Oxford Orphanage TOWN TAX RATE NOW DECREASED Program Here July 16

New Budget Sets Rate At 95 Cents Per Hundred

A decrease of two cents in the tax rate for 1940 was decreed by the mayor and aldermen of Franklin in drawing the budget for the new fiscal year last week at the town board's regular monthly meeting.

The new rate is 95 cents per hundred dollar valuation as compared with 97 cents for 1939. The total amount to be raised by the tax levy this year is $10,210.00, a slight decrease from last year's amount.

Property Values Increase Property values in Franklin have increased $53,511.00 during the past the local Masonic group. year according to the new tax valuation which totals $1,149,649.00. Changes in the new budget include an increase of $1000 in the police appropriation to pay for a regular officer on Saturdays; an increase of $500.00 in the general fund to pay for an office girl and additional ofice supplies and equipment, necessitated by the street improvement work.

The itemized budget is published in full elsewhere in this issue,

According to George Dean, town clerk, practically all of the 1939 town budget was expended during the year. The remaining amount is being used in street improvement which will be carried on for three or four months more.

ONE JAILED AFTER AFFRA' Wayne Underwood Held After Shooting Scrape

Wayne Underwood, 35, is being held in the county jail here pend-ing the outcome of the condition of Herbie Bradshaw, 27, now in Angel hospital suffering from critical shotgun wounds in the face and chest. Doctors gave Bradshaw a good chance of recovery,

According to Deputy Sheriff John Dills, who arrested Underwood, the shooting took place at Underwood's home in the Mulberry section around 1:30 p. m. last Friday. Bradshaw is alleged to have attempted to enter the house, threatening to kill Underwood, who then seized a .16 gauge shotgun and fired twice at close range. Bradshaw was said to be unarmed. A few hours later Underwood surrendered to Deputy Sheriff Dills. Dills said that Bradshaw and Underwood, who are brothers-inlaw, had quarreled Thursday afternoon and that on Friday morning Underwood swore out a warrant for Bradshaw's arrest on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. He was unable to serve the warrant before the shooting occurred.

Masons

Enjoy All-Day Tour Of Macon County

Eleven car-loads of delegates to the sixth annual convention of Royal and Select Masters of York Rite Masons, which was held at Waynesville this week, spent Wednesday touring Macon county. The motorcade, traveling under the direction of Dr. John R. Mc Cracken of Waynesville, was met at the foot of Cowee mountain by Highway Patrolman Ed. C. Guy who acted as escort for the greater part of the day.

In Franklin the visitors were welcomed by a group of local Masons and the Chamber of Commerce hospitality committee, including A. B. Slagle, Harley Cabe, H. A. Wilhide, John Averell, and Allen J. Green. The motorcade bottle.

MACON Preparedness Levy Affects Gasoline, Tobacco Amusements

Macon citizens kast week began to pay their share of the costs of the vast re-armament program as increased "defense" taxes went into effect with the advent of the new fiscal year, July 1. The most noticeable immediate effect locally was an increase in the price of gasoline, cigarettes, beer and amusements. Cigarette prices for the most part remained at 15 cents a package; establishments who formerly sold two packages for 25 cents have increased the price.

Gasoline Higher

Gasoline prices rose from 23.8 to 24.3 cents a gallon, an increase of a half-cent. Beer jumped to 15 and 20 cents per bottle early in the week, returning to the old prices later on when consumption dropped sharply. A few beer retailers are now charging a cent tax per
