

MODERN KITCHEN

Of a Home Demonstration Club Member.

Future Farmer

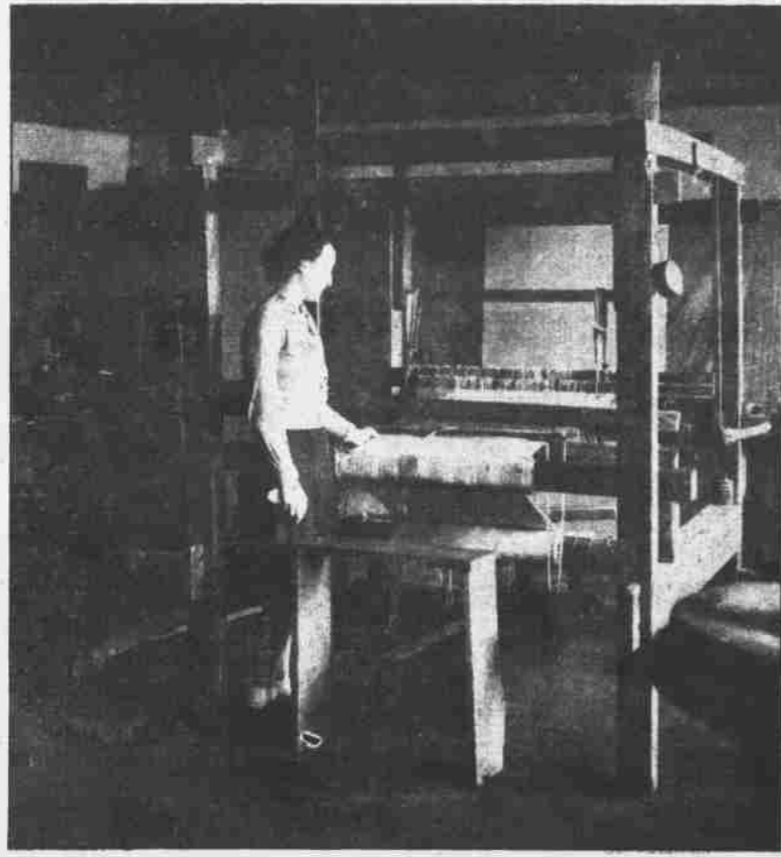

Mack Duncan, son of Mrs. Leona Duncan, of Patton Valley, where he has been on the honor roll for several years. Taken with his pet calf at the home of his uncle, Lawrence M. Patton.

Franklin Terrace Enlarges Capacity

Franklin is fortunate in having an outstanding hotel situated in the heart of town that meets the highest standards of beauty, comfort and service. For many years, this famous hostelry has served the best clientele, many guests coming summer after summer to enjoy delightful surroundings with every element supplied to contribute to an enjoyable vacation.

Indeed, this very character of the place, built up for years under the management of the owners, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Willis and daughters, led one of their guests,

Craft Room in Franklin

Mrs. Hunter Calloway, voluntary leader, is shown examining weaving that is being done by home demonstration club members.

Curb Market on Main Street. Built and conducted by Home Demonstration Club women of Macon County.

H. H. Hirsch of Atlanta, who had come for many years, to purchase the property.

Mr. and Mrs. Hirsch have made a considerable investment in modernizing and enlarging the buildings and landscaping the grounds since acquiring the property. This year three beautiful cottages have been built on the grounds to increase accommodations for summer visitors.

Franklin's bid for the tourist business has been greatly enhanced because it can offer the advantages of this luxurious hotel in so rare a setting.

Drunken drivers killed at least 110 persons in this state last year.

We Rejoice
In The Progress of Our Town and County

The Old Bank Was Built
34 Years Ago

Today we look forward to having a finer, better building, more suited to the needs of our times. . . .

Tomorrow, even as yesterday and today, we will continue to offer the sound, modern banking service, that is necessary to the growth of a community.

Our Endeavor

Has been and will always be to meet the needs of business and individual citizens in a manner consistent with the soundest business principles.

THE BANK of FRANKLIN

Member F. D. I. C.

FRANKLIN TERRACE HOTEL AND COTTAGES

Spacious Grounds

Private and Connecting Baths

Excellent Cuisine

Best Clientele

Guests Enjoy Beautiful Views

From Every Window In a Setting of Trees and Flowers

For Reservations, Write or Phone

H. H. HIRSCH

Franklin, N. C.