MISS SONDHEIMER WEDS MARION BRYSON

The Bryson home was the scene of a lovely wedding Saturday afternoon, December 6, at 2:30 o'clock, when Miss Evelyn Sondheimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sondheimer, became the bride of Marion Bryson.

Only a few friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. C. W. Madder. The ceremony was performed in the livingroom following a dinner which celebrated the birthday of Mr. Will Bryson, groom's father, and fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Brisco Dills, Mr. Bryson's sister and brother-in-law.

The bride wore a grey dress with nail head trimming, and her accessories were navy blue.

Mr. Bryson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Bryson of Cullasaja. Both he and Mrs. Bryson are graduates of Franklin high school.

Immediately following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Bryson left by motor for a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in Cullasaja.

Attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Brisco Dills, Mr. and Mrs. Will Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sondheimer, Misses Jean and Anne Bryson, Betty and Louise Solland, Elsie Sondheimer, John, Joe Bryson, Bill, Claude, Roy, Virgil, Alfred, and Wiley Holland, and Phillip Madder, Mrs.

Alfred Holland, Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. Madder.

SHOWER FOR MR. AND MRS. MARION BRYSON

Mrs. Brisco Dills and Mrs. Alfred Holland were joint hosts of a shower given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Bryson on Cullasaja, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Bryson.

During the evening many people called and presented the bride and groom with lovely and useful gifts.

Many lovely presents were received from Mr. and Mrs. Will Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. Brisco Dills, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sondheimer, Miss Anne Bryson, Mr. John Bryson, Mr. Kenneth Dills, Mr. Joe Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Holland, Mr. Roy Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tilson, Miss Betty Sue Tilson, Mr. Bill Holland, Mrs. Hallie Stiles and Freda, Mr. Claude Holland, Mr. Grady Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Pritchard Russel and Charles, Miss Betty and Louise Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Clark, Mr. Furman Holland, Mr. and Mrs. William Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Eb Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Holland, Barbara Sue and Mack, Mr. and Mrs. Sline Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Conley, Mrs. W. W. Immediately following the opening of the presents of these friends refreshments were served.

The following young people took part: Doris Dalrymple, Joan Hopkins, Connaere Nolen, Tava McCoy, Ann Wright, Edith Plemmons, Percy Wright, Helen Gibson, Gladys Stiles, Agnes Stiles, Lena Pearl Rickman and Paul Zee Plemmons.

METHODIST PRIMARY CLASSES ENJOY CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Primary children of the Franklin Methodist church enjoyed a Christmas party Monday afternoon given by the teacher of that department, with 35 young folk attending. They were greeted by a lovely tree lighted with colored lights. Many gifts and other favors were exchanged.

Mrs. Dick Jones delighted the group by her readings of "The Night Before Christmas," "The singing of 'Silent Night' and 'Away in a Manger' added much to the Christmas spirit.

The teachers who were hostesses at the party were: Mrs. Harry Thomas, Miss Mildred Roper, Mrs. Zeb Conley, Mrs. James Ballard, Mrs. Carl Cabe and Mrs. Dick Jones.

P. T. A. HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

On Monday night the P. T. A. met at 7:30 in the school auditorium and many of the parents and teachers of the pupils were present. The fathers were in the ascendency for the first time, due to the meeting being held at night.

Mr. Philip Green led the devotional. The Franklin Choral Society rendered two numbers, "Beautiful Savior," and "Away in a Manger." Those in the audience joined in singing "Silent Night".

Sol Sanders gave a comprehensive survey of world events. Using a globe, he pointed out important points related to present-day happenings, giving reasons as to their relative importance in the war and its probable outcome.

An interesting talk was given by Dr. J. L. Stokes on growth and development to the "Needs of our Children"—the theme of the year. He also led a discussion.

The hospitality committee served delightful refreshments during the social hour.

MISS FRANCES HARPER BRIDE OF LT. WM. SLOAN

(From Fayetteville Observer)
Post chapel, Fort Bragg, was the scene of a lovely wedding last evening when Miss Frances-Jane Harper became the bride of Lieut. William Neville Sloan, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Sloan of Atlanta, Ga.

The Episcopal chaplain, Rev. W. B. Sharpe, performed the ceremony. Prior to the ceremony, the chapel organist, Sgt. William Turton, presented a program of nuptial music. The bridal chorus from Lohengrin was used for the processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March for the recessional.

The bride, lovely in her wedding dress of ivory satin, was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was fashioned with tight fitted bodice with sweetheart neckline trimmed with old lace. The bouffant skirt featured a full length train. She carried a bouquet of white orchids.

Miss Blanche Page, daughter of Lt.-Col. and Mrs. D. J. Page, of Fort Bragg, was maid of honor. She was attired in yellow faille fashioned on princess lines.

The dainty little flower girl, Caroline Edmonson, daughter of Maj. and Mrs. E. B. Edmonson, was attired in yellow made on lines similar to that of the maid of honor. She carried a basket of rose petals which were scattered in the path of the bride.

Miss Phyllis McIlhenny, daughter of Lt.-Col. and Mrs. J. L. McIlhenny, Miss Mary Frances Hutchinson, daughter of Lt.-Col. and Mrs. A. G. Hutchinson, both of Fort Bragg, Miss Mary Payne Claxton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. P. P. Claxton of Clarksville, Tenn., Miss Mason Avert, daughter of Maj. and Mrs. Hugh Avert of Greenville, S. C., bridesmaids, wore yellow bouffant dresses and carried arm bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Robert Sloan of Franklin, and the following groomsmen: Capt. Alvin Robbins, Capt. Milton Wallace, Lt. John A. Ford, Lt. Elmer Aronquist, Lt. Wilson Freeman, Lt. Jack Krow, Lt. Tom Hill and Lt. Harry Myers, all of Fort Bragg.

Mrs. Harper, mother of the bride, wore a dress of powder blue jersey trimmed with rhinestones and a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Sloan, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in black taffeta with corsage of yellow golden charm roses.

The bride, who came to Fort Bragg with her parents a year ago last September from Cincinnati, attended Ward Belmont, Nashville, Tenn., and was graduated from the University of Georgia, where she was a member of Chi Omega sorority. The bridegroom is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, and is now stationed at Fort Bragg.

Immediately following the wedding, Col. and Mrs. Harper entertained with a reception at the Officers club for the bridal couple and members of the wedding party.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilmer A. Jones, Sam Alexander of Scott, Ark., arrived Sunday night to spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Gus Leach and Mrs. Alexander and Sam, Jr., who have been spending some time with her parents, will return with him after Christmas.

Miss Mary Elmore who teaches at Woodleaf high school, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Elmore of West's Mill. As Junior Roll Call chairman Miss Elmore reports that Rowan county has enrolled 8,500 school children.

William Elmore, principal of Cherry Grove school, with Mrs.

Elmore and son, are visiting his parents.

Albert Ramsey, Jr., had his appendix removed at the Angel hospital last week.

Mrs. Lee Leach, Mrs. Helen Macon and son, Nat, of Chapel Hill are home for the holidays.

Mrs. Francis B. Johnson, of San Diego, Calif., arrived Monday afternoon for a brief visit to Mr. Johnson's mother, Mrs. Cantey Johnson. She was accompanied by her brother, Nick Zeigler, of Florence, S. C., and Clarke Vernon of Pasadena, Calif.

Mrs. Leslie Young of Franklin is a patient at Angel hospital.
