WILLIAM J. BLAINE WEDS MISS BRIGGS

A wedding of interest to many friends here is that of William J. Blaine, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Blaine, who was married to Miss Jessie Sue Briggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Briggs, of Swannanoa, on Easter Sunday.

The beautiful wedding service was solemnized in the Swannanoa Baptist church last Sunday afternoon at four o'clock, with Dr. Hoyt Blackburn, president of Mars Hill college performing the ceremony.

The vows were spoken in front of a bower of greenery with tall baskets of Easter lilies on either side. White tapers added to the decorations.

The bride was lovely in a becoming gown of pale blue silk with hat to match, and a bride's bouquet of pink rosebuds and blue delphinium. Her sister, Miss Nell Briggs, was her maid-of-honor.

John Cunningham of Franklin, acted as the groom's best man.

The wedding was attended by a number of friends and relatives of the young people. Mrs. J. H. Young, sister of the groom, Oscar Bryant and Clell Bryant, brother-in-law and nephew, of Franklin, attended. Mr. and Mrs. Blaine were prevented from being present on account of illness.

The bride is a graduate of St. Genevieve-of-the-Pines, Asheville, and the groom is a graduate of Mars Hill college. Mr. Blaine is employed with the Smoky Mountain Stages. The couple will make their home in Asheville.
