HIGHLANDS MAN KILLED ON JOB

A. R. Moreland Electrocuted On Glenville Project

Albert R. Moreland, 47 year-old Highlands man, was instantly killed Wednesday afternoon when he came in contact with a high voltage wire while working on the Nantahala Power company's hydroelectric development at Glenville.

The funeral will be held in the Highlands Methodist church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in the Zachary family plot at Norton,

The Rev. J. S. Higgins, pastor, will be assisted by the Rev. J. G. Benfield and the Rev. R. B. Du-

Mr. Moreland, who was employed as an electrical engineer by the Morris-Knudsen company, contractors for the project, was working up on a pole on a transmission line when the accident occurred.

He was born in Harrisonville, Mo., on November 18, 1893, the son of Alban W. Moreland and Mary Alice Moreland. He came to Highlands from Raleigh about five years worth, Wis., and Pasadena, Calif. generous benefactor of libraries here and elsewhere, visited Franklin for the first time and spent several days inspecting the Franklin and county school fibraries that have received her gifts. Many of the rural schools would have no books except for Mrs. Cox's interest, and the Franklin public library and school library have been enriched by the addition of several thousand new, well selected and greatly needed books.

He is survived by his widow, Jessie Zachary Moreland, and by two sisters, Mrs. Lee Daughlity of Webb City, Mo., and Mrs. Edwin Gough of Hutchinson, Kan.

Charles O. Ramsey, the former Miss Virginia Bryson, a native of this county, while a teacher in Kentucky, Mrs. Cox first learned of this section. Her philanthropy of books has extended over a period of years, to many libraries and schools in different parts of the United States. For nearly two years the people of this county have been the beneficiaries of this large hearted woman's wise generosity.

Other schools in the mountains of Western North Carolina and Georgia have received books from poor. Although the Panthers never

THREE-POWER PACT AIMED AT U. S.

The ten-year military and economic pact of Germany, Italy and Japan signed last Friday, which these totalitarian powers against the enemies of any one, was anticipated in Washington. The Japanese press stated that President Roosevelt's embargo on scrap iron exports placed the U.S. on Britain's side. The pact is aimed at the United States.

THE BATTLE OF THE AIR

The battle of the air has been waged furiously during the past week, with both German and British flyers sowing destruction. The pendulum is swinging in Britain's favor, as the expected invasion is still postponed, and the air force is strengthened. Aid from the U. S. is considered a decisive factor in the upturn for Britain, Mysterious new "nighthawk" fighter planes, said to be superior to anything Germany possesses, have kept the majority of German bombers from London.

Mrs. Angie W. Cox FRANKLIN LOSES TO BREVARD 24-0

Locals Play Waynesville Under Lights There Friday Night

Brevard High used Franklin's Red Panthers as a stepping stone to their third straight win of the season here last Friday, decisively walloping Coach Hawkin's eleven to the tune of 24-0.

Allison scored Brevard's first touchdown early in the first quarter on a long end run from the Franklin 40. Taking the kickoff on his own 20, he opened the second half with a spectacular 80 yard jaunt down the sidelines for his second touchdown of the day. Ashworth scored the third on a line back from the Franklin three, and Sentelle added the fourth with a brilliant one-hand catch of Morris' pass from the Franklin 35 to the 15, to score untouched.

The Red Panthers lacked the spark that makes a winning football team. Their plays got under way slowly, the interference was ragged, and their punting was seriously threaten, they racked up five first downs to Brevard's six and made the only sustained drive of the afternoon. Defensively they gave a better account of themselves than the one-sided score would indicate. Leatherman, Pennington, Tessier and Hunnicutt played an outstanding game.

Friday night the Panthers journey to Waynesville for their first game of the season under lights. The team is reported to have improved tremendously since last Friday and is out to mar Waynesville's hopes for a perfect record. All local fans expecting to attend the game are asked to buy their tickets here before they leave, from either of the drug stores, or from members of the team, in order that the proceeds can go to the

Macon Represented In State 4-H Dress Review

Sixty or more 4-H Club girls, North Carolina, will assemble at N. C. State college Friday (Oc- er citizens of national distinction. tober 4) to compete in the annual State 4-H Dress Review. They will model dresses and suits of their own workmanship, and the winner will receive a free trip to the National Club Congress to be held in Chicago, Ill., in December.

Miss Barbara Hurst of the Franklin 4-H Club, a winner in the recent district contest at Hendersonville, will take part in the Fifty-Second Session contest.

Miss Willie N. Hunter, extension clothing specialist, and Miss Julia Mclver, assistant specialist, will direct the contest. The farm girls will submit their costumes to the close scrutiny of the judges in the college Y. M. C. A. at 10 o'clock in the morning. The formal review, at which all costumes will be modeled by their owners, will be held in Pullen Hall at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The public is invited to this program, at which time the winners will be announced. The review is divided into four divisions: (1) Wash (tub material) dress or suit for school or sports wear; (2) wool dresses, suits or ensembles for school, sports or street wear; (3) best dress or ensemble, including dress; and (4) informal party dress. Miss Jonnie Faye Barnes of the Black Creek 4-H Club in Wilson county won last year's contest with an ensemble which would have done credit to a Park Avenue stylist. It consisted of a plaid sport coat, a dress of light wool, and matching accessories. The entire outfit, including shoes, stockings and tains National park, officially reother purchased apparel, cost only $14.95.

Other costumes placed in the "blue ribbon group" cost from as little as $3.39 to a top of $19.98.
