Macon Boy Believed Killed In Crash

News has come to J. B. Brendle, Route 4, of the probable death, in a navy bomber crash, of his nephew, Ernest S. Lemort, formerly of Macon county. In San Diego, Calif., on February 25, four navy flyers perished in a double crash of two army bombers that were believed to have locked wings during a routine night flight.

Young Lemort enlisted in Greenville, S. C., and was aviation machinist's mate. The pilot of the bomber is also reported killed in the crash. Ernest had many friends who will regret to learn of his tragic death. He is survived by his parents, his grandmothers, Mrs. Laura Parke of Franklin, Route 4 and Mrs. Lemort of Hendersonville; two sisters, Mrs. Helen White of Greenville, S. C. and Mrs. Louise Shuleman of Charlotte; and several aunts and uncles.
