MANY ATTEND BAPTIST SERVICES

Large crowds are hearing the double series of sermons being preached at the Baptist church by the pastor, Rev. J. G. Benfield. The subjects for next Sunday are: 11:00 a. m., "The Christ of Divine Grace"; 8:00 p. m., "What Jesus Teaches About Himself."

The church and all of its organizations are taking on new life, the pastor said, and much interest is being shown. There were three additions to the church membership last Sunday night.

Saturday, April 19, is designated as clean-up-day. All members and friends are asked to be present to help beautify the church grounds. Lunch is to be served on the grounds.

HIGHLANDS STREETS TO BE IMPROVED

The Town Board of Commissioners has awarded the contract for improving the streets of Highlands to Arnold H. Vanderhoof of Asheville. The work is to be done under a WPA project and calls for hard-surfacing some of the streets. It is understood that the road up Satulah Mountain is one to be hard-surfaced, as well as Chestnut street leading to Bear Pen Mountain, with practically all of the streets coming in for improvement. This announcement will be welcomed by both year-round citizens and summer residents, who feel that street improvement is as much needed for the growth of Highlands as the enlarged water system, which is just now being completed.

MRS. DAVIS ENTERTAINS FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Mrs. W. S. Davis entertained with a miscellaneous shower Tuesday afternoon honoring Miss Nancy Elizabeth Hines, whose marriage to Alfred Newman Ormond of Pocatello, Idaho, will be an event of April 23 at the Episcopal church here. Arrangements of spring flowers were used in the rooms. Receiving with Mrs. Davis were Mrs. J. A. Hines and Mrs. F. C. Ormond. Miss Bess Hines, Miss Frances Ormond and Mrs. J. W. Reese, Jr., served punch during the afternoon.

The honoree was lovely in a brown crepe costume with accents of gold. She received her shower of gifts from little Miss Martha Reese, who presented them in an upturned rain umbrella. Little Miss Reese wore a dainty frock of pink and white crepe. Approximately sixty guests called between the hours of 3 to 6.

BEER LICENSE RENEWALS

(An Open Letter to County and City Officials)

May is the month when city and county authorities have the responsibility of passing on yearly applications for beer licenses.

It is the hope of the Brewers and North Carolina Beer Distributors Committee that local authorities will scrutinize the record of each applicant, and will deny renewals to the few who have abused the privilege of a license.

Careful selection of licensees fosters better law observance—requiring a small expenditure for enforcement and allowing larger sums for welfare and school purposes.

BREWERS AND NORTH CAROLINA BEER DISTRIBUTORS COMMITTEE

Edgar H. Bain, State Director, Suite 813-817 Commercial Bldg. Raleigh

On Friday afternoon Miss Hines will be honored with a linen and lingerie shower given by Mrs. Tudor N. Hall and Mrs. Thomas C. Harbison at the home of Mrs. Hall.

MISS BRYSON MAKES HIGH RATING IN PIANO

Miss Mozelle Bryson, student at Brevard college, is spending the spring holidays here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bryson. Miss Bryson is making remarkable progress in her piano study under Austrian pianist and music teacher at the college, where she is a freshman this year. Miss Bryson and one other girl were the only students to make a "B" rating in piano study, the two being excelled only by one other student in college with a rating of "A".

MISS REBECCA HARRIS BEAL TO MARRY JAMES McDONALD

Mr. and Mrs. Robert I. Beal of Port Orange, Fla., have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Rebecca Harris Beal, to Mr. James Eldridge McDonald, on April 2, 1941, at Port Orange. The Beals are former residents of Highlands and this announcement will be of interest to their friends here.

LITTLE MISS MARY SUMMER ENTERTAINS WITH EASTER PARTY

Little Miss Mary Summer entertained a number of her friends with an Easter party last Thursday at the home of her parents, Prof. and Mrs. O. F. Summer, on Pierson Drive. In the egg hunt the prize for finding the most eggs was won by Buddy Hall. Other games were enjoyed on the lawn. The yellow and white color scheme used in decorations also featured the refreshments, and Easter favors were presented to each of the children.

Mrs. Summer was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. W. A. Hays and Mrs. Jack M. Hall.

Included in the guest list were Tommy Rucker, Louis Edwards, Becky Johnson, Anne Harbison, Martha Reese, Anne Hays, Raymond Cleveland, Buzzie Hentz, Marylou McCarty, Sidney McCarty, III, Buddy Hall, Joan Calloway, George McDowell, and Margaret Zoeller.

MRS. HALL CLUB HOSTESS

Mrs. Jack M. Hall was hostess to the Wednesday Card Club last week at dessert-bridge at her home "Shadow Lawn" on Fifth street. A table of guest players was included in the courtesy. The living room and dining room were beautifully decorated with jonquils and pansies. An Easter bunny holding a note of welcome greeted the guests at the door, and a nest of brightly colored eggs, presided over by an Easter bunny, formed an attractive note in the living room decorations. The homemade score cards also carried an Easter greeting.

In the delightful four-table game, Mrs. J. A. Hines won high score prize, and Mrs. Frank B. Cook, guest player, was presented with the traveling prize. Other guest players were Mrs. W. A. Hays, Dr. Jessie Z. Moreland and Miss Grace Lusk.

METHODIST WOMEN WITH MRS. GOTTWALS

The Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service held their April meeting last Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. Z. Gottwals. Mrs. J. S. Higgins presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. R. J. Price. The secretary, Mrs. W. A. Bryson, was also absent and her report was given by Miss Susan Rice. After the program Mr. Higgins gave an interesting talk. Members present were Mrs.

Gottwals, Miss Rice, Mrs. J. M. Rogers, Mrs. G. W. Sheppard, Mrs. M. M. Hopper and Mrs. J. S. Higgins. Mrs. Gottwals was assisted in serving punch and cake by Miss Susan Rice.

The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. M. M. Hopper on the Dillard road.

BEAUTY SALON TO OPEN

Esther's Beauty Salon will open at an early date upstairs in the postoffice building. The new shop will occupy two rooms with an adjoining bathroom.

Mrs. Roliver Baty, owner of the new shop, is the former Miss Esther Waldrup of Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Anderson and daughters, the Misses Angela, Mary Deas, Anne and Jane Anderson, and Mrs. Martha Day returned last week from a two and a half months' stay in Miami, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. J. Harvey Trice are spending some time at their cottage on East Main street before opening Tricemont Terrace for the season. Their daughter, Miss Peggy Polhill, student at Brenau college, Gainesville, Ga., and her friend, Miss Mary Alice Morgan, student at Emerson college in Boston, Mass., spent Easter week-end with them.

Miss Mozelle Bryson, a student at Brevard college, is spending the spring holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bryson, at their home on Highway 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Chapman and small daughter Carol Anne of Atlanta, were guests of Mrs. Chapman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Potts for the Easter season.

Mrs. Maiden Keener entertained about twenty of the smaller children in the Flat Mountain community with an Easter egg hunt on the grounds of the Keener home last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hodgson and daughter of Athens, Ga., and some friends spent Easter week-end at the Hodgson summer home on Cullasaja drive.

The many friends of Miss Albertina Staub will be pleased to know that her condition is very much improved. Miss Staub sits up for her meals and is up for several hours a day in her room and on the connecting sun porch.

Miss Lula Hinson of Kenansville will arrive this week-end for a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. A. Hines, and for the marriage of her niece, Miss Nancy Elizabeth Hines, which takes place next Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Episcopal church.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank Moss and two children of Bethune, S. C., spent Sunday night and Monday in Highlands. Mr. Moss preached to a large congregation at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. Mrs. W. H. Perry has returned to Atlanta after spending several days at Camp Parry-dise. Mrs. Parry had as her guest Miss Louise B. Cramer of Atlanta.

Miss Mildred Huston of Franklin is the new manager of Highlands Beauty Shop. Miss Huston was an employee of this shop last season and needs no introduction to its patrons.

Mr. and Mrs. Furman Merrill of Asheville visited relatives here and in Franklin over the Easter holidays.

Miss Estelle Edwards is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edison Picklesimer in Charlotte, and the Misses Sarah and Peggy Thompson at Queens-Chicora college.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Ormond and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Schow attended Easter church services in Atlanta the past week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Irving S. Gumbell of Augusta, Ga., arrived last week to spend the season at their place in Horse Cove.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell C. Weaver have returned to their home in Cincinnati, after a visit here with Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. Wilcox. Mrs. Weaver and Mrs. Wilcox are sisters.

Mrs. Gordon Spencer has returned to her home on the Dillard road after a two months' visit with her sister, Mrs. Sam Munger in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Munger accompanied Mrs. Spencer home and will visit another sister, Mrs. D. W. Wiley, who is improving from a ten days' illness. Mrs. Wiley's father, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Rogers, is also here for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Gould of Atlanta, arrived Monday to spend several days at their summer home at the Country Club.

Miss Louise Dillard, teacher of home economics in Okofe Junior High School, Atlanta, spent Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Dillard at Dillard, Ga., and visited Miss Estelle Edwards in Highlands.
