LIBRARY HOLDS BENEFIT TEA AT MISS RAVANEL'S

A very pleasant social affair of last week was the silver tea given by the Library Association at the library annex for the benefit of the children's room. Miss M. A. Ravenel, president of the Association, and Mrs. Ralph Sargent received the guests. Miss Cora Mil-timore and Miss Mary Crosby poured tea at the attractive lace-covered table which held as a centerpiece a bowl of garden flowers. Assisting in serving were Mrs. H. P. P. Thompson, Mrs. Frank H. Potts and Miss Jessie Potts. Little Miss Lydia Sargent kept the guest book and also presided over the children's silver offering bowl. A profusion of garden flowers was used to decorate the rooms.

Guests found much to admire in the large airy children's room with its freshly painted walls, new shelves and French door opening into the main room of the library. A great many of the interesting books in this room were given by Mrs. Sargent, and the table and chairs were the gift of Mrs. Arthur L. Bliss.

The silver offering amounted to $48.00.

BISHOP TUCKER TO HOLD CHURCH SERVICES SUNDAY

The Rt. Rev. Henry St. George Tucker of New York City, presiding bishop of the Protestant Episcopal church, who is vacationing at Kanega Lake, will conduct the 11 o'clock service at the Church of the Incarnation here Sunday morning, August 14. Bishop Tucker is a Virginian by birth and was a missionary to Japan for a great many years.

MRS. W. L. POOLE PASSES AT HER HOME IN ALABAMA

News of the death of Mrs. W. L. (Nannie) Poole at her home in Birmingham, Ala., on August 12 was received here last week. Mrs. Poole was a sister of the late Rev. W. T. Potts of Highlands and spent many summers here with him and his family.

STUDY COURSE CONDUCTED AT BAPTIST CHURCH

"Living for Jesus" is the subject of the study course being conducted this week at the Baptist church by Mrs. J. G. Benfield for the Junior Young People's Union.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Picklesimer and Mr. and Mrs. Tearley Picklesimer were among those from this section who attended the Macon County Farm Tour last week.

Mrs. A. N. Lewis of Jarratt, Va., is visiting her sisters, Miss Susan Rice and Miss Darthula Rice, and other relatives here for two weeks. Her husband is a former pastor of Highlands Methodist church.

Mrs. Newell Snyder of Cincinnati, Ohio, is here for a visit with her mother and sister, Mrs. J. H. Randall and Mrs. Jack Wilcox, on Billy Cabin Mountain.

Mrs. A. F. Knight of Suitland, Md., arrived Sunday for a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends here and in Franklin. While in Highlands Mrs. Knight is the houseguest of Mrs. Helen Rucker.

Miss Mary Holbrook of Alexandria City, Ala., is the guest of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Cook, at Tricemont Terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Trussell of Athens, Ga., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Murray, who are occupying the Cranston cottage on Satulah Mountain for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Parsley of St. Petersburg, Fla., have leased the Roberts house on Lake Sequoyah for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Edison Picklesimer and small son of Charlotte are visiting Mr. Picklesimer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Picklesimer, in Whiteside Cove, and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Edwards in Highlands. Mr. and Mrs. Picklesimer, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Jones and son Wilson, Dr. and Mrs. Perkins and Dr. and Mrs. Padgett, of Rutherfordton, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwards and their daughter, Miss Estelle Edwards.

Miss Susan Rice returned Sunday from a visit with her brother, Irvan Rice, in Hendersonville who is at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Bennett. Mr. Rice is improving from a several weeks' illness.

Mrs. Kenneth Goode, Jr., of Culver, Ind., is the guest of her father, Colonel Ralph H. Mowbray, at his home on Mirror Lake. Mr. Goode is expected to arrive this weekend for a visit.

Highlands Little Theatre Building Fund Growing

At a recent meeting called by the board of directors of The Highlands Little Theatre for contributors to the building fund a financial statement was given and an outline of plans made, which have been made public, with the result that a building fund campaign is now underway.

Through the trustees of the baseball grounds, the Community Theatre will be able to lease the plot of ground at the northwest corner of the ball park for their prospective building, which will also be a community building available for entertainments of all sorts—lectures, concerts and conventions. The Theatre feels that it has been especially fortunate in having the cooperation of the trustees in securing this delightful site.

To date the Theatre building fund totals slightly over $1,100. Local contractors estimate that the proposed buildings, the plans for which have been donated by Herbert C. Millkey, will cost $3,000, exclusive of interior finishing and equipment. The following is a list of contributors to the existing funds:

Mrs. Clark Howell, Mrs. Lucy Trösdal, Mrs. Arthur Howell, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mizell, Mrs. John May, Mrs. Leila McCall, Mrs. May Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Shepard, Mrs. W. K. Stringer, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. K'ine, Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Gould, Admiral N. A. McCully, Mrs. W. L. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. W. Terhune, Mr. and Mrs. Blanc Monroe, Mrs. Henry Evans, Mrs. Fred Todson, Mr. and Mrs. George Townsend.

Once the Theatre building is established, the Community Theatre will be able to offer at least five productions a season, under the continued direction of Arthur Little.

Dr. Anderson

Scientist, Compiles New Reader

One of the new books in the library here is the Seventh Reader, the gift of the author, Alexander P. Anderson, of Red Wing, Minn., at one time a resident of Highlands. This book is dedicated to the author's wife, "Lydia, My Sweetheart of the Valley", and carries her photograph in color as well as many other full-colored illustrations throughout its 625 pages.

The quiet charm and variety of literary selections in the McGuffey Readers, which ended with the Sixth, have been moulding factors in many American lives, and Dr. Anderson's Seventh Reader will no doubt strike a responsive chord in the hearts of many whose early education was acquired through the McGuffey Readers, and who, like Dr. Anderson, deplored the fact that there was no Seventh. Keenly disappointed in the lack of a Seventh Reader, Dr. Anderson has been able in his late years to realize a lifelong ideal by adding to the series a volume of his own short stories collected over a period of 50 years. In the Seventh Reader will be found the life of early Minnesota in the days the McGuffey Readers were being used in its country schools, and the book is a sort of continuation of these Readers which have been termed by Dr. Anderson a "Primer of Life" series.

Dr. Anderson was born in Red Wing, Minn., in 1862. After graduating from the University of Minnesota with both his Bachelor and Master of Science degrees, he studied in Munich, Germany, and in 1895 received his Doctor's degree. His discovery of the method of exploding starch granules, which led to the commercial products of puffed rice and puffed wheat, often termed the "Eighth Wonder of the World", made Dr. Anderson world famous. He built and for a number of years occupied the home on Fifth street here which is now the summer home of the Sullivan family of Anderson, S. C.

Dr. Anderson's daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Sargent and their two children own a summer home here.

Postmaster Explains Mail Regulations

Postmaster C. C. Potts advises that letters and cards not properly stamped often miss a mail. Postcards going to Canada mailed with a one cent stamp seem to be the chief offenders at this time, since cards mailed by those having no postoffice box have to be held until the party mailing them can be located, or mailed with postage due. However, short paid foreign mail is subject to double postage collected from the addressee. So if a postcard is mailed to Canada with a one cent stamp, there will be four cents collected from the addressee.

Another thing that often holds up mail in the postoffice is the incorrect placing of stamps on letters as well as not using stamps of the correct denomination. For instance; Mr. Potts said air mail stamps and stickers should always be used on air mail letters; special delivery stamps on special delivery letters, and three cent stamps on letters instead of three one cent stamps. If the one cent stamps just must be used, then Postmaster Potts said it would greatly facilitate matters if the stamps are placed side by side the long way of the envelope and not lengthwise across the end of the envelope.

Why not give the overworked postal employees a break by placing stamps of the correct denomination on all of our mail?

Schedule Changes
Mail via Dillard, Ga., is now leaving at 9:20 in the mornings and at 3:15 in the afternoons. Postmaster Potts said all mail for this route must be posted by 9 and 3 o'clock. Mail arrivals from Dillard are 10 a. m. and 4:55 p. m. There is no Sunday mail on this route, and the hours quoted are daylight saving time.

Final Play

To Be Presented Here On August 27th

The Highlands Community Theatre will close this season with a production of "Escape Me Never" on Wednesday, August 27, at a matinee performance only. This play, made famous by Elizabeth Bergner on stage and in the movie, is about a gamine girl and her benefactor who get involved with an English family of the greatest respectability. From a technical standpoint this play will be the most ambitious attempt of the Theatre to date and promises to be a tremendous success.

The cast includes Sir Ivor McClean, Ralph Mowbray; Lady McClean, Virginia Wilcox; Fenella McClean, Tony Altstetter; Cary Sanger, K. Townsend Moore; Butler, Guy Paul, Jr.; Otto Heinrich, James Reese; Semma Jones, Edith Sommer; Sebastian Sanger, Larry Gates; Waiter, George Spelvin, III; Orlo Wilson, Jack Wilcox; Irma Petrova, Beverly FitzPatrick; Anna, Harriet Zahner; Messenger, Fred Allen; Man, Henry Zoellner;

Old Woman, Mary Hodgson; Girl, Kaye Aman.

The Community Theatre thanks the following friends for their help in lending various needed articles for the two preceding plays given this season: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cobb, Miss Marguerite Ravenel, Miss Mary J. Crosby, Mrs. J. E. Root, Mrs. O. E. Young, Miss Rebecca Nall, Mrs. Arthur L. Bliss, Gordon Otto, Winnie Eskridge, Jack Wilcox, Mrs. James L. Logan, Highlands School, Mrs. Lucy Trösdal, Miss Lucy Storm, Mrs. D. B. Elrod, Mrs. W. F. Davis, Frank Potts, and Mrs. John Deadwyler.

Lucy Storm, who succeeded Muriel Brassler in the title role of Candida, when the Community Theatre presented this play in Brevard on August 12, gave an outstanding performance, interpreting the part with insight and sensitivity. The ovation given her at the final curtain was an indication of the appreciation the audience felt. The cast expressed its own appreciation, not only for her polished acting, but for her capable cooperation in stepping into the role at a late date.

This engagement was the farthest from Highlands that the Theatre has filled to date, and it was a source of satisfaction to the group to have enthusiastic encouragement for a return engagement expressed by members of the Lions Club, under whose sponsorship the play was given.
