McPHERSON-CUNNINGHAM WEDDING IN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Miss Bess Cunningham, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Cunningham, became the bride of Eugene Randolph McPherson of Chester, Pa., formerly of Franklin, in a quiet ceremony in the presence of relatives and intimate friends on Wednesday afternoon, August 27, at 5 o'clock, in the Presbyterian church. Mr. McPherson is the son of George McPherson and the late Mrs. Varina Dowdle McPherson.

The Rev. Hubert Wardlaw, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the ring ceremony.

The vows were spoken before an altar of white gladioli and ferns with branched candleabra on each side containing white tapers. Mrs. W. D. Shields and Mrs. J. T. Siler, sister of the bride, lighted the candles prior to the ceremony.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. G. P. Cunningham of Cornelia, Ga., sister-in-law of the bride, vocalist; and Mrs. Otto Summers of Highlands, the former Miss Edwina Dalrymple, of Franklin, pianist.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Cunningham played, and Mrs. Summers sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told." The traditional wedding marches, the Bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" by Wagner, and Mendelssohn's wedding march, were used for the processional and recessional. "To a Wild Rose" by MacDowell played softly during the ceremony.

The couple entered together unattended. The bride wore a simple street ensemble of toast sheer alpaca with brown accessories. Her shoulder corsage was talisman rosebuds and blue delphinium.

The bride graduated from the Franklin high school and received her B. S. degree from Western Carolina Teachers college. She has resigned her position as a member of the faculty of the Asheville city schools.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a trip through the northern states and Canada.

After September 4 they will be at home at 915 West Seventh street, Chester, Pa., where Mr. McPherson is associated with the Worth Steel Corporation.
