

Mrs. Napoleon J. Henry Passes After Illness

Mrs. Carrie Stewman Henry, 43, wife of Napoleon J. Henry, died at her home near Franklin Sunday morning, November 23, after an illness of several months. She had lived in Macon county most of her life.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of Monday, at the Sugarfork Baptist church of which Mrs. Henry was a member. The Rev. Frank Reid officiated. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Surviving are the widower; a daughter, Mrs. Hazel Schoolie of New London, Conn.; two sons, Harold Henry of Ohio and Donald Henry of Franklin; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Stewman; three brothers, Felix Stewman of Phoenix, Ariz., and Furman and Lemuel Stewman of Cullasaja; and five sisters, Mrs. Belen Holland, Mrs. Andrew Gregory, Mrs. Fred Early and Mrs. Agnes Mashburn, all of Cullasaja, and Mrs. Roy Wykle of Sylva.

DEFENSE BOND Quiz

Q. What simple and satisfactory way is provided for all of us to express our gratitude for being Americans?

A. The means is the purchase of Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps—available to almost every man, woman, and child. Ownership of even a 10-cent Stamp carries the satisfaction of knowing you have helped the Nation to arm.

O. What denominations of Defense Savings Stamps are on sale at retail stores?

A. Stores are concentrating on selling 10-cent and 25-cent Stamps, in order to get a maximum number of customers to participate in the Defense Savings Program. Many stores also carry 50-cent, $1, and $5 Stamps. Stamps of all denominations may be purchased at post offices.

'Makeshifters'-High Game Canceled Due To Injuries

The long awaited football classic between the Macon Makeshifters and the Franklin high school has been canceled. W. C. Newton, coach of the local high school eleven, stated that his squad was not in shape to play due to injuries received by several of his players in the past few games.

The "Makeshifters" expressed themselves as being sorry to lose this opportunity, but they were glad to be able to maintain their record uncontested.

W.N.C. Young Democrats Will Hold Fall Rally

Plans are under way for the largest Young Democratic Rally in the history of Western North Carolina. The Annual Fall Rally will be held Saturday night, December 6, at the Langren Hotel in Asheville, according to Miss Henrietta Price, vice-president of the Young Democratic Clubs of North Carolina.

Many state officials and other prominent persons throughout the state are expected to attend. The rally will begin with a meeting of the state Young Democrats executive committee in the afternoon, and the highlight of the rally will be the banquet and dance held in the roof ballroom of the Langren.

Gregg Cherry To Speak R. Gregg Cherry, Democratic leader of North Carolina, will be the principal speaker. Also, scheduled for short speeches are Solicitor C. O. Ridings of Forest City, Solicitor Thomas Johnson, of Asheville, and Solicitor John Queen, of Waynesville.

Following the banquet will be a dance and a colorful floor show. Tickets for the rally may be purchased from the Macon county local chairman, Jimmy Hauser. A group from Franklin expects to attend.

Dealers To Offer Seed For 'Food For Freedom Gardens'

Collections of seed for "Food" or Freedom Gardens in 1942 Gardens will be offered by seed dealers throughout the State, according to extension horticulturists of N. C. State college.

Every North Carolina farm family has been requested to grow a home garden as a part of their contribution to the Nation-wide "Food for Freedom" campaign. To make it easier for rural people to achieve this patriotic goal, the two Extension horticulturists have compiled a list of vegetable seed, together with varieties and quantities of each, necessary to feed a family of five.

The dealers have been asked to wrap the seed in labeled packages and deliver all the seed at the same time. The collection includes approximately 26 pounds of seed, and is a sufficient quantity to furnish both fresh vegetables and a supply of canning.

The seed, and the amount needed for a garden to feed a family of five, are of the following vegetables: Bush Lima beans, 2 1/2 pounds; pole Lima beans, 2 1/2 pounds; bush snap beans, 5 pounds; pole snap beans, 2 1/2 pounds; beets, 2 1/2 ounces; cabbage, 1 ounce; carrots, 2 1/2 ounces; collards, 1 ounce. Cucumbers (slicing), 2 1/2 ounces; lettuce, 1 ounce; okra, 2 1/2 ounces; field peas, 1 1/2 pounds; garden peas, 2 1/2 pounds; peppers, 1/2 ounce; onions (sets), 5 pints; kale 2 1/2 ounces; spinach, 2 1/2 ounces; squash, 2 1/2 ounces; sweet corn, 1 1/2 pounds; mustard, 5 ounces; tomatoes, 1/2 ounce; and turnips, 5 ounces.

Methodists To Hold Zone Missionary Institute

The Methodists of Macon county will meet at Franklin Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock in two missionary rallies. There will be a meeting for adults at the Methodist church with Rev. J. S. Higgins of Highlands speaking. After the address stereopticon slides depicting missionary work will be shown.

At the same hour, a mass meeting will be held for young people at the Presbyterian church with Rev. W. G. Henry, Jr., of Clayton, Ga., delivering the address.

Every Methodist church in Macon county is expected to be represented at both rallies.

District Missionary Institute At Sylva Sunday

At 2:30 p. m. Sunday, Methodists of the Waynesville District will go to the Sylva Methodist church for the annual district missionary institute.

The churches of Macon county are expected to send large representations.

Macon's Fatalities

In Traffic Accidents Show Increase With State

RALEIGH, Nov. 26.—With North Carolina counties reporting for October the greatest number of motor vehicle traffic fatalities ever recorded in a single month, 141, the year's total deaths skyrocketed to 1,001 for the period from January through October 1941, according to figures released today by the Highway Safety Division.

During the ten month period Macon county reported seven fatalities as compared to three during the same period of 1940.

The three types of accidents in which the greatest number of persons have been killed this year are pedestrian with 288 dead, collision of two motor vehicles with 251 dead and ran off roadway with 244 deaths.

Bicycle deaths for the ten months totaled 39 against 14 for the same period last year, an increase of 25 fatalities for a percentage increase of 178. Collision deaths in right of way disputes between automobiles and railroad trains have reached 39 for this year for an increase of 38.4 per cent over the same period of last year.

North Carolina's 1001 deaths this year compare with 138 for 1941, an increase of 263 dead for a percentage increase of 35.6 compared with a national increase in deaths of approximately 18 per cent.

The ten leading counties with the number of fatalities in each county follow: Mecklenburg, 44; Cumberland, 41; Wake, 41; Guilford, 37; Roberson, 32; Buncombe, 27; Columbus, 25; Gaston, 25; Harnette, 24; and Davidson, 23.

Sixty-six of the State's counties or 66 per cent have reported an increase in the number of deaths over a like period of 1941.
