ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Of interest to their friends is the approaching marriage of Miss Margaret Lindsay Boyd of Abbeville, S. C., to Jack Norris of Atlanta, Ga., the event taking place on the evening of May 31, at 8:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian church in Abbeville, S. C.

Miss Boyd is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Boyd. She received her education at Erskine college in Due West, S. C., and was a member of the Kappa Delta Phi sorority.

Mr. Norris is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Norris of Atlanta, Ga., formerly of Anderson, S. C. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harrison Hill of Highlands. He is a member of the firm of Norris Inc., dealers of Antiques and Objects of Art. He received his education at Vass University school and Georgia Tech.

After the wedding they will be at home to their friends at 176 E. Wesley road.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Norris of Atlanta will entertain at a luncheon on May 31, in honor of the bridal party at Hotel Belmont in Abbeville.

E. F. RAYNOR PASSES IN MIAMI

Word was received here Saturday of the death of E. F. Raynor in a Miami, Fla., hospital that morning. Mr. Raynor had been a summer resident of Highlands for a number of years prior to building a summer home at the Country Club in 1937.

HAROLD ROGERS WINS SCHOOL HONOR

Harold Rogers won the one dollar sixth grade prize offered by Miss Ethel Calloway, teacher, to the student showing the greatest improvement in reliability, judgment, self-control and obedience during the school year. Running Harold a close second was Lena Crane in a vote of 13 to 10. Others coming in for honorable mention were Frances Miller and Jesse Vinson.

Harold served as class president for the last two months of school, with Doris Hedden vice-president; Iris Ormond, secretary, and Mae Miller, treasurer.

MAYOR OF HIGHLANDS HELPS BUILD SIDEWALKS

Mayor W. W. Edwards was seen wearing overalls Monday and assisting with the construction of a section of concrete sidewalks, believe it or not.

DOES YOUR HOUSE LOOK HAUNTED?

Probably not! But frankly, now . . . couldn't it stand a little painting up, both inside and out? Now's the time to do it . . . and Kurfees Paints are the paints for the job! Primatrol for the under coat . . . "80 and 20" for the finishing coat. And Granitold Quick-Drying Enamel, Dim-Tone and Flat-Tint for interior finishes! Come in . . . let us show you how inexpensively you can make your house "look like a million!"

MISS JUNE WISE WEDS H. D. SMITH

Tricent Terrace was the scene of a lovely wedding on Thursday, May 15, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon when H. D. Smith and Miss June Wise of Greenville, S. C., were united in marriage. The Rev. W. McLeod Frampton, Jr., pastor of the Third Presbyterian church in Greenville heard the vows. The couple left immediately for a wedding trip to New York City.

WAY-CHAMBERS

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Mrs. Davis Wagener Dietrich Chambers, of Chicago, Ill., to Mr. William Way, Jr., of Nashville, Tenn., on Monday, May 19, at high noon in the Presbyterian church in Wallalla, S. C. The bride's daughter, Miss Jan Chambers, was maid of honor and Admiral C. N. McCully of Highlands, acted as best man.

Mr. Way is executive assistant to the president of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railroad, and after a short wedding trip the couple will be at home in Nashville.

Attending the wedding were Mr. Way's parents, Rev. and Mrs. William Way, Sr., his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wagner, of Charleston, S. C., and Colonel Ralph H. Mowbray, W. R. Potts, Jack Potts, George Baty and Admiral C. N. McCully of Highlands.

The town of Wallahalla was founded by Mr. Way's great-grandfather, Wagner, and because of sentiment the couple chose this place for their wedding.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Way have been summer residents of Highlands for a number of years.
