MRS. LESTER S. CONLEY, PHONE 104

BRYSON-ANDERSON

The Rev. and Mrs. Joseph A. Bryson, of Columbia, Mo., announce the marriage of their daughter, Doris, to Ray Anderson, of Franklin.

The wedding ceremony was performed on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Langren hotel in Asheville. The Rev. Dr. John Vines, Missouri State Evangelist, of Kansas City, Mo., officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony.

Mrs. Anderson the eldest daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Bryson, was becomingly attired in a costume of navy blue crepe with accessories of navy and white. Her corsage was of pink rose buds.

Mrs. Marle Brendle, of Asheville, who was matron of honor, was dressed in salmon pink.

Charles Stewart, of Franklin, acted as best man.

Mrs. Anderson attended Mars Hill college at Mars Hill and the University of Missouri. She is a very popular member of the younger social set of Franklin, having spent the past winter here.

Mr. Anderson, son of Mrs. Sue Anderson and the late Luther Anderson, is connected with the Nantahala Power and Light company and is a member of the Franklin Lions club.

Others present at the wedding from Franklin included Fred Montony and Claude Bolton.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Anderson returned to Franklin where they will make their home.

PEEK-BRYSON

Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Peek, of Franklin, have announced the marriage of their youngest daughter, Miss Meda Ovelene Peek, to Bill Bryson, also of Franklin. The wedding ceremony was performed at the Baptist parsonage in Spartanburg, S. C., Sunday, June 10, 1939.

The Rev. J. C. Baker, pastor of the First Baptist church, of Spartanburg, officiated.

The bride was attired in a fuchsia ensemble with black accessories. Her corsage was of white rosebuds. She is a graduate of the Franklin high school. For the past three years she has been employed as chief clerk in the Work's Progress administration office in Franklin.

Mr. Bryson is the son of J. B. Bryson and the late Mrs. Bryson. He is a graduate of the Franklin high school and has been employed as assistant project superintendent of the Work's Progress Administration here for the past five years.

The couple will make their home in Franklin.
