VISITORS INVITED TO MUSEUM OPENING

Miss Laura M. Bragg of Charleston, who has been appointed director of Highlands Museum for the summer, announces that the museum will hold open house on Friday, June 20 from 4 o'clock in the afternoon until 9 o'clock in the evening. The people of the community are invited to attend this housewarming, inspect the new building and learn something of its plans. Visitors coming up to attend the square dance on Friday evening or for the weekend are also cordially invited.

After the housewarming, the children's room will be open several afternoons a week, even though it is yet unfurnished. Among the many things planned by Miss Bragg is the organizing of a camera club, and she will be glad to talk with anyone interested in photography. The museum has a splendid darkroom for developing pictures.

The new director says the architecture of the building and the planting of the grounds are perfect, and that it is now up to the community to see that the museum is furnished in keeping with the beauty of the building.

Miss Bragg is a former director of the Charleston Museum, and was director of the Berkshire Museum at Pittsfield, Mass., from July 1931 until her resignation last year, which she says has left her free to do the very lovely things of coming up here and helping the community get acquainted with its new museum and the many things for which it stands. She has spent two summers in Highlands, was a member of the original advisory committee for organizing the museum, and the plans for the building were sent to New England for her approval. So after all, Miss Bragg is not a stranger to Highlands or to the museum. Her home for the summer will be the Foreman residence in Lindenwood Park with Dr. and Mrs. Clark Foreman.

The museum is to be devoted to local art, and particularly to building up the exhibition of the folklore in the mountains of Western North Carolina.

SCOUTS BEAUTIFY TOWN LOTS

The Boy Scouts, with the assistance of a public spirited citizen, are beautifying the Whittle lots on Main street in front of their Scout cabin, and making it into an attractive park. Three picnic tables with seats have been placed under the shade trees on this lot, and the town has extended the water line onto the lot where the Scouts are to build a rock fountain.

LIBRARY OPEN TWICE A WEEK

Miss Gertrude Harbison, librarian, announces that the Hudson library will be open each Tuesday and Saturday afternoon from four to six o'clock until further notice.

"ODD JOB" SHOP TO OPEN JUNE 23

A new business venture for Highlands is the "Odd Job Shop" opening Monday, June 23, at the Hines house on Satulah road opposite King's Inn. This shop is under the management of Virginia R. Wilcox and Bess Hines, who say the shop will do anything from opening and closing summer homes to weeding the garden, meeting trains, staying with children at night, or meeting any of the usual household emergencies.

A special feature of the Odd Job Shop is the play pen, which includes a day nursery under the supervision of Bess Hines.

MISS ROPER IS BRIDE OF C. L. CALLOWAY, JR.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Roper of Franklin announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Gertrude Roper, to Corporal Claude L. Calloway, Jr., of Highlands and Fort Jackson, S. C., on Sunday, June 8, in Clayton, Ga. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. Claude L. Calloway, Sr., and the late Mrs. Lillie Chastain Calloway.

The bride was attired in pink with white accessories and wore a corsage of sweet peas and baby breath fern.

The young people were accompanied to Clayton by Mr. and Mrs. John Calloway and son, Morris Calloway.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. ALPHA SPEED

Funeral services for Mrs. Alpha Speed, member of a prominent Macon county family, and widow of the late Calvin Speed, were conducted at the Baptist church Thursday, June 5, by Rev. J. G. Benfield, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. J. S. Higgins, pastor of the Methodist church.

Mrs. Speed, who was in her 79th year, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sam L. Calloway, on the morning of June 4, following a week's acute illness. She was a member of the Baptist church, and a beautiful tribute paid to her by a friend of long standing tells of her untiring Christian work in caring for the sick of the community in years gone by. The many floral offerings gave evidence of her wide circle of friends. Flower girls were the Misses Oma Carver, Louise Speed, Betty Speed and Jean Keener.

Pallbearers were Prioleau Hedden, John Alexander, Albert Waller and three grandsons, Leon Calloway and Chester Speed.

Surviving are five sons: Fate, Simon, Lonnie, Doyle and Roy Speed, one daughter, Mrs. Sam L. Calloway, 13 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren. One brother, John Carber, also survives.

EPISCOPAL SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC; HELPS CHINESE

Members of the Episcopal Sunday school enjoyed a picnic supper and a swim party at Cliffside lake Tuesday afternoon, under the supervision of Miss Bess Hines, Miss Estelle Edwards and Mrs. Tudor Hall. Children in attendance were, Sarah Hall, Isabel Hall, Buddy Hall, Collin Wilcox, Jere Wilcox, Martha Sue Carlin, Kathleen Saussy, David Saussy, Jean Keener, Joyce Keener, Peggy Potts, Mary Young, Louise Crisp, Kathleen Crisp, Ted Schow, Iris Ormond, Inis Ormond and Ruth Ormond.

The children of the Sunday school are to sell war relief stamps next week to help Chinese children, and it is hoped that they will receive the cooperation of the public.

A CORRECTION

Last week's paper quoted Highlands Drug Store as exclusive dealers here for Biltmore ice cream. This was in error as Biltmore ice cream is also handled by the Marrett Grocery store, and has for years been one of the store's best selling items. We are glad to make the correction.

MRS. CAZIARC HOSTESS AT BRIDGE-TEA

Mrs. Elliott Caziarc was hostess to the members of her card club and other friends at a bridge-tea last Wednesday. The rooms were beautifully decorated with a profusion of blue and pink larkspur and pink snapdragons. Score cards were small fans tied with pink and blue ribbon bows.

In the three-table game Mrs. E. R. Gilbert won high score club prize and Mrs. C. C. Potts the traveling prize. High score guest prize was won by Mrs. A. R. Nall. Other guest players were Miss Mary J. Crosby, Miss Grace Lusk and Mrs. J. A. Randall. Coming in for the tea hour were Mrs. Francis Higdon of Franklin, Mrs. Harvey Trice, J. C. Blanchard and Colonel Caziarc. Centering the lace-covered tea table was a bowl of iris and floating candles with tall blue and pink lighted candles at either side.

The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. J. C. Blanchard.

Lewis Rice, Jr., of Highlands, was among the four hundred students graduating from the Lee Edwards high school in Asheville last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Cook of Miami, Fla., have rented the Dr. Michael Hoke cottage at the country club for the season.

Miss Fannie George Lucas has returned from a three month's visit with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Marshall, in Jacksonville, Fla.

Miss Rebecca Harris is here for the summer, after spending six months at her winter home in North Lake Weir, Fla. On the way up, Miss Harris stopped over for a short visit with her cousins in Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Root had as their weekend guests Mrs. Root's sister, Mrs. E. G. Richardson, and Mr. and Mrs. Moyer of Charlotte. Dr. and Mrs. Warner P. Davis and their daughter, Miss Helen Davis, of Lexington, Ky., arrived Monday for a two days' stay at their summer cottage, "Lakehurst", on Mirror Lake. Dr. Davis is pastor of the Epworth Methodist church in Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McCord of Macon, Ga., have leased the Barnes summer home on the Walhalla road for the season.

Buddy Thompson and the Misses Jessie and Nancy Potts, Virginia Mae Edwards and June Thompson will return Saturday from Montreat where they have been attending a Presbyterian young people's conference since Monday. Buddy Thompson is president of the Christian Endeavor Union and was sent as a delegate by the organization with all expenses paid.

Miss Carolyn Potts, student at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, is spending her vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Potts, at Fairview Inn. Other students home for their vacation are Billy Nall and Guy Paul, Jr., from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill.

Miss Elsie Trulove of Wilmington will return home Saturday after a ten days' visit here with Miss Sarah Thompson. Miss Thompson was a graduate this year of Queens-Chicora college at Charlotte, and Miss Trulove is one of her college friends.

Miss Rose B. Johnson and Miss Sarah Ordway of Birmingham, Ala., are at "Johnson Cote", the summer home of Miss Johnson in Lindenwood Park, for the season.

Dr. O. S. Gibbs of Memphis, Tenn., arrived Thursday to spend some time with Mrs. Gibbs and the twins, who are occupying the Hodges cottage for the season.

Mrs. S. A. Cook and children of Coconut Grove, Fla., have taken the small Blanchard cottage on Foreman road for the season. Mrs. Cook occupied the Carlin cottage last season.

Mr. and Mrs. George Saussy and family of Columbia, S. C., arrived Saturday to spend some time at Highfield, the summer home of Mrs. Saussy's mother, on the Walhalla road.

Mrs. O. E. Young and her daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Young, have returned from a two weeks' business trip to New York and are opening their gift shop, Wit's End, next door to the postoffice, on Saturday, June 14.

Mrs. Walter Lipscomb and
