LITTLE THEATRE SCORES ANOTHER BIG SUCCESS

Highlands scored another success. and home talent was at a premium, when the Little Theatre presented its first production of the season, "The Late Christopher Bean" to a delighted audience at an afternoon and night performance July 24 and 25. The cast showed remarkable stage ability, without a trace of amateur dullness, and the part of Abby the servant girl, played by Mrs. Jack Wilcox, was perhaps the highlight of the play.

To Author Little, professional director of little theatres, who directed the play, goes much of the credit for its success.
