Trimont Inn

Completely Renovated and
Now Open For Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Lyle have opened Trimont Inn this week after making extensive improvements to the building and grounds in preparation for the coming season. Complete renovation of the interior includes refinishing of walls and floors, while fresh paint inside and out gives a spick and span appearance throughout.

The upstairs lobby has been transformed into a charming living room with added comforts for guests. The porches and grounds which are one of the main attractions of this popular resort hotel have received their share of preparation and present a "swept and garnished" appearance. Mr. and Mrs. Lyle expect a good tourist season this year.

HANDICRAFTS

Four-H Club boys of Sampson county are being taught to make such useful articles as anvils, terracing drags, tables, filing boxes, book cases, book ends, workshop benches, and tool cabinets.
