UNITED STATES

Funeral services were held in Atlanta Sunday afternoon for Fred M. McGonigal who died in a private sanatorium in that city on Friday, following a brief illness. The beautiful summer home built by Mr. McGonigal at Highlands Country Club a few years ago, and sold this season to Mr. and Mrs. R. H. McCord, former Atlantans, has often been called one of the show places of this section.

FAMILY DINNER AT LYMAN PICKLESIMER'S

Those enjoying a bountiful dinner Sunday, September 28, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Picklesimer were his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Picklesimer, an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Picklesimer, and their son Coolidge. A very nice time was had by all, and Mr. Picklesimer's late garden with its cabbage, beans and turnips, was very much admired.

AUXILIARY PLANS CHURCH INSTITUTE

Acting on the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan's suggestion at the monthly meeting on September 25, the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church voted to have a two-day woman's institute at the church sometime during October for the purpose of acquainting the members more fully with all phases of the work of the church and auxiliary as well as with the history of both.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. W. S. Davis on Thursday afternoon with ten members present. The president, Mrs. E. R. Gilbert presided, and the devotions were led by Mr. Morgan, who also made suggestions for continuing through the winter months the work of the Lord's Acre Plan, adopted by the Auxiliary last Spring.

A new member, Mrs. Irvin S. Gumbell, summer home owner in Whiteside Cove, was welcomed into the auxiliary and spoke briefly of her work in the community Sunday school in Whiteside Cove, and of the splendid cooperation on the part of the parents who attend Sunday school with their children.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Davis after the close of the very interesting meeting.

AMANS OF CUBA PLAN RANCH NEAR HIGHLANDS

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Aman of Havana, Cuba, have purchased 800 acres of the Warren Alexander lands in Whiteside Cove, a part of which lies directly beneath Devil's Courthouse on Whiteside Mountain. This is one of the largest land sales made in this section in point of acreage. The purchase was made for the purpose of a summer home and cattle ranch. Later when Mr. Aman, who is in the sugar machinery business in Havana, retires, he expects to make this his year-round home.

The Amans have one daughter, Miss Katharine Aman of New York City, who spent a part of the summer here with her parents in the Sisson Cottage on Cullasaja Drive. Miss Aman is studying dress designing in New York and was designer of scenery for Highlands Community Theatre this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Aman are staying for the autumn coloring and will be at Hotel Edwards through October. With them will be Mrs. A. H. Hutchinson of Chicago, Ill.

MRS. W. H. COBB CARD CLUB HOSTESS

Mrs. W. H. Cobb entertained the Card club at three tables of bridge last Wednesday afternoon. The house was profusely decorated with fall flowers, two particularly lovely arrangements being a bowl of large frilly petunias, from the garden of Mrs. O. F. Summer, which centered the dining table, and a bowl of gorgeous asters, from the garden of Mrs. Elliot Caziarc, used in the living room.

Mrs. J. A. Hines won high score prize and Mrs. G. W. Marett the traveling prize. Guest players were Mrs. Elsie Tarry of Laurel, Miss., who is visiting her uncle, Henry W. Sloan, and A. B. Perry, brother of the hostess.

Guests coming in for tea following the game were Mrs. O. F. Summer and Mrs. Cobb's aunt, Mrs. E. B. Newsom.

NATIONAL LETTER WRITING WEEK, OCTOBER 5-11

Postmaster C. C. Potts advises that Fourth National Letter Writing Week be observed by all, as a golden opportunity to bring happiness to millions.

BRIDGE PARTY AT "MIRAMICHI"

One of the loveliest events of the past week was the desert-bridge party given by Miss Mary J. Crosby at "Miramichi", her summer home on Fifth street. Arrangements of petunias and chrysanthemums were used to decorate the sunny living room.

Enjoying the two-table game were Mrs. E. R. Gilbert, Mrs. John C. Blanchard, Mrs. J. A. Hines, Miss Sara Gilder, Mrs. W. H. Cobb, Mrs. Elliott Caziarc, Mrs. Jack M. Hall and Mrs. H. G. Story. Two prizes were given at each table. The high score awards went to Miss Gilder and Mrs. Cobb, and low to Mrs. Hines and Mrs. Story.

Assisting Miss Crosby in entertaining was her house-guest, Mrs. J. A. Grill.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Crane and small daughter, Carol, have returned to West Palm Beach, Fla., after a visit here with Mrs. Crane's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Picklesimer. Mr. and Mrs. Picklesimer expect to leave about the middle of October to spend the winter in West Palm Beach with Mr. and Mrs. Crane.

Mr. and Mrs. Tudor N. Hall have announced the birth of a son, John Tucker Hall, on Wednesday, September 24, at Angel hospital in Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rogers and their niece, Miss Florence Waller, attended the Hendersonville Fair last Thursday.

Roy Speed is expected to return home next week from Angel hospital in Franklin where he is convalescing from an operation of September 23.

Col. and Mrs. W. H. Nollman and Miss Catherine Nollman left Saturday to return to Sebring, Fla., after a stay at their summer place, "Springdale" on Chestnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Osmer of Houston, Texas, are occupying Miss Sara Gilder's cottage on Satulah Road for two weeks. This is the Osmer's first fall visit to Highlands. They have spent several summers at Tricemont Terrace.

Mrs. Wade Sutton's friends here were sorry to learn of the death of her father, Harry Yarborough, in West Palm Beach, Fla., last Friday. Mrs. Sutton went home by plane from Atlanta.

An oddity recently displayed in Miss Sara Gilder's store was a

General Metts Urges Reinstatement In Jobs Of Rejected Draftees

Selective Service registrants who are rejected at Army induction centers because they do not meet Army physical standards should be reinstated in their former jobs, General J. Van B. Metts, state director of selective service, declared today, instructing all local boards to utilize every facility at their disposal to aid these men.

Pointing out that the Selective Training and Service Act requires former employers to reinstate men inducted into the Nation's armed forces who satisfactorily complete their military training, Director Metts asserted that employers likewise have a moral obligation "to reinstate former employees who were not actually inducted but who had patriotically answered a call for service. He said:

"A man who responds to the call for military training is fulfilling his obligation to his country. When, for some reason beyond his control, he cannot be inducted into the Nation's armed forces, he must be considered as having discharged his responsibility under the law and should be protected in doing so. Every effort must be made to prevent hardship in such cases."

Director Metts emphasized that the mere fact that a selectee has been rejected by the Army does not mean that he is physically unfit for his civilian occupation. Army standards, he pointed out, are very exacting due to requirements of the training program and the possible hospitalization or pensions for those who break down. For those reasons, he iterated, only a comparatively small percentage of eligibles can qualify for induction.

Bear And Boar Hunt Schedule

Schedule for the nine bear and boar hunts to be held during the month of October on the Santeetlah wildlife management area of the Nantahala National Forest has been released by C. N. Mease, chief refuge supervisor.

For the purpose of the hunts the area will be divided into three units. Unit No. 1 will include the Big Santeetlah drainage area; Unit No. 2 will include the Little Santeetlah and Deep Creek drainage areas; and Unit No. 3 will include the Slick Rock, Bear and Barker's creek drainage areas.

The hunts are scheduled as follows: Hunt No. 1, on unit No. 1, October 27 and 28.
Hunt No. 2 on unit No. 3, October 29 and 30.
Hunt No. 3 on unit No. 2, October 31 and Nov. 1.
Hunt No. 4 on unit No. 1, November 3 and 4.
Hunt No. 5 on unit No. 3, November 5 and 6.
Hunt No. 6 on unit No. 2, November 7 and 8.
Hunt No. 7 on unit No. 1, November 10 and 11.
Hunt No. 8 on unit No. 3, November 12 and 13.
Hunt No. 9 on unit No. 2, November 14 and 15.

It was announced that if the weather prevents the holding of any scheduled hunt an alternate hunt will be added on November 19 and 20.

Each person participating in the hunt may kill one bear and one boar. No other wildlife of any description is to be hunted or molested in any manner. The hunters will be responsible for keeping dogs from running deer.

Additional information may be obtained either from the office of the North Carolina Division of Game and Inland Fisheries, 307 City Hall, Asheville or the Nantahala National Forest Office, Franklin.

THE SPIRIT OF CHINA

One of the evidences of China's unconquerable spirit, according to competent American observers, is the way in which bombed Chungking is re-building. Damaged buildings have been patched up though other thousands have been torn down to make room for new and broader roads and fire lanes. The Y. M. C. A. dormitory, which once accommodated 350 residents, has been repaired and is now ready to reopen. In place of the old auditorium a new one, seating 900, has just been completed and is drawing record crowds to its movie shows and other events. In the meantime a fund of a hundred thousand dollars (China currency) is being raised locally to erect a new branch building in the western district where it is proposed to center most of the Association activities.

twig bearing both apples and blossoms from a tree belonging to Mrs. John Stephen Sewell. It now develops that a June apple tree in the yard of Dr. Jessie Z. Moreland is blooming the second time this year.

Harry Holt, Jr., left Thursday for a visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stribling, in Andrews.

Miss Bernice Durgin's friends are delighted to know that she is recovering nicely from a major operation in the Leominster, Mass., hospital and will soon be able to return to the home of her sister in that city.

Mrs. James H. Harkey returned to Atlanta last Friday to meet Mr. Harkey who has been on a business trip through Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Harkey plan to be at their home here in Lindenwood park again next week to enjoy the autumn coloring.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Edwards, Billy Edwards, Miss Bess Hines and Mrs. G. W. Sheppard visited Miss Virginia Mae Edwards at Brevard College last Sunday.

Mrs. C. C. Potts and her house-guest, Mrs. G. B. Humphreys of Brownsville, Texas, attended a bridge-luncheon at the home of Mrs. H. S. King, in Walhalla, S. C., last Wednesday.

Promotion certificates from the intermediate to the senior union were presented to Florence Waller, Alice Gibson and Louise Wilson last Sunday night by the Baptist Training Union director, Mrs. Paul Walden.

State College Answers Timely Farm Questions

Q. How will farmers know what food increases are needed next year?

A. G. T. Scott, chairman of the State USDA Defense Board with headquarters at State college, says that beginning this week fieldmen and leaders of every branch of the U. S. Department of Agriculture will cooperate in a farm-to-farm drive and talk personally to every farmer about what foods will be needed in 1942, working out a farm plan under which the grower can work to his own advantage next year.

Q. How will the Fall drought affect Winter cover crops?

A. A similar Fall drought hit this state last Fall and farmers who planted Winter cover crops before or during the drought got poor stands and growth of the crops, says E. C. Blair, State college extension agronomist. The Winter cover crops will not suffer greatly this year if rains come in time to permit planting by October 15. It is desirable to plant covers in September when seasons permit, the agronomist says, but October planting will serve only to make the crops later next Spring.

Q. Does it matter when poultry breeding pens are made up?

A. C. F. Parrish, extension poultryman at State college, says chicken breeding pens for next season should be made up now. Pick out hens that have not molted yet, birds that are still laying. The hens that are to be used for breeding either should be separated from the flock now or banded so they can be picked out easily later on. If these "best" hens are bred to pedigreed cockerels, strong, healthy chicks will result.

ARMOUR'S

For season after season, Armour's BIG CROP has paid dividends in the wheat fields of this section. It starts to work quickly, guards against winter killing, promotes root and stalk growth, helps produce more bushels of finer-quality wheat per acre. No wonder so many successful growers around here are "sold" on Armour results. You, too, will find that Armour's can Make Your Work Count for More.
