

Christmas Play

Will Be Staged By Girl Scouts Monday Night

"While Mrs. Santa Was Away," the musical play the Girl Scouts are presenting again this year by popular demand, will be staged in the courthouse auditorium next Monday, December 16, at 8 p. m. The play has been in rehearsal for the past month under the direction of Miss Sophie Albert, assisted by Miss Dorothy Plonk, Miss Helen Moore and Girl Scout leaders. Emphasis this year has been placed on better individual performances.

Due to the increased number of Girl Scouts, a number of changes and special numbers have been added to the play. One of the new specialties, planned and costumed by Mrs. T. W. Angel, Jr., is the Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Andy skit, played by Frances Thomas and Ann Lyle, respectively.

Will Meet At High School Here Monday

The regular meeting of the Franklin Parent-Teacher association will be held at the high school here next Monday, December 16, at 3:30 p. m., Mrs. Lola P. Barrington, chairman of the program committee, announced this week.

Elementary teachers in the Franklin school will be hostesses at the meeting. All parents and teachers are cordially invited to attend.

The program will open with a devotional period, led by the Rev. Philip L. Green. J. J. Mann, vice-president of the local education association, will speak on "The Relationship of the Parent to the School," following which the group will sing Christmas carols, led by Mr. Green.

Chief characters in the play are Mary Angel as Santa; Jessie Mae Barnard as Mrs. Santa; Marian Carr as Merry Christmas; Marie Dean as Christmas Fairy; Mary Frances Page as Madame Pompadour; Inez Crawford as Bobby, the policeman; and Lucille Callo-way as Jack, the clown. Merrilee Brooks is property manager for the production.

The stage for the play was loaned to the Girl Scouts through the courtesy of the Franklin volunteer fire department.

The proceeds from the play will be used to pay off the remaining debt on the Girl Scout house. Tickets may be obtained from any Girl Scout or at the door.

Macon Supply Company Moves Into New Store

Harve Bryant and Lyman Higdon, proprietors of the Macon Supply company, are setting up their business in the quarters formerly occupied by the old Macon theatre on Main street here this week.

The Macon Supply was located in the Bank of Franklin building until its destruction by fire a few weeks ago.

The theatre building has been completely remodeled to form a modern store. Counters and shelves were installed earlier in the week and the process of moving and arranging stock begun.

Mr. Bryant said that he hoped to have the store opened for business Saturday, if possible.
