

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES and COMINGS AND GOINGS

ITEMS FOR THIS COLUMN PHONE 24

MT. ZION CHURCH TO MEET OCT. 31

There will be a business meeting of members of Mount Zion Methodist church Friday night at 7:30 p. m. All members are urged to attend.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service held an all-day observance for the week of prayer on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Carl Slagle.

PAST MATRONS OF EASTERN STAR ENTERTAINED AT DINNER

The Past Matrons of Nesquassa Chapter No. 43, Order of the Eastern Star, was the guests at dinner Monday evening at Kelly's Tea Room, of Mrs. W. H. Sellers, Mrs. W. T. Moore and Miss Lassie Kelly.

During the evening plans were made to have a Past Matrons' Club with a supper meeting once every three months. A contest was held and the prize went to Mrs. R. M. Rimmer.

The following officers were elected to serve for a year: Mrs. W. T. Moore, president; Mrs. W. H. Sellers, vice-president and Miss Lassie Kelly, secretary and treasurer.

The following past matrons were present: Mrs. R. M. Rimmer, Mrs. W. C. Penn, Mrs. H. E. Church, Mrs. Lola Barrington, Mrs. H. W. Cabe, Mrs. T. T. Love, Mrs. W. A. Rogers, Miss Elizabeth Slagle, Mrs. C. G. Moore, Mrs. Frank I. Murray, the present worthy Matron, Mrs. Carl P. Cabe, and the hostesses.

SHOPE-DOWDLE

Miss Madge Shope and Arthur Dowdle were quietly married at Clayton, Ga., Thursday, October 16, by Judge R. C. Ramey.

Mrs. Dowdle was attired in a lovely blue dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of red, white and blue fall flowers.

Mrs. Dowdle is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Shope of Dillard, Ga. Route 1. She has been employed for the past two years at the McClure Roller Mill Lodge.

Mr. Dowdle is the son of Mrs. G. C. Dowdle and the late Mr. Dowdle of Dillard, Ga. Route 1. He is a graduate of the Rabun Gap Nacoochee School. They were accompanied to Clayton by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Myers.

D. W. ALLEN HERE FROM OLYMPIA, WASH.

The Press had a visit from a subscriber from the far west this week, D. W. Allen from Olympia, Wash. His second visit home in 40 years—the last time in 1930. Mr.

Allen found many improvements, commenting especially on the new buildings. He said he could not understand why the bonds for a new court house and jail were defeated. "We have good public buildings in the west", he said. "I always enjoy the Franklin Press, it brings me news of friends and relatives, and when there is not much news, why, I know that everything is all right," he commented.

Mr. Allen will remain for several weeks, visiting his many relatives and friends.

BAPTIST BUSINESS WOMEN TO MEET WITH MRS. HARRIS

The regular monthly meeting of the Business Women's Circle of the Baptist church will be held at the home of Mrs. Amos Harris on Tuesday, November 4, at 7:30 o'clock.

W. M. S. TO MEET THURSDAY, NOV. 6

The W. M. S. will meet at the Baptist church Thursday, November 6 at the regular missionary and business program. Mrs. R. M. Rimmer will have charge of the program.

METHODIST WOMEN TO MEET AT UNION

The Macon county zone meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will be held at the Union church on Wednesday, November 5, beginning at 1:30 a. m., according to an announcement by Mrs. Fred Slagle, zone chairman.

The object of the meeting is to conduct a training or coaching day, and all members as well as officers and chairmen of committees are urged to attend. The session will close at noon with lunch.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY ATTENDS GROUP MEETING

Members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Franklin Presbyterian church attended the group meeting of the western counties at the Haystack Presbyterian church Saturday, October 25. Those attending were Mrs. J. J. Gray, Mrs. J. S. Gray, Mrs. Blanche Bulgin, Mrs. Brabson Bulgin, Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. Pearl Wright, Mrs. Wilson Smart, Rev. and Mrs. Hubert Meadow. The last three mentioned took part on the program.

MISS M'CALL OF HIGHLANDS WEDS LEMMIE HOUSTON

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Alberta McCall and Lemmie Houston was made by Mr. and Mrs. Sam R. McCall last Sunday. The ceremony was solemnized in Clayton, Ga., Sunday afternoon, October 26, 1941 by Judge Ramey.

The bride was attired in a sky blue dress with black accessories. She is a graduate of the Highlands school and has been employed there for the last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston plan to leave for Utah, and will make their future home there. In the meantime they are spending a few days with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Houston at Gneiss. They were accompanied to Georgia by Miss Velma Holland and Euell Owens.

The Franklin members of the Future Farmers of America have had a very successful year with their baby beef calves. Pictured above, with the boys who raised them, are some of the calves exhibited and sold at the recent State fair at Raleigh. Left to right: Max Parrish showed "Raff," fifth place in the heavy weight class. Logan Allen exhibited "Chunky Boy," who won first place in the heavy weight class. He also won first prize for showmanship. Charles Browning sent "Captain" to the fair. The calf won fifth place in the middle weight class. George Moore's calf won seventh place in the light weight class. Bill Gregory exhibited "Will," who won first place in the light weight class and was crowned reserve champion of the Future Farmers of America show. Paul Taylor's calf, "Big Boy," was not present when the picture was taken. His calf won fourth place in middle weight class. The total income from the six calves was $1003.34.

personals

Mrs. George Lohr of Shelby visited Mr. Lohr last weekend.

The Rev. A. Rufus Morgan has returned to his home after spending several days in Angel hospital.

Miss Martha Somerville of Asheville is the guest of Mrs. J. W. C. Johnson this week.

Thomas Scroggs of Charlotte visited his folks here for a few days this week.

Mrs. George Guest is recovering from an operation which she underwent recently at Angel clinic.

Miss Elizabeth Setser has returned from Duke hospital where she went for treatment.

Mrs. Charles Melicher and young son have returned home from Biltmore hospital, Asheville.

Miss Lassie Kelly has been attending the Bar Association meeting in Raleigh this week.

Miss Edith Stiles of Prentiss visited her sister, Mrs. Jerald King and Mr. King at Clayton, Ga., last weekend.

Mrs. Napoleon J. Henry, of East Franklin, is seriously ill at Angel clinic where she underwent an operation recently.

Miss Christine Dills of Gneiss, underwent an operation at Angel clinic Saturday. Her condition is satisfactory.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Turner were called to Atlanta last week on account of the death of Mr. Turner's sister, Mrs. J. C. Bowden.

Mrs. Lonie J. Goss and small daughter, Linda, left Sunday for their home in Roanoke, Va., after spending the summer here.

Mrs. Ruby Tessier has returned from a trip through the West where she visited her children in Idaho, Washington and Louisiana.

Joe Palmer has been confined at his home with sickness for the past two weeks. He is reported much improved.

Mrs. Clarence Goss and Miss Dorothy Wheeler of Roanoke, Va., spent the weekend here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Rochester.

Mr. Jim Young who is working in Charlotte, visited Mrs. Young at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Blaine, over the weekend.

Mrs. Jess Sanders went to Sumter, S. C., last weekend to visit Mr. Sanders, who is employed there, also her daughter, Mrs. Edwin Stiles.

First Lieut. Richard K. Irvin of Fort Knox, Ky., was the weekend guest of Mrs. Hylda Sheperd and Mrs. J. B. Stalcup at their home on 40th street.

Mrs. B. W. Justice and W. J. Morgan of Brevard who have been visiting their aunt, Mrs. Hazeltine Duvall in Acworth, Ga., stopped in town last Saturday. They had not seen their aunt for 25 years.

Miss Audrey Conley left Friday for a ten days' stay and to attend the wedding of Miss Helen Albritton in Orlando, Fla., on November 2. Miss Conley is now employed at Western Union in Asheville.

E. G. Andrew Jones, Jr., who is stationed at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla., has passed the requirements for Squadron 2, and will be graduated in ten weeks in the Naval Air Corps branch of the service.

Miss Amanda Slagle and Mesdames Emory Hunnicut, Carl Slagle and R. S. Jones were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Neville Sloan in Atlanta, to attend the concert at the City Auditorium by the famous Russian musician, Rachmaninoff.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Young and daughter, Catherine, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harley G. Gray and Miss Nooma Gray, of Clear Lake, Wash., who have been visiting relatives in Macon county spent last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Jolley in Johnson City, Tenn. Mrs. Jolley is their daughter.

Otto

By MISS HAZEL BRADLEY

HALLOWE'EN CARNIVAL AT OTTO SCHOOL

A Halloween Carnival is being staged at the Otto School at 7:30 Friday, October 31. Carrying out the spirit of Halloween there will be cake walks, a box supper, games and pranks and fortune telling for entertainment. There will be cold drinks, cakes, candy and boxes for sale.

PTA SPONSORS MOTION PICTURES AT OTTO SCHOOL

The University of North Carolina is sponsoring through the Guidance Clinic of Western Carolina Teachers college motion pictures at the Otto school. On alternating Mondays beginning an educational picture will be shown for the children of school age at 7:30 in an entertainment picture, and the educational feature will be presented for the public.

This is a step in progressive education sponsored by the Otto P. T. A. which meets the second Thursday in each month.

Mrs. John W. Cunningham of Franklin Route 3 visited her son, Grady Cunningham and Mrs. Cunningham last weekend.

Miss Kate Moffitt returned Sunday to Western Carolina Teachers' college after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moffitt.

Members of the Asbury and Mulberry churches pounded Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Swaim on Saturday night, October 25 to show their appreciation of his return to this circuit for the coming year.

VISITORS WELCOME

Radio Sales and Service
Singer Sewing Center
Franks Radio, Elec. Co.

Allow us to fit you correctly in a new smart novelty dress shoe. . . . Walk in stylish comfort for less—Save wisely at POLLYS.

Ladies' Full Fashion
Silk Hose
47c per pair

POLLYS
"Sells for Less"

HARD WORK

It is Hard Work to Get Everything You Need for WINTER WEAR

But We Have Your WINTER NEEDS

JACKETS—leather, woolen, and plaids in all sizes.

OVERALLS, lined jumpers, work and dress pants and winter underwear. Don't forget Big Bed Blankets.

EACH member of your family, large or small, can be fitted in our store at a reasonable price.

ALL sizes and styles of boots and shoes for every man and boy in your family with each sale — A PERFECT FIT.

SLIPS and gowns for the lady of the house.

HOSE for the "Miss" in high school.

EVER wearing genuine Duxbak pants and coats. The best you can get to keep you dry.

A LARGE stock of work gloves and socks to keep the breadwinner's feet and hands warm.

RUBBER boots and shoes, largest stock we ever had. Bought last February, which means a big saving for you.

SO come and be convinced that we are your friend.

Joe Ashear's

"We Clothe the Family"
FRANKLIN, N. C.

Special Group Of Dresses ON SALE

Some of these dresses are reduced to half-price.
DON'T MISS THESE VALUES

E. K. Cunningham & Co.

"The Shop of Quality"