

Polly's Plate Glass Windows Smashed

The plate glass windows of Polly's store were smashed Wednesday—not by burglars, but by a falling awning frame. Both large glasses were completely demolished.

Twenty people were killed in railroad crossing accidents in North Carolina during the first four months of 1940.

HOEY URGES VOTERS TO REGISTER

Governor Hoey, in a state-wide radio appeal, urged North Carolinians tonight to register at once for the Democratic and Republican primaries of May 29.

The deadline for registration is Saturday, the governor pointed out, and only a small percentage of otherwise qualified voters have registered in the 63 counties which have ordered new registrations under the 1930 election reform laws.
