WORK BEGUN ON GULF STATION

The contract for the Gulf Refining company's new filling station on the corner of Main and Fourth streets has been let to the S. S. Jacobs Construction company of Jacksonville, Fla., and work began Tuesday morning. The station is to cost in the neighborhood of $20,000, and will be built by local labor under the supervision of J. E. Tinley, Jacksonville.

Excavations preparatory to building will be done by Mr. Regd. of Asheville. W. A. Hays has the contract for the plumbing, heating and electrical work, and the entire job is to be completed within six weeks time.

BUNDLES-FOR-BRITAIN UNIT ORGANIZED

Miss Rebecca Nall is organizing a Highlands Bundles for Britain unit, which at the present time will consist chiefly of knitting sweaters. Anyone wishing to help in this work by knitting a sweater or giving the yarn for a sweater, will please communicate with Miss Nall, who is chairman of the unit. Working with Miss Nall are Dr. Jessie Z. Moreland, secretary and Mrs. Wilton H. Cobb, treasurer.

HIGHLANDS AND GLENVILLE BASKET BALL TEAMS

The basketball game here last Wednesday night between the Highlands high school boys and girls and the Glenville high school boys and girls was one of the best played games of the season. Although the Glenville girls won a decisive victory over the home girls, the score between the boys' teams was 19 to 18 in favor of Highlands, with Fred Littleton, Jr., the acknowledged outstanding player on the home team.

"THE SUMMIT" EDITION SOLD OUT

All copies of the Highlands high school 1940-41 Yearbook, The Summit, were sold within a few days after their receipt. The attractive eight by eleven-inch book of approximately forty pages is dedicated to Prof. O. F. Sumner, school principal. The book contains pictures of the faculty and high school students, with group pictures of the elementary grades; senior class prophecy, will, history, motto, etc.

This is the first yearbook published by Highlands school and its staff is to be congratulated on the splendid example set for the publication of future annuals by the school.

Composing the staff of the annual are: Editor-in-chief, Eugene Paul; Assistant Editor, Victor Smith; Business Manager, Gordon Talley; Secretary, Gladys Burnett. Class Editors, eleventh grade, June Thompson; tenth grade, Jessie Potts; ninth grade, La Verne Crisp; eighth grade, Maxie Wright; art editors, Peggy Sandstrom and Frances Ormand; athletic editor, Charlie McDowell.

MISS GILDER HOSTESS AT CLUB LUNCHEON

Miss Sara Gilder was hostess to the card club at a bridge-luncheon last Wednesday. Centering the beautifully appointed luncheon table were two pink Camellia-Japonica blossoms. Lighted pine cone candles completed the table decorations. Flower arrangements of jonquils were used in the living room and dining room.

In the bridge game Mrs. Wilton H. Cobb won high score prize and Mrs. Frank B. Cook was final winner of the traveling prize. The low score prize was awarded to Mrs. J. A. Hines.

MRS. PRICE ENTERTAINS CHURCH SERVICE

Mrs. R. J. Price was hostess to the Woman's Society of Christian Service at the March meeting last Thursday afternoon. The program for the afternoon was interestingly given by Mrs. Price, and a salad course was served after the meeting.

The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. Z. Gottwals.

Mr. and Mrs. Tearley B. Picklesmier and Mrs. Charles Brooks will return this week-end from a ten days' visit to Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Glen Shuler, who has been working in Fort Lauderdale this winter, will return with them.

Mrs. Jamie Wootton of Athens, Ga., returned home Tuesday after spending several days with the Misses C. B. and Esther Elliott at their home on Satulah Mountain.

Mrs. Annie Westbrook, adult education teacher, attended a three-day home-making conference in Asheville the past week.

Miss Christina Houston of Franklin is spending two weeks here with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Speed.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Blanchard returned to their home "Snug Harbor" on Cullasaja Drive last week after spending the winter months at Georgetown, Fla.

Dr. and Mrs. Louis Melchar of Charleston S. C. were guests at Hotel Edwards for a few days the past week.

Rev. R. B. DuPree and Jack Potts will return Saturday from a trip to Coveville, Va., where they have gone to take various household articles for the DuPree new home in that city. Mrs. DuPree and small son, Bobby, are visiting relatives in Greenville, S. C., this week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Baty a daughter, February 19, at their home in Indian Hills, who has been named Molly Louise.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hicks spent Sunday in Clayton, Ga., the guests of their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wilson.

The Misses Gertrude Swanson and Bessie M. Richardson of Oklahoma City, and Asheville, have purchased a home site on Bearpen Mountain, near the Evelyn Harris place, and expect to begin building at an early date. The sale was made through the S. T. Maret Real Estate Agency.

Mrs. Louis Edwards is just in receipt of a letter from her aunt in London telling of the death of a daughter in an air raid when the hospital was bombed in which the daughter was a patient.

Mrs. W. S. Davis, Mrs. J. W. Reese, Jr., and two children Louis and Martha, spent Saturday in Asheville where they visited Mrs. Reese's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Furman Merrill.

Week-end guests of Miss Nannie Rogers were her two nieces, Mrs. Susie Pierson of Cedar Mountain and Mrs. Norah Bradley of Penrose, and Robert Peaboff also of Penrose.

Miss Lavada Waters of Cashiers was the week-end guest of Miss Margaret Wiley at her home on West Main street.

W. H. Rogers has returned to the home of his aunt, Miss Nannie Rogers, after a ten-day visit with his sister, Mrs. Jane Tilson, at Walnut Creek. The condition of his brother-in-law, Mr. Tilson, who has been ill for several months, remains unimproved.

Mrs. Arthur Sprinkles has been seriously ill at the Angel Clinic for several days.

IN MEMORIAM OF JOSHUA ROGERS

On November 28, 1940, the death angel came and took from us Joshua Rogers, our friend. He was loved by all who knew him.

He was kind and true to everybody, with a friendly hand and a smile to add.

He treated all alike. He made both young and old feel glad. I thought a lot of him because he was a friend worth while. But now he has gone across the vale.

No one can ever fill his place. I know he is at rest for he said he was ready and willing to go.

So I need not mind the days that seem so dark and full of care.

For just across tomorrow the sun is shining fair.

I know I will meet him in that happy home above.

With Christ, our Lord, where all is love.

—A Friend.

High Week-End Death Toll In N. C.

Fires, motor vehicles and trains accounted for 15 violent deaths in North Carolina over the week-end and left scores of persons in hospitals, some of them seriously injured.

William Way, Jr.

William Way Jr.
