Otto to Coweta.

Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Sanders have moved to Mrs. Matt Liner's farm near Otto.

Monta, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Lowery, has recovered from measles.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Moore, of Franklin Route 2, spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Sanders.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Angel attended the funeral of their niece, Virginia Vanhook, at Clark's Chapel Saturday.

Mrs. M. E. Cabe

Dies Monday In Clark's Chapel Section.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Cabe, 61, died at her home in the Clark's Chapel community Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock following an illness of 12 days. Death was due to a stroke of apoplexy.

She was a daughter of the late Ben S. and Sarah Guffey Dowdle, and was born and spent her entire life in the Clark's Chapel community. In 1904 she married Charles Cabe, who preceded her in death.

Mrs. Cabe was a member of the Clark's Chapel Methodist church where the funeral services were held Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The pastor, the Rev. Harry S. Williams, officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Active pallbearers were: J. D. Glenn, Woodrow Dowdle, Paul and R. L. Ray, and Harley Cabe.

Surviving are three sons, Lester, Jake, and C. R. Cabe; one daughter, Mrs. Gordon Ammons; two brothers, George and Harve Dowdle, all of Franklin Route 2; two sisters, Mrs. E. W. Howell, of Watkinsonville, Ga., and Mrs. Robert Ray, of Franklin Route 2, and seven grandchildren.

Wm. P. Deal

Observed 87th Birthday Saturday, January 20

Mrs. Weaver W. Landrum and sisters, the Misses Callie and Angie Deal, entertained with a dinner Saturday at their home in the Holly Springs section in honor of their father, William Pierce Deal, on his 87th birthday anniversary.

A large number of relatives and friends gathered at the Deal home to enjoy the dinner, which was prepared by the daughters, daughters-in-law, and granddaughters, and to wish Mr. Deal many more happy birthdays.

WILLIAM PIERCE DEAL

When Mr. Deal was eight years old, his three brothers enlisted in the Confederate army. None of them returned. He tells of many incidents during the war and especially of the hardships and trials that were endured by those who remained at home. At that time his father owned three slaves and he remembers them very well. They were Julia, Sam and James, sister and brothers. Sam and Julia later moved to Charleston, S. C., while James remained with the Deal family for several years. He now lives at West's Mill.

In 1883, Mr. Deal was married to Miss Lydia Berry. To their union were born nine children, seven of whom are living. They are: Mrs. R. L. Fulbright, of Lake Junaluska; Mrs. Weaver W. Landrum, Misses Callie and Angie Deal, of Franklin Route 4; Mrs. Wayne Higdon, of Cullasaja, and Alex and William Deal, of Franklin Route 4.

CONGRATULATIONS

TO THE NEW BUILDING FOR THE
MACON THEATRE

I am glad to extend a congratulation to the one who helped build up our town. I have been in Franklin 29 years, (oldest business now in town) have seen Franklin grow. Many business buildings have been built and many businesses have changed hands. We are living in a good town, and by the help of God we are comfortable and not afraid of guns and bombs.

Good people make good neighbors. Let US make good neighbors. Best wishes and success to all.

Respectfully,

Jos. Ashear

CONGRATULATIONS

TO THE NEW

MACON THEATRE

AND

W. C. BURRELL

★

WE ARE JUST ACROSS THE STREET—

Visit Us After the Show for

SANDWICHES, HOT SUPPERS AND OTHER REFRESHMENTS

Cagle's Cafe

A. G. Cagle, Proprietor

Congratulations to

TO OUR NEW NEIGHBOR

THE NEW

Macon Theatre

To Our Patrons:

When you seek entertainment at the New Movie House, come across the street and see what we can add to your home enjoyment.

NEW FURNITURE FOR EVERY ROOM IN THE HOUSE

RADIOS, STOVES, MATTRESSES, RUGS
 — EVERYTHING NEW FOR THE HOME —

Macon Furniture Co.

FRANKLIN, N. C.

Congratulations

To the Management of the

New Macon Theatre

AND W. C. BURRELL

from the

New 5 and 10c Store and Sanders' Store