MISS LEMON BECOMES BRIDE OF LEO H. MANLEY

The following announcement appearing in the Asheville Citizen-Times of the wedding of Miss Emma Leemon to Leo Henry Manley, formerly of Franklin, will be of interest to his many friends here. Miss Mary Emma Leemon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Kendall Leemon of 17 Howland road, became the bride of Leo Henry Manley, son of John H. Manley of 41 Chestnut street, in a ceremony yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at St. Lawrence church.

The Rev. John Manley of St. Joan of Arc, brother of the bridegroom, officiated.

Banked arrangements of palms and ferns interspersed with white chrysanthemums and snapdragons were used in decorating the church.

Musical Program
A program of nuptial music was presented by Miss May Jo DeNardo, organist. Prior to the ceremony Miss DeNardo played "Evening Star," from "Tannhauser," "O Promise Me" and "Ave Maria." The bridal chorus from Wagner's "Lohengrin" was used as the processional, and Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as the recessional. "Liebestraum" was played during the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an aerial blue costume suit with finger-tip coat trimmed with a natural blue fox collar. Her accessories were in harvest wine with a Vogue hat of matching Hackle feathers. A single strand of pearls was her only ornament. The bride's corsage was of orchids.

Miss Mildred Cawood of Asheville was maid of honor. She wore a two-piece velveteen model of harvest wine with blue jewelled buttons and matching hat. Her corsage was of roses and bouvardia.

Mrs. Leemon, mother of the bride, wore a black velvet afternoon dress with black matching hat trimmed with gardenias and draped veiling. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Leo Cantwell of Lake Placid, N. Y., former athletic coach of the bridegroom at Belmont Abbey, was best man. Ushers were Kendall

Leemon, Jr., of Asheville, brother of the bride, Francis Manley of Asheville, cousin of the bridegroom, Foster Goodrich of Fayetteville and Bernard Davis of Augusta, Ga.

Take Wedding Trip
Following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip through the South. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Manley will reside in the Lamar apartments, 62 Manley avenue.

Mrs. Manley was graduated from Conserve college in 1935. Mr. Manley attended Belmont Abbey and was graduated in 1935 from the University of North Carolina, where he was a member of the Chi Psi fraternity and of the Order of the Grail, honorary society. He is a member of the Asheville Lion's club and is area director of the National Youth administration.

Out-of-town guests present for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Hoffman of Beaufort, S. C., brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Rhoades of Greenville, Jack Hackett of Raleigh, Lawrence Manley of Durham, Miss Esther Hollowell of Guilford College and Miss Emilie Blackburn of Charlotte.

MR. AND MRS. PARRISH CELEBRATE THANKSGIVING

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Parrish of West's Mill, celebrated with a good, old fashioned turkey dinner on Thanksgiving Day in honor of their son, Titus H. Parrish, of Detroit, Mich., who visited his parents last week. He came in his car, making the trip in a day. Their daughter, Miss Bonnie Parrish, of Bryson City, also spent the holiday at home.

The military service of another son, William D. Parrish, was reported in the Press a few weeks ago. He has seen 20 years of service in the U. S. Army, seven years having been spent in the foreign service. His parents expect him home on leave at an early date.
