Daughter's Tribute To Mrs. Sarah Holland On Her 82nd Birthday

Mrs. Sarah Ann Crawford Holland recently celebrated her 82nd birthday at her home on Cullasaja. The gift of long life has been hers, and her gift, through the years has been in the quality of the life lived that has blessed her family and neighbors.

"Aunt Sarah", as she is lovingly called, was born near the site of Western Carolina Teachers College, her parents being Samuel T. and Martha Crawford. Her husband was Anthony Montgomery Holland of this county, who died in 1929. There are eight living children—four boys and four girls—living in various states. She has 49 grandchildren and 30 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. I. Truman Peek of Wilmington, one of Mrs. Holland's daughters, in a letter to the editor, has paid the following tribute to her mother.

If I could write a biography of her life of good works, it would indeed take a book. Her consistent Christian life has been lived by faith and works. She is possessed with an abundance of true wisdom; "pure, peaceable, gentle, easy to be entreated" full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, without hypocrisy. . . . She teaches us by her life that there must not be envy and bitterness, strife and deception as out of harmony with Jesus Christ.

Her secret of escape from drudgery is in the eternal society, as a result she is never lonely when alone. Her friends are part of her life. She lives in a little white house with red shutters by the side of the road and is "a friend to man." In traveling the highway young men have stopped for free lodging. . . . never does she let anyone go away hungry.

She is a friend of the children. Her cupboard is always open to them and in her little tin trunk she finds a stick of peppermint candy which is a tradition of good grandmothers.

Success is written across the space of years—the kind begotten of love and deed; she has given full measure. . . . No night was too dark for her to arise and help the sick, walking sometimes for miles, carrying a lantern to light her path. . . .

Hidden away is her diary, written at intervals for the last fifty-odd years to be opened by her children when she is gone. It will not record the bad things in life, for to her the good things hide the bad, till she remembers them no more.
