MRS. MCCOLLUM HONORED WITH SHOWER

Mrs. Alex Stewart and Mrs. Tom McCollum entertained with a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. James Palmer on Saturday evening, complimentary to Mrs. Jimmy McCollum, a recent bride. A number of friends called during the evening leaving useful and attractive gifts for the honoree.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Palmer, served delicious punch, cookies and mints.

SURPRISE SHOWER FOR MISS MARGARET COZAD

On Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Roy Beshears and Mrs. Zeb Conley entertained in the assembly room of the primary department of the Franklin Methodist church in honor of Miss Margaret Cozad, bride-elect of the month.

A few minutes after Miss Cozad arrived, the children of the primary department who had been hiding in another room, entered singing "Happy Wedding to Miss Margaret," and pulling a wagon laden with gifts which they took to her. The children watched with much interest while the presents were opened, after which the hostesses served punch and cookies. About 30 children and several parents were present.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER FOR MRS. HOWARD

Mrs. Sherman Ledford entertained last Friday night with a miscellaneous shower honoring Mrs. Colonel Howard, the former Miss Agnes Ledford, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Bertha Ledford.

Around 60 relatives and friends of the young couple called during the evening. Music was furnished by the Anderson brothers, and a delicious refreshment course was served to all the guests.

SHOWER GIVEN FOR MRS. BOYD COLLIER

A shower was given for Mrs. Boyd Collier, who prior to her marriage was Miss Ida Scroggs, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Scroggs last Wednesday night.

A host of friends came by during the evening to leave many beautiful and useful presents for the newly-wed pair.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR MRS. JUD POTTS

Mrs. Ivy Lee Potts gave her husband's mother, Mrs. Jud Potts, a surprise birthday party last Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Pearl Wright and Mrs. Kimmer assisted by taking Mrs. Potts over to spend the day with her invalid friend, Jennie Woods.

As she opened the door on her return, she was greeted by the song, "Happy Birthday to You," which was being sung by the room full of her nearest neighbors. Mrs. Potts was so completely surprised that she had to be led to a chair and her lap was filled with presents.

After presents had been opened, Ivy Lee invited the guests into the diningroom where a large tier cake, snow white with sixteen candles graced the center of the long table, which held tall vases of red roses at each end and a corsage for each guest.

Mrs. Potts blew out the candles and cut the cake serving her guests while Ivy Lee served most tasty fruit punch. The dining room, living room and porch were decorated with brilliant autumn flowers.

Mrs. Potts remarked that she had had a thousand birthdays, "more or less" but this one was the best ever!

The invited guests were: Mrs. Louie Phillips, Mrs. W. T. Wright, Mrs. J. A. Porter, Mrs. A. B.

GARDEN CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. W. A. ROGERS

At a recent meeting of the Franklin Garden Club held at the home of Mrs. W. A. Rogers, a box supper and cake walk to be held in the near future to raise funds for the new community house was planned. The committee appointed to make the arrangements was Mrs. Joe Dowdle, chairman; Mrs. A. R. Higdon, Mrs. R. M. Rimmer and Mrs. T. W. Angel, Jr.

Mrs. Charles Melichar presided over the meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Frank Kilian.

Mrs. L. H. Page read a very interesting article on dahlias.

The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. L. H. Page with Mrs. Zeb Conley as associate hostess.

Mrs. Rogers was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Roy G. Beshears. A sweet course was served at the conclusion of the meeting.

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES TO MEET NEXT WEEK

The Woman's Missionary Societies of the Franklin Baptist church will meet on Thursday afternoon, October 24, at 3 o'clock. Circle No. 1 will meet at the home of Mrs. J. R. Ray on the Murphy road; Circle No. 2 will meet with Mrs. L. B. Phillips, while Circle No. 3 will meet at the home of Mrs. J. E. Weyman.
