CHURCH WEDDING UNITES MISS BRYSON AND STANFORD KROM

A ceremony performed in candlelight on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Franklin Methodist church united Miss Mildred Irene Bryson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Bryson to Stanford Joseph Krom, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Krom, of Ellenville, N. Y. Dr. J. L. Stokes II, pastor, officiated, using the ring ceremony before a large assemblage of relatives and friends.

The marriage vows were spoken before a background of hemlock interspersed with baskets of gladioli and Queen Ann's lace with branching candelabra on either side.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Henry W. Cabe, organist, who played "To a Wild Rose," by McDowell. Miss Dorothy Sloan and Richard Sloan, sang a duet, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" by Victor Herbert, and the vested choir sang "Oh Perfect Love," by Barnby. Miss Dorothy Painter, of West Virginia, sang "Because," by D'Hardelot. The traditional wedding marches were played and "Liebestraum" by Liszt was softly played during the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a period gown of white satin with long leg-of-mutton sleeves coming to point over her hand, a tight basque waist with neckline and girdle of alcyon lace; the full skirt ending in a long train. Broad insets of lace ran from the waist in the back to the end of the train. Her finger-tip veil of illusion tulle was caught by a coronet of orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a cameo suspended by a gold chain, a gift of her grandmother. She carried a fan-shaped bouquet of white gladioli and swansonias centered with gardenias, with streamers of swansonias.

Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Ruth Bryson, who wore a dress of dusty pink tulle over taffeta in a matching shade. The gown was fashioned especially for her, and was made with a tight basque waist, puffed sleeves and a long full skirt. She carried a bouquet of mixed flowers arranged like that of the bride and wore a spray of the same flowers in her hair.

Mrs. C. T. Bryson, mother of the bride, was attired in a white dress of regency faconne. Her corsage was of orchid gladioli.

Arthur Bilyeu, of Ellenville, N. Y., brother-in-law of the groom, acted as best man. The ushers were Lyman Higdon, Jr., Albert Ramsey, Jr., and William Parrish, cousins of the bride, and Kenneth Cabe. The candles were lighted immediately before the ceremony by Lyman Higdon, Jr., and Albert Ramsey, Jr.

Following the ceremony, an informal reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bryson on the Highlands road. Guests were received by Mrs. Bryson and members of the wedding party.

Mrs. Lyman Higdon, cousin of the bride, received in the dining room and Mrs. A. R. Higdon presided over the punch bowl. Others assisting in the dining room were Misses Margaret Corbin and Roberta Henson. Miss Audrey Conley was in charge of the bride's register.

The dining room was decorated with mixed garden flowers. The lace covered table was centered with the three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Silver candlesticks with white lighted tapers completed the table decorations.

After the reception the couple left for a tour of the Northern states. For traveling the bride donned a green and white suit with white accessories, and her corsage was detached from her bridal bouquet. After their return they will reside at 169 Canal street, Ellenville, N. Y.

Among the out-of-town guests here to attend the wedding were:

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Smith, Atlanta; Miss Nola Grady, Kinston; Miss Leuna Jeffrey, Jefferson City, Tenn.; Miss Grace Angel, Gastonia; Mrs. Leona Sadler, Raleigh; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bilyeu, Ellenville, N. Y.
