Offers Rare Articles

At the special sale being conducted at the A. Joseph Gift Shop, many articles of rare beauty are being offered. On account of the war, imported objects of art cannot be obtained after the present stock is exhausted. Wise buyers will consider this opportunity and lay in a supply of gifts for Christmas and other occasions when it is possible to secure bargains from the unusually wide selection offered by Mr. Joseph. His gift shop has added to the many attractions offered to tourists by the town of Highlands as it is an establishment that offers city standards in quality, variety, and expert selection.

ARTS AND CRAFTS EXHIBIT AT MUSEUM

An exhibition of folk arts and hand crafts from Macon and surrounding counties, including apper South Carolina and Georgia, will open at Highlands museum on Tuesday, July 29. This is to be a loan exhibition and the people are asked to lend any handmade articles they have that would add to the interest of the exhibition, either things of long ago times or the present day, including bed spreads, woven towels, linens, tables, chairs, all kinds of furniture, carving, decorative arts and anything connected with the home or

A large old-fashioned loom and a cotton spinning wheel have been promised for the occasion and Miss Bragg, museum director, hopes to have an operator on hand for

The shops here are also cooperating in this exhibition. All exhibits will be labeled with the owner's name and the gift shops as well as individuals may, if they like, take orders for their wares at the exhibition.

Mrs. Ralph Sargent, Miss Mary Crosby and Miss Rebecca Bridgers are the committee in charge of individual collections. Ontside exhibits will be collected as a unit. All exhibits must be at the museum not later than Monday, and the end of this week would be better, so they may be arranged for Tuesday's opening.

This coming Sunday and the next, the museum will be open for the special exhibits from 3 to 6 in the afternoon.

CHILDREN'S ROOM

PLANNED AT LIBRARY

At a meeting of the trustees of Hudson Library, held in the library annex last Friday, the adjoining room used by the museum for the past eight years, was inspected with a view to making alterations so that the front part of the room may be used as a children's room and the rear as a workroom for mending books, etc. A committee was appointed to oversee this work and as soon as it is completed the library plans to hold a silver tea for the opening of the room.

The closed bookcase, used by the school lunch room for several years, is the original library and the trustees hope to get this bookcase for the children's room, A children's desk and several chairs were given to the library last year by Mrs. Arthur L. Bliss. As a further aid in fitting this room with books and furniture the library hopes to sponsor a movie at the school theatre.

Trustees present at the meeting were Miss Marguerite Ravenel, Miss Mary J. Crosby, Miss Cora Miltimore, Miss Dorothea Harbi-son, Mrs. Frank H. Potts, Mrs. Arthur L. Bliss, Mrs. Ralph Sargent and Miss Gertrude Harbison

MISS BRASLER IN CANDIDA

The hours will be from two to Strong Cast Professional Actors Will Play This Season

> Two new members are expected this week to join the group of the Highlands Community Theatre players who are to carry the acting responsibility in Candida, the Theatre's next production. They are Muriel Brasler of New York and Jimmie Reese of Atlanta.

The group which includes the director, Arthur Little and his wife, Sarah Jones Little, Edith Sommer, and Larry Gates, is occupying Plywood near Billy Cabin. Plywood has been loaned to the Highlands Community Theatre for the summer by its owner, Mrs. H. D. Randall.

The Theatre is extremely fortunate through Mr. Little to have secured Miss Brasler for the leading role in Candida. Miss Brasler will be remembered as Portia in Orson Wells' production of Julius Caesar. She has been on the legitimate stage for some years and has played both on Broadway and in summer stock companies, such as the John Drew Memorial Theatre at Southampton, L. I.

Mr. Little was first associated with Miss Brasler in 1935 at the Surry Playhouse in Bar Harbor where they were both acting for the season.

Edith Sommer and Larry Gates are both old friends of the Highlands Community Theatre and in some measure responsible for the success of our first season in 1939, inasmuch as they had the leading roles in The Barter Theatre production of Saturday's Children, which the Highlands Community Theatre sponsored iin bringing to Highlands, and which was so enthusiastically received.

Edie, as she prefers to be called, studied for the stage at The Neighborhood Playhouse School of the Theatre, conducted by the Group Theatre in New York. In the spring of 1939, Edie won the of the Dublin Abbey Theatre. Laurette Taylor award for outstanding ability as one of the most talented and promising young actresses of the day. She was selected for this honor out of a group of 600 applicants. The award entitled her to a summer of further a full season of good plays in study at The Barter Theatre in summer resorts where the popula-Abingdon, Va., where she and tion is a transient one, is possible Arthur and Larry first worked together. Mr. and Mrs. George Martin and young son, George, of Sarasota, Fla., are spending a week at Miss Darthula Rice's home at Shortoff, Mr. Martin is an uncle of E. A. Burt, Jr., of Highlands.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Pass and two children, Rex and Marie, of Birmingham, Ala., are spending this week in Miss Ethel Calloway's cottage on Fourth street. Before taking the cottage Mr. and Mrs. Pass were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Marett, uncle and aunt of Mrs. Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hicks attended the all-day singing at Double Springs, S. C., last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Baty and Mrs. Oscar Anthony and small daughter, Margaret, were guests at the birthday dinner given for Mrs. Baty's mother on War Woman Creek, near Pine Mountain last Sunday. Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Edwards were Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Ryals, of Cordele, Ga., Miss
