METHODIST MISSIONARY WITH MRS. GEORGIA SLOAN

The May meeting of the Methodist Woman's Missionary Society was held with Mrs. Georgia Sloan and Mrs. Reba Tessier last Thursday.

Mrs. Beshears, the president, carried the program through on time in her efficient manner.

Mrs. T. W. Porter gave a full account of the annual meeting of the Western North Carolina Woman's Missionary Societies in Salisbury last month. Fifty years ago, the first meeting of this organization was held in Salisbury and this one will be the last under the present name as unification of all Methodist churches calls for changes in different organizations of the church.

Mrs. Tessier read a paper on the growth of inter-racial work.

The Society is buying an electric stove for the church kitchen and two members are appointed each month to be responsible for the monthly payments. Mrs. E. K. Cunningham and Mrs. Frank Smith had the month of April and turned in more than their quota from the sale of rooted flowers.

Mrs. Sloan and Mrs. Tessier have the month of May and are getting subscriptions to "Hollands" the Southern magazine for Women.

There was a very good attendance. Mrs. McCollum and Mrs. T. W. Porter will be hostesses for the June meeting.
