Mountaineer's Ball
 At Clayton Recreation Building, August 30

As a climax to a program of community dances every Wednesday and Friday during the summer, the Clayton Mountaineer's club has arranged for a "Mountaineer's Ball" Friday, August 30, at the Clayton Recreation building.

"Tiny" Bradshaw and his nationally-known orchestra, direct from New York City engagements, will furnish music for the occasion.

Among Bradshaw's recent engagement are performances at New York City's Cotton Club and Savoy Ballroom, and the Trianon Ballrooms over the country. His band is often heard over the NBC, Columbia, Mutual and other major networks.

 By MRS. JOE SETSER

The Womens Society of Christian Service of Mt. Zion church held its regular monthly meeting with Mrs. Marvin Underwood of Atlanta, at her summer home on Wayah road. Mrs. Underwood spends August of each year in the mountains and we always look forward with pleasure in having her in our meetings.

Carter Hurst returned to State college the first of this week.

Mrs. George McGee and daughters were visiting friends here Wednesday.

Lucille, Virginia and Wendell Brookshire are visiting relatives in Demorest, Ga.

The Home Demonstration club met at the home of Mrs. W. N. Dalrymple on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Charles Waldroop was joint hostess. The crowd was small and the program short due to the illness of Miss Florence. Stalcup, home agent. Delicious refreshments of iced tea, cakes and home-grown watermelons were served.

Mrs. Bryan Setser has returned home from Angel Clinic where she was recovering from injuries due to an automobile accident.

Miss Lucy Slagle spent the week-end with her father, Mr. T. M. Slagle.

$10 For A Name
 For the Tourist Camp and Dining Room being built on the Georgia Road by Cagle and Bradley

The name should be short and shouldn't use the names of the proprietors. A visit to the grounds may help you in selecting an appropriate name. A little thought may win ten dollars for you. Drop your suggested name with your name and address in box at Cagle's Cafe, or mail to Cagle's Cafe.

Each individual may suggest only one name.

In case more than one selects the same name the reward winner will be found by a drawing. All suggestions must be in by Sunday, August 25. Decision of judges will be final.
