

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES and COMINGS AND GOINGS

MRS. LESTER S. CONLEY, PHONE 104

SLOAN-PHILLIPS

Of interest to friends of the bride and her family in this section is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Sarah Frost Sloan and Lieut. Robert Alonzo Phillips, of the U. S. S. Tomoll, which took place on January 29 in Richmond, Va.

The wedding occurred at Grove Avenue Baptist church at 11 o'clock a. m. in the presence of the immediate families with the Rev. C. S. Prickett performing the ceremony, assisted by Dr. W. C. James. Lieutenant and Mrs. Phillips are at home in San Diego, Cal., where Lieutenant Phillips is stationed on the flagship, Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Phillips is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill, of the Horse Cove section and a great-granddaughter of the late Stanhope Hill and Dr. Charles L. Frost, who were pioneer citizens of Highlands.

SENIOR GIRL SCOUTS TO MEET MONDAY

The Senior Girl Scouts will meet Monday instead of Friday at the Scout house. Plans for a party will be made.

GARDEN CLUB TO MEET WITH MRS. ROGERS

The Franklin Garden Club will hold its regular monthly business and social meeting on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. A. Rogers. Mrs. Rogers will be assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Roy G. Beshears.

Officers for the year will be elected at this time. All members are urged to attend.

Horace Bryson, who has been taking treatment at a veterans' hospital in Johnson City, Tenn., returned to his home at West's Mill last week.

Mrs. St. Clair Anderson returned to her home here Sunday after a few weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. F. J. Porter and Mr. Porter, in Richmond, Va.

Frank L. Henry, Jr., who has been working in New York, came in last week for a visit with his family at their home on River-view street and his parents at their home on West Boulevard. Mr. Henry, who recently received injuries at his work, is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Waldrop, of Athens, Ga., are spending a few days with Mr. Waldrop's mother, Mrs. Mary Lyle Waldrop, at her home on Franklin Route 1.

Mrs. Jeter Snyder, who underwent an operation at Angel hospital on last Wednesday, returned to her home in Sylva Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Crunkleton and daughter, who have been occupying an apartment in the Coffee house on Palmer street, have moved into the Pendergrass house on the same street.

Miss Inez Crawford spent the week-end in Brevard with her father, Gilmer Crawford, who is operating a cafe there.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Conley returned to their home on Franklin Route 1 on Saturday, after spending some time in Clayton, N. C., with their daughter, Mrs. Turner Vinson and Mr. Vinson.

Mrs. Ellis Clarke Soper who has been spending the winter in Nassau, British West Indies, has returned to her home on Ridgecrest Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Bryson, of Detroit, Mich., came in last week for a visit with their fathers, Robert T. Bryson and Mrs. Bryson and Robert Sheffield, at their homes at West's Mill.

George Carpenter and family have moved from the Ray house on Bonny Crest to the Pendergrass house on Palmer street.

Miss Helen Patton, who is teaching art at Western Carolina Teachers' College at Cullowhee, spent the week-end with her father, Robert A. Patton, at his home on Harrison avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McGaha, of West's Mill, spent Saturday in Murphy with their daughter, Mrs. Chace Tatham, who is a patient in Petrie hospital. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Carr Rickman.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Brown, who are now making their home in Smithville, Ga., spent the week-end here with their mothers, Mrs. C. S. Brown, Sr., and Mrs. H. O. Cozad.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Cunningham, of Daytona Beach, Fla., spent the week-end with Mr. Cunningham's mother, Mrs. E. K. Cunningham, at her home on Harrison avenue, and his sister, Mrs. W. T. Moore and Mr. Moore.

James Patton, of Raleigh, spent the week-end with his father, Robert A. Patton, at his home on Harrison avenue.

The Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Rogers, Mrs. Herbert A. McGlamery, Mrs. I. T. Peek and Alex Moore attended the regional conference of the Baptist Sunday schools in Bryson City on Monday.

Mrs. Annie Ivanoff has returned to her home in Mount Hope, W. Va., after spending several days with her grandmother, Mrs. Martha McLeod, at Angel hospital.

Miss Lenore Johnston and niece, Susan Johnston, of Hayesville, spent the week-end with the former's sister, Mrs. Herbert A. McGlamery and Mr. McGlamery at their home on White Oak street.

Neal Gibson, of Rock Hill, S. C., spent last week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Gibson, and sister, Mrs. Leonard Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wykle, of Leatherman, spent the week-end with Mrs. Wykle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Gibson.

Editor C. M. Douglas, of The Transylvania Times, Brevard, and Mr. Fisher, also of Brevard, spent a short while in Franklin Sunday.

George J. Conley, who is engineer at the new Georgia Power company steam plant in Macon, Ga., spent the week-end with his family at their home on Iotta street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Conley, and daughter, Bobbie, all of Canton, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Conley.

The many friends of Bill Moore, who has been ill for some time, will be glad to know that he is able to be out again.

B. A. McGlamery, of Asheville, who was en route to Hayesville for a visit, stopped off in Franklin a while Monday for a visit with his son, Benny McGlamery and Mrs. McGlamery, at their home on West Main street.

return Friday from a hunting trip near Summerville, S. C.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Bolton, of Commerce, Ga.

A very pleasant party was that given by Miss Sarah Thompson last Saturday evening. Bridge, rummy and other games were played. About 30 guests enjoyed the occasion.

Highlands Highlights

MRS. H. G. STORY

CHURCH NOTES

Highlands Methodist Church
Rev. J. S. Higgins, Pastor

Glenville:
10 a. m.—Worship.

Cashiers:
11 a. m.—Worship.

Clear Creek:
3 p. m.—Worship.

Highlands Baptist Church
Rev. J. G. Benfield, Pastor

10 a. m.—Sunday school.

11 a. m.—Sermon.

7 p. m.—B. T. U.

8 p. m.—Sermon.

Highlands Presbyterian Church
Rev. R. B. DuPre, Pastor

10:45 a. m.—Church school.

11 a. m.—Worship.

7:30 p. m.—Christian Endeavor

Church of the Incarnation
Rev. Frank Bloxham, Rector

No service Sunday.

MANY ATTEND NEELY FUNERAL RITES MONDAY

Friends and relatives of the Neely family from all the surrounding communities, as well as practically all Highlands, gathered at the Methodist church last Monday afternoon to pay their last respects to H. Benson Neely, who died in Angel hospital at Franklin Sunday from injuries received when the truck he was driving overturned as it left the Dillard highway near the Milford Russell place, early Friday evening.

MAYOR EDWARDS RETURNS FROM FLORIDA TOUR

Mayor W. W. Edwards reached home Sunday after a two weeks' tour of Florida with other mayors and civic leaders of Western North Carolina towns. Mr. Edwards states that Florida is years ahead of Western North Carolina in advertising, but he feels that this trip has been the means of hundreds of dollars worth of advertising for this section. Mr. Edwards said that he had a mighty fine trip, and especially enjoyed his visits to St. Petersburg, Tampa, Miami and Fort Pierce; that the touring party was royally entertained in every city where it stopped.

He expressed his appreciation for the many courtesies shown by the drivers of the two busses that were furnished for the tour by the Smoky Mountain Stage company and the Queen City Coach company. Mr. Edwards highly recommends these busses as a means of pleasant travel.

MISS PEGGY POTTS GIVES VALENTINE PARTY

Little Miss Peggy Potts entertained 12 of her classmates at a Valentine party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Potts, February 16. The guests came dressed in costumes representing famous people whose birthdays were in February. "Washington Crossing the Delaware" was among the games played. The favors were valentines with ribbon streamers for each guest to draw. Refreshments were carried out in valentine colors.

Miss Potts also entertained a few friends at tea on Washington's birthday, when the tea table was graced with a white cake decorated with numerous flags.

NORTH CAROLINA FROGS TO RACE IN FLORIDA

March 7 will be a gala day for North Carolina frogs, according to the following clipping from the Sarasota (Florida) Herald-Tribune, sent in by that city's chamber of commerce:

"Governor Clyde R. Hoey, of North Carolina will back 'Miss Carolina', a nifty mountain hopping frog from the western section of the state, in the international Frogolympics here March 7.

"And the young lady frog won't be lacking North Carolina friends when Jaycees fire the starting gun in the Pageant Sara de Sota feature. Governor Hoey's frog is one of the 19 entered by the North Carolina mayors and public officials when they visited Sarasota Friday. Paul Kelley, Hoey's personal representative, recorded the governor's interest in the event.

"The group was entered en masse in an effort to avenge the defeat of the frog carrying the hopes of Mayor Ben Douglas of Charlotte in last year's Frogolympics. It ran sixth and there were only five prizes."

SATULAH CLUB TO MEET MARCH 1

The Satulah Club will hold its monthly meeting Friday afternoon, March 1, at 3 o'clock in the library annex, immediately following the current events class, which will meet at 2 o'clock that afternoon instead of the usual 3 o'clock hour. The refreshment committee is composed of Mrs. F. H. Potts and Mrs. J. E. Potts.

FIRE ALARM GONGS INSTALLED AT SCHOOL

Highlands school has completed the installation of two centrally controlled 8-inch fire alarm gongs. The signal bell will be used in the fire drills, also at the noon recess, and for dismissal in the afternoon. The large bell will continue to be used for the morning opening and the after lunch opening of school.

MRS. GILBERT HOSTESS TO CARD CLUB

Mrs. E. R. Gilbert entertained the card club last week at a George Washington contract party. Mrs. S. T. Maret and Dr. Jessie Z. Moreland were guest players, completing the three tables. Score cards were red, white and blue hatched. Miss Sara Gilder won top score prize, Mrs. Tudor Hall the traveling prize, and the consolation, a salt and pepper set wrapped and tied to represent two oversize cherries, went to Dr. Moreland. Mrs. Hall and Mrs. T. C. Harbison assisted the hostess in serving a salad course followed by delicious cherry tarts topped with whipped cream.

Ice skating on Lake Sequoyah was again enjoyed last Sunday afternoon by home folks and visitors.

Albert Barnes, who was injured in the highway accident which proved fatal to his companion and driver of the car, H. Benson Neely, is in Angel hospital suffering from a broken shoulder and severe chest injuries. Mr. Barnes' condition is reported to be serious.

Mrs. Sidney McCarty, Jr., and two children left Tuesday for a month's visit with Dr. and Mrs. S. L. McCarty in Orlando, Fla., making the trip from Augusta with Dr. McCarty who met them in that city.

The home of George Webb in the Flat Mountain section was destroyed by fire about 2 o'clock on the morning of February 22.

The Misses Sarah and Peggy Thompson, students at Queens-Chicora college, spent the past week-end with their mother, Mrs. H. P. P. Thompson. To Miss Sarah Thompson goes the honor of having been chosen one of the sponsors to the Davidson dances at the Armory in Charleston on March 8 and 9.

Mrs. O. F. Sumner and small daughter, Mary, returned Sunday from a several days' visit with Mrs. Sumner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Dalrymple, in Franklin.

Mrs. James S. Floyd, Mrs. Veta Cocks and Mrs. Emory Cocks, of Atlanta, were guests at Hotel Edwards last week for several days while Mrs. Floyd was having work done on the Floyd summer home at the country club.

The continued illness of Miss Fanny George Lucas at her home in Shortoff is regretted by her friends.

Mrs. Jay Chapman and small daughter, Carol Ann, have returned to Atlanta after a visit with Mrs. Chapman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Potts.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Maret were visitors in Franklin last Monday where Mr. Maret went to attend to a number of business matters.

Mrs. Lamar Greene of Clayton, Ga., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Edwards, in Horse Cove and other relatives here the past week-end.

G. W. Maret and a party of sportsmen from Clayton, Ga., will

ELGIN WATCHES

FIFTEEN JEWELS

Now $24.75

Never before offered for less than $29.75

Trade in your old watch on a new 1940 model

GROVER JAMISON

JEWELER

E. K. Cunningham & Company

Be Glorified by GOSSARD

MisSimplicity for a Supple Waist

For the new clothes that accentuate the bust and outline the ribs, MisSimplicity is a great help. The waistline straps pull diagonally to flatten the "center muscles." Model 3662. $5

*Reg. U. S. Pat. Off. Pat. No. 1,859,198

MACON THEATRE

Night Shows 7:00 and 9:00—Matinees 3:30 P. M.
Showing From 1:30 to 11 P. M. Saturdays

Friday, March 1st
"The Return of Dr. X"
Wayne Morris, Rosemary Lane, Humphrey Bogart

Saturday, March 2nd
DOUBLE FEATURE PROGRAM
"Parole Fixer"
Also
Roy Rogers, Mary Hart in
"Frontier Pony Express"

Monday, March 4th
Leslie Howard in
"Intermezzo"
(A love story introducing Ingrid Bergman)
With Edna Best, John Halliday

Tuesday, March 5
ADDED ATTRACTION
(Matinee and Night Performance)
IN PERSON
Walt SHRUM
PRODUCER OF
Colorada Hill Billies
PRESENTS
Just plain folks
With LIL' ABNER WILDER
One of Americas best Rural Musical Comedies
SUPPORTED BY AN ALL STAR CAST
STARS OF STAGE SCREEN and RADIO

Also
"A Child is Born"
With: Geraldine Fitzgerald, Jeffrey Lynn
Gale Page
Wednesday and Thursday, March 6th and 7th
"Little Old New York"
With: Alice Faye, Fred MacMurray, Richard Greene and Andy Devine

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Macon Shoe Shop announces to their customers that they have recently purchased the Shoe Shop formerly owned and operated by Troy Horn. That they are combining the two shops and will do business in the future at the Horn location in the Ashear Building. All their friends and customers are invited to call on them there where they are fully equipped to do the fine expert work in shoe repairing.

Macon Shoe Shop

CAGLE'S CAFE

WHY NOT Enjoy the Good Food at CAGLE'S?

INVITE HER OUT — BRING THE FAMILY

YOU CAN FIND WHAT YOU WANT IN OUR FINE SELECTION OF FOODS

Come in For a Toasted Sandwich and a Piece of Home Baked Pie After the Show

We're Thanking You and Appreciate Your Patronage

A. G. CAGLE, Proprietor