MISS MARGARET COZAD BECOMES BRIDE OF JOHN OLIVER WALL

One of the most beautiful and impressive nuptial ceremonies of the season took place at high noon last Saturday, when Miss Margaret Ellene Cozad, daughter of Mrs. Henry O. Cozad and the late Mr. Cozad, became the bride of John Oliver Wall, son of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Wall of Elberton, Ga., at the home of the bride's mother here.

The Rev. Ivon L. Roberts, pastor of the Franklin Methodist church, performed the ceremony, using the simple ring service. Only relatives and a few close friends of the couple were present.

The wedding march from Wagner's "Lohengrin" was used as a processional by the pianist, Mrs. Henry W. Cabe. "Liebestraum," by Liszt, was played softly during the simple ritual.

An arch of autumn foliage and bronze chrysanthemums was used as the background before which the couple spoke their vows. Vases of pink and white chrysanthemums decorated the living room and dining room.

For the wedding the bride wore a fall model of soldier blue crepe with silver sequin trim. Her hat was a modish model in soldier blue with shoulder veil and her accessories were of duobonnet. Completing her bridal outfit was a corsage of sweetheart rosebuds and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Cozad, mother of the bride, was attired in a lapis crepe dress with a corsage of mixed garden flowers.

Mrs. Wall, mother of the bridegroom, wore a model of black crepe. Her shoulder corsage was of mixed garden flowers.

After the ceremony the guests gathered in the dining room for a wedding dinner. The bridal table was covered with an Irish lace table cloth centered with a three-tier wedding cake which was decorated with orange blossoms and rosebuds and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

The bride is a graduate of the Franklin high school and of Weaver college, Weaverville. She also attended Greensboro college at Greensboro. Her paternal grandparents were Marcus E. Cozad and Mrs. Margaret Stephens Cozad, of Cleveland, Ohio, who came to this section in 1900. Mr. Cozad was one of the best known of Western North Carolina's timber dealers.
