The Former Miss Jean Moore,
Whose Wedding Took Place
Here Last Sunday.

MISS JEAN MOORE IS BRIDE OF CLARK L. BURRELL

Miss Jean Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Gordon Moore of Franklin, became the bride of Clark L. Burrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Burrell of Franklin, in a beautiful and simple ceremony immediately following the 11 o'clock service at the Franklin Methodist church last Sunday.

The Rev. Ivon L. Roberts, pastor of the bride, united the pair with the simple ring ceremony in the presence of the congregation and a few invited friends. No attendants were used. Music was rendered by Mrs. Henry W. Cabe, church organist.

Mr. and Mrs. Burrell have set up housekeeping in the Mimosa apartments here, where they are now at home to their many friends.

MISS LAURA JONES BETROTHED TO STEPHEN H. MILLENDER

Of interest to her many friends in this section was the marriage of Miss Laura Lyle Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Lyle Jones of Asheville, to Stephen H. Millender of Mebane, at the home of the bride's parents at high noon last Thursday.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. C. Cravner in the presence of members of the two families. Wedding music was performed by Miss Mary Brooks, pianist, and Miss Mary Lou Kirby, violinist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding dress was made of delphinium blue velvet with a veil caught back by a cornet. She carried a bouquet of shell pink roses.

Mrs. Franz T. Stone of Columbus, Ohio, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Dr. Charles White Millender of Asheville served as best man for his brother.

For her wedding trip, the bride wore a taupe silk dress with a gold kid belt, a hat of an autumn shade of red and a corsage of talisman roses.

Mrs. Millender is an alumna of Converse college. She has made a host of acquaintances here on her frequent visits to Franklin.

A graduate of the University of North Carolina, Mr. Millender is the son of Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Millender of Asheville. At present he is connected with the White Furniture company of Mebane, where the couple will reside.
