Hoover Instructed in Auctioneering Art

Actress Gertrude Lawrence shows former President Herbert Hoover the technique she used when she auctioned off a group of 28 paintings in New York to aid the Finnish relief fund. The art was executed by Ben Silbert, an American, who painted them in Finland, working in temperatures which ranged to 20 below. Silbert donated the collection to the fund.

Business as Usual for Warren Billings

Warren K. Billings, who served 23 years of a life sentence in Folsom prison in connection with the San Francisco Preparedness day bombing in 1916, is now running his own watch-repairing shop in San Francisco. Billings learned the profession in prison, where he says he worked on 10,000 watches owned by fellow prisoners and prison officials. Billings is pictured at his work bench, surrounded by tools presented him by friends, many of whom worked diligently to secure his release from Folsom. Tom Mooney, convicted with Billings, was released from San Quentin after serving 22 years.

She Really Can't Be That Surprised

William F. Buckner Jr., wealthy playboy who was convicted in a bond fraud but who is still at large pending his appeal, enjoys himself in a New York night club. His seemingly startled partner for the evening is Adelaide Moffett, society songstress. According to various gossip columns, they are soon to wed. But that had nothing to do with her odd pose.

Service De Luxe by War Zone Waiters

Steel-hatted German soldiers, serving as waiters, make their cautious way through the woods near the front line "somewhere in Germany" carrying rations for the garrison of an advanced outpost. The man in the rear is a guard, whose duty it is to protect the food. There is probably hot soup or stew in the tureens on the back of the "waiters."

WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO THE Fifth Shovelful of Coal

Can You Solve This Mystery?

HERE IS THE SOLUTION

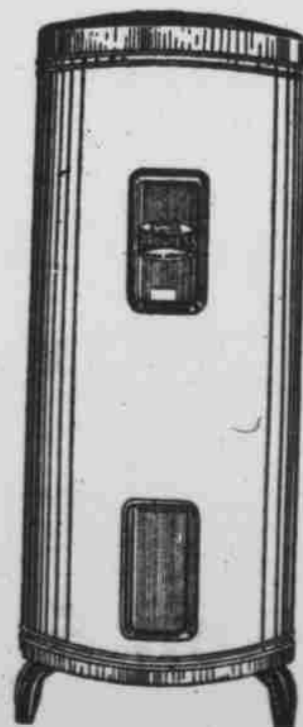

Tests by leading engineers show that a water heating coil in a furnace consumes 20% of the fuel used. In other words, the water coil takes one shovelful out of every five. Each time you pay a $15 coal bill, you can figure $3 of it went for your furnace coil to heat water. . . . Sometimes too hot, more often too cold . . . but never the constant, dependable plentiful supply every minute of the day and night that hundreds of our electric water heating customers enjoy.

AUTOMATIC ELECTRIC WATER HEATERS ARE PRICED AS LOW AS

$87.00 $3.00 Down
$3.50 Per Month

Let us install an Automatic Electric Water Heater in your home today on the rental plan. The proof of the service will convince you.
