FIRST WEEK OF ASSEMBLY

National defense, state officers' salaries and auto license tags were key subjects on the first week's legislative agenda.

Raising four salaries and appropriating $2,000 for the Governor's inauguration, the General Assembly at the very beginning struck what may prove to be the keynote of the 1941 session. The salary increase, designed to equalize the pay of Constitutional officials with others increased in 1937, will give a 10 per cent raise to the Secretary of State, State Auditor, State Treasurer and Superintendent of Public Instruction. This measure was passed the first day.

National Defense

Two of the ten bills introduced concerned national defense. One, passed without a dissenting voice, was a resolution approving President Roosevelt's defense and aid-to-Britain policies. A copy of the Resolution was forwarded to the President. The other measure, presented by Representative LeGrand of New Hanover, is designed to curb "subversive activities" by making unlawful the advising or teaching of overthrow of government by force, with specific prohibition of the use of state buildings for such purpose. This bill was sent to committee.

Officers for the session are:

For the Senate: John Larkins, Jr., Jones county; president pro-tem; S. Ray Byerly, Lee county, principal clerk; L. H. Fountain, Edgecombe county, reading clerk; and Herman Scott, Chatham county, sergeant-at-arms. For the House: Odus M. Mull, Cleveland county, speaker; Shearon Harris, Stanly county, principal clerk; H. L. Joyner, Northampton county, sergeant-at-arms; and Ralph Monger, Jr., Lee county, reading clerk.

Negro Boy Tried For Forgery
Raleigh Dawkins, 13 year old negro boy, charged with forging the name of Dr. Furman Angel to checks and cashing same, was brought before Harley Cabe, juvenile court judge, Thursday afternoon. The boy acknowledged he had cashed four checks aggregating $50.74, at the Patton filling station, Barnard's store and at the Bank of Franklin, but denied that he had signed Dr. Furman's name or his own name. He gave the names of two boys who, he said, signed the checks. Two checks were placed in evidence. Mr. Cabe ordered Jailer Dills to hold the boy in custody until further investigation could be made.
