Interesting Old Paper Owned By Mrs. Slagle

Mrs. Henry Slagle brought to The Press office Saturday a very interesting old newspaper, The Herald, published at Webster, in Jackson county. The paper is dated June 28, 1900, and is issue No. 10, volume 42, new series, which would indicate that the paper had been published for more than 42 years.

The paper was edited by W. C. Tompkins, and contains a long account of the Republican convention which nominated William McKinley and Theodore Roosevelt for a second term. It also contains a notice of the death of Dr. Lucas at his corundum mines in Macon county. The paper carries some local advertising and many ads for various patent medicines.
