CLEAN-UP DAY AT HIGHLANDS CEMETERY

Saturday, August 10, has been set aside as clean-up day at the Highlands cemetery. All persons who have friends or relatives buried in this cemetery, and any one else interested in helping, are asked to meet early Saturday morning, August 10, with working tools. Lunch will be served in the grove at the cemetery, and J. R. Phillips will be in charge of the work.

SUNSET ROCK ROAD IS IMPROVED

The Misses Marguerite and Clare Ravenel have cooperated with the Town in improving the road to Sunset Rocks. The road has been widened at the sharp curves; the jutting boulders removed from the sides of the road, and the roadbed surfaced with crushed rock. Sunset Rocks is one of the loveliest points of interest in this section, both from the west side where the gorgeous sunset views are to be had and from the east side with its sheer drop of a thousand feet, overlooking Horse Cove.

TROSDAL-ULANOWSKI

Miss Lucy Storm Trosdal of Highlands and Savannah became the bride of Paul A. Ulanowski of New York City in a quiet ceremony at "Solbakken", the Trosdal summer home at the Country Club, at high noon Saturday, August 3. The Rev. George F. Taylor of Tryon was the officiating minister and the bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Hudson Boyd of Savannah. Her brother, Storm Trosdal, acted as best man, and her cousin, Miss Laura Shallenberger of Savannah, played the wedding march.

The bride was lovely in a dress of cream colored satin brocade and a short veil held in place with a tiny wreath of orange blossoms. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of white Rebrum lilies and swainsonia. Her only attendant was Miss Anne Altstaetter, who wore a dress of pale blue moire with matching picture hat, and carried a bouquet of pastel colored garden flowers.

The vows were spoken before a bower of pale pink and white rhododendron blossoms, against which tall vases of white gladioli were arranged. Vases and urns of gladioli in brilliant shades were used in the dining room and on the piazza. A wedding breakfast was served immediately after the ceremony while a group of mountain musicians gave a selection of lovely mountain music from the piazza. Mr. and Mrs. Ulanowski will make their home in New York City.

SOCO GAP DANCE TEAM TO APPEAR HERE

The Soco Gap square dance team will be at Helen's Barn at 8 o'clock on Monday evening, August 12. This team is made up of 16 trained and talented dancers with many years of experience in dancing the old figures that were brought from England centuries ago, and are the National Square Dance champions.

The band and team performed in the White House for the King and Queen of England in 1939.

This team gave a performance in Carnegie Music Hall in Pittsburgh the past spring and danced for the socially prominent Vanderbilts, Leiters, Clarks, Mallons, etc., at Aiken and Warrenton on two very select occasions; also promoted dances for John D. Rockefeller's nephew, who is president of the Chase National Bank at Boston.

INDIAN BOYS ENLIST IN MARINE CORPS

The following item of interest appeared in the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin a few days ago: "The army recruiting offices (in Philadelphia) were crowded recently with young men accepted for service and leaving for various training bases. Of the four recruits for the Marine Corps three were Indian boys, Michael Popow, 20 year old high school student, and two brothers, Jesse Henry Youngdeer, 22, and Robert Stevenson Youngdeer, -9, who have been living on the Cherokee Indian Reservation in North Carolina. The three recruits are now in training at Parris Island, S. C."

Photographs of the Indian boys accompanied the article showing them in their Marine outfits.

HIGH PRAISES FOR HIGHLANDS

Mayor W. W. Edwards is in receipt of a letter from Mr. J. E. Coad, secretary of the Hickory, N. C., chamber of commerce, written on his return home after he and his family had been guests at Hotel Edwards during last week's heat wave. This letter is so warm in its praise of Highlands that we are quoting a part of it here:

"The thermometer registered 95 degrees when we reached home last night and was still above 80 degrees at mid-night. You can imagine our feeling after the night before at Highlands, where, as you know, we slept under two blankets."

"You have a wonderful spot and if people only knew the real summer comfort awaiting them there your city would easily double in size. Mrs. Coad and I have fully made up our minds that Highlands is where we want our summer home. I believe I know a hundred men over the central South who would be just as crazy about the place as we are, if they knew what they could find there."

RAINWATER AND YATES DEFEAT JONES AND HUDSON

Although weather conditions were much against the golf exhibition given for the benefit of the Hudson Library last Sunday afternoon, the match was played before a fine gallery. Crawford Rainwater and Charlie Yates defeated Bobby Jones and Scott Hudson, Jr., 2-1. The crowd was estimated at between 350 and 400 people. All of the returns from the sale of tickets are not yet in so that the amount is not available at this time.

ANNUAL LIBRARY MEETING HELD

The annual meeting of the Hudson Library Association was held at the library annex on Thursday, August 1, with the president, Miss Marguerite Ravenel, presiding. Others present were Miss Dorothea Harbison, Miss Cora Miltimore, Miss Rebecca Nall, Miss M. D. Warren, Mrs. Harvey L. Parry, Mrs. A. C. Holt, Miss Mary J. Crosby, Mrs. George A. Townsend, Mrs. Arthur L. Bliss, Mrs. J. A. Simpson, Mrs. F. H. Potts, Mrs. J. A. Hines, Mrs. Ralph Sargent and Miss Gertrude Harbison.

After the various reports were given the president suggested that resolutions of regret at the passing of Mrs. J. Jay Smith be incorporated in the minutes and that sympathy be extended to Mr. Smith. Mrs. Smith was a tireless worker for the library for almost half a century, tiding it over many lean years and giving the hospitality of her home for the Association meetings, etc.

The annual election of officers resulted in all officers being re-elected. They are, president, Miss Marguerite Ravenel, first vice-president, Miss Albertina Staub; second vice-president, Miss Mary J. Crosby; treasurer, Miss Dorothea Harbison; secretary, Miss Cora Miltimore.

The board of trustees was re-elected with the exception of Miss Warren, who asked to be relieved of her duties as trustee. Her resignation was accepted with reluctance, and she was given a rising vote of thanks for her interest and support which have meant so much to the institution through the years.

Mrs. Ralph Sargent of St. Paul, Minn., a summer home-owner, was elected to succeed Miss Warren, and was warmly welcomed as a new trustee. Her parents, Dr. Alexander P. Anderson and the late Mrs. Lydia Anderson, were among the pioneer summer home owners of Highlands and figured prominently in its early history.

Composing the present board of trustees are Mrs. F. H. Potts, Mrs. J. A. Hines, Mrs. Arthur L. Bliss and Mrs. Ralph Sargent.

Composing the present board of trustees are Mrs. F. H. Potts, Mrs. J. A. Hines, Mrs. Arthur L. Bliss and Mrs. Ralph Sargent.

Miss Gertrude Harbison was re-elected librarian and Miss Dorothea Harbison assistant librarian.

SPIRITUAL PROGRAM

There will be a spiritual program rendered by the colored people of Highlands on Sunday, August 11, at 4:30 o'clock, at the Highlands School Theatre. The public is cordially invited. Silver offering.

Mrs. James Lowe and two children, James, Jr., and Lenora Elizabeth returned to their home in Lylesville last Saturday after a week's visit here with relatives. Mrs. Lowe was accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Harbison who spent the week-end with her and Mr. Lowe. While her parents were away, little Miss Anne Harbison visited her grandmother, Mrs. T. G. Harbison.

Herbert Millkey of Atlanta was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilcox at their home, Billy Cabin Farm, in the Shortoff section.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Smith left Tuesday for a several weeks' visit with their son, Sydney Smith, in Detroit, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Stewart of St. Louis, Mo., are occupying Mrs. Bertha Jones' cottage on Cullasaja Drive for August and September. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Darby of Macon, Ga., and Harry Darby of Charleston, S. C., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bankston of Savannah, Ga., for the month of August, at the Blanchard cottage on Cullasaja Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Merrill of Asheville were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reese. On their return home they were accompanied by their small nephew, Louis Reese, who will visit them for two weeks.

Rev. Frank Bloxham of Franklin was a luncheon guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis on Monday, en route home after a week-end in Columbia, S. C., where he exchanged services with the Rev. Rufus Morgan on Sunday.

Mrs. F. R. Georgia has returned to her summer home at Flat Mountain after a visit to Black Mountain College near Asheville. Mr. Georgia was president of the Black Mountain College and Mrs. Georgia a teacher there for three years prior to making their home in Ithaca, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Warner of Miami, Fla., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Keener at Shortoff.

Dr. and Mrs. Warner J. Davis and two children, Helen and Joe, of Lexington, Ky., arrived Tuesday for a stay of 10 days at their cottage on Mirror Lake. Their son, Billy, who has been visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis, for the past three weeks will join them at the cottage. Dr. Davis is pastor of the Epworth Methodist church in Lexington.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Cable, their son and daughter, Jack and Dorothy, of St. Louis, Mo., are at their summer home on Mirror Lake. The lateness of their arrival is due to the fact that Dr. Cable has been busy in summer school at Washington University.

Harry Hall of Richmond, Va., is spending a two weeks' vacation with relatives here. His sister, Mrs. Nash Broyles, her grandson Murray Hamilton and Lloyd Jones of Atlanta are at Highlands Manor for the month of August.

New arrivals at the different cottages for the month of August are Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Pollard of Savannah, Ga., at the R. L. Aeck House at the Country Club; Mrs. S. Whitman McGonigal, Atlanta and Sea Island Beach, at the Foreman Cottage; Dr. and Mrs. Julian F. Chisholm and family of Savannah at the Ruggles place on Whiteside Mountain; Mrs. John A. Sibley, of Atlanta, at the Young Cottage on the Walhalla Road; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jackson, Gainesville, Ga., at the Raoul Cottage on Brushy Face Mountain.

Recent guests of Mrs. Walter Reese were her two sisters, Mrs. J. A. Calloway of Asheville, and Mrs. Margaret Perry, of Augusta, Ga., and an aunt, Mrs. J. F. Watson, of Knoxville, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Anderson had as their guests the first of the week Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Durkee of Hollywood, Fla., who were en route to the World's Fair and to visit relatives in Massachusetts. Mr. and Mrs. Durkee were next door neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson when the latter spent last winter in Florida.

Dr. and Mrs. R. G. McAliley of Atlanta are visiting their daughter, Miss Louise Cramer, at "Holiday House" at the Country Club.

The friends of Mr. Mack Wilson will be pleased to learn that he continues to improve from a several weeks' illness at Angel hospital in Franklin.

Miss Rebecca Harris Beal who has been in Lenoir, with her brother since last fall is now in Daytona, Fla., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert I. Beal.

Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Harold have as their guests the Misses Jane and Joan Meeker, lovely twin daughters of Mr. James Meeker of Miami. Recent Miami guests of Dr. and Mrs. Harold were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Perry and little son, from Miami and Osgood, Ind., were Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. George Lindsay.

A total of 19,500 persons were killed in traffic accidents at night last year and 13,000 in daytime traffic accidents.
