MISS ROBINSON AND MR. M'GUIRE ARE WED IN CHURCH CEREMONY

(From The Charlotte Observer)

A brilliant and beautiful wedding and one of outstanding interest to this community was that of Miss Grace Moseley Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith Robinson of Charlotte, and William Bulgin McGuire, son of Mrs. W. B. McGuire and the late Mr. McGuire of Franklin, which took place last Thursday evening at St. Peter's Episcopal church.

The Rev. Willis G. Clark, rector of the church, officiated. The church was decorated with banks of towering southern smilax, flanked with numerous tall candelabra. On each side of the steps leading to the chancel, where the betrothal vows were spoken, were massive arrangements of Easter lilies.

The bride was escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage. The bridegroom had Marshall Pickens of Charlotte as his best man.

Miss Polly Robison, only sister of the bride was maid of honor. The bridesmaids included Miss Henriette Minor, Miss Sadie Young, Miss Rebecca Wright, Miss Elizabeth McGuire of Franklin, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Lucretia Martin of Norfolk, Va., and Miss Elizabeth Lee.

The bride wore a handsome gown of candlelight satin, square neck with bands of pleated chiffon, long sleeves, and tight fitting bodice, ending in a long train. Part of her ensemble was a panel of exquisite lace that was worn by her maternal great grandmother at her wedding.

Immediately after the ceremony a brilliant reception was given at the Charlotte Country club. Later the couple left for a trip south. On their return to Charlotte, they will be at home on Hermitage court.

The bride is the older daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robinson. She was graduated at St. Catherine's school in Richmond, Va., and afterwards attended Smith College at Northampton, Mass., for a year. Later, she graduated from Sweet Briar College in Virginia. She is a member of the Junior League, the German club, and the Spinner's club.

The bridegroom was graduated from Davidson college in 1930 and was president of the senior class, member of Phi Beta Kappa honorary society, Pi Kappa Alpha social fraternity, and Omicron Delta Kappa leadership fraternity. He was a first honor man in his graduating class from Duke University law school in 1933. Since his graduation, Mr. McGuire has been on the law staff of the Duke Power company in Charlotte.

Franklin guests attending the wedding were Mrs. W. B. McGuire and daughter, Elizabeth, and the Rev. J. A. Flanagan.
