SHOWER FOR MRS. WARREN WILSON

The Misses Corinne, Frances and Louise Wilson were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Annie Westbrook on Wednesday afternoon, March 19, honoring their sister-in-law, Mrs. Warren Wilson, of Clayton, Ga., who was the former Miss Leila Johnson of Highlands. The event also marked the culminating activities of the home-making class taught by Mrs. Westbrook. The home was beautifully decorated with evergreens and spring flowers.

Mrs. Wilson wore a becoming dress of black crepe with accents of bright red. About fifty friends called during the afternoon and the honoree was the recipient of a wide range of lovely gifts. Gifts were also sent by many who were unable to attend the shower. A salad course was served.

SIXTH GRADE STAGES PLAY

An interesting "Visit to Chinatown with the Coolies" was staged by the sixth grade at Highlands school last Friday afternoon. The Chinese lanterns, fans, etc., used to decorate the room and the Chinese costumes worn by the speakers were very effective. Introductory remarks were made by Harold Rogers. Edd Lowery was program announcer, and the program in its order was: Original Poem "China," Doris Hedden; Products of China, Helen Lee; Climate, Donald Keener; Religion, Regina Burnette; Customs—Costumes, Ephraim Prince; Story of Marco Polo; Iris and Inez Ormand; Dialogue between Chinese boy and American boy, William Henry and Edd Lowry; Review of Scrapbook, Evelyn Phillips; Importance of Rice and Tea, Margaret Herrman.

Following the entertainment, refreshments carrying out the Chinese idea were served in the lunch room to the sixth grade mothers and a few invited guests by a committee composed of Reba Calloway, Allie Sue Price, Mack Neely and Bobby Crawford. The tables were centered with evergreens in Chinese holders, and place cards were of Chinese design. Favors were colorful candy-filled baskets.

Luncheon guests who did not remain for the afternoon bridge game were Dr. Jessie Z. Moreland, Miss Ella Stephens and Mrs. Mary Zachary, mother of the hostess. The luncheon tables were centered with an arrangement of jonquils, and place cards were shamrocks.

In the four-table progressive game Miss Sara Gilder won high score prize, a pot of Chinese primroses, and Mrs. E. R. Gilbert was final winner of the traveling prize. A second pot of Chinese primroses was presented to Mrs. Frank B. Cook as high score guest prize. Other guest players were Mrs. S. T. Marett and Miss Rebecca Nall.

Church Plans Unique Three Months' Program

Something unusual in special services during the coming weeks is the program announced by Rev. J. G. Benfield of the Highlands Baptist church. For 15 weeks, beginning Sunday, April 6, all the Sunday morning and Sunday night services will be built around one theme, "Christ."

The first Sunday morning subject will be, "The Christ of Prophecy." This will be followed by "The Christ of Bethlehem and Nazareth." Sunday by Sunday every important incident in Christ's life will be considered.

While the actual events of His life will provide the studies for the Sunday morning sermons, Christ's teaching will be the basis of the Sunday night messages. The fifteen paramount problems of today, with Christ's answer to each, will constitute the Sunday night subjects. Such themes as, "What Jesus Teaches About God," "What Jesus Teaches About Man," "What Jesus Teaches About War," "What Jesus Teaches About the Judgment," will be discussed.

Next Sunday, March 30, will be roll call Sunday. Every member is urged to be present.
