MR. BRIDGMAN TO ACCEPT CALL

The Rev. H. T. Bridgman was unanimously called to the pastorate of the Highlands Presbyterian church for a term of twelve months at a congregational meeting last Sunday morning. Mr. Bridgman's acceptance is subject to the approval of the Foreign Mission Board. He has served this church as supply minister since September of last year.

The last of Mr. Bridgman's series of sermons on "Missions" will be given on Sunday morning. The subject will be "The How of Foreign Missions," and will be illustrated with many of his and Mrs. Bridgman's experiences during their 20 years of missionary work in China. Mr. Bridgman extends a cordial invitation to all to attend this service, and especially to members of the Methodist and Episcopal congregations where there are no Sunday morning services.

HIGHLANDS GIRLS LOSE TO GLENVILLE

In the girls' basketball game between Highlands High and Glenville High, played here last Friday afternoon, the Highlands girls lost to Glenville in a score of nine to ten. Miss Sarah Thompson is coach for the Highlands high school girls' team and a game is planned this week at Glenville.

LIBRARY OPEN FOR CHILDREN THURSDAYS

Miss Gertrude Harbison, librarian, held a special opening of the Hudson Library on Tuesday for Highlands school children, for the purpose of acquainting them with the books in the new young people's room. The fourth and fifth grades with their teachers, Miss Sarah Thompson and Miss Ethel Calloway, took advantage of this opening and inspected the new books. Each child was shown where to find the books of greatest interest to himself and also permitted to take out a book. There will doubtless be successive visits by these two grades, as well as by other grades in the school, since Miss Harbison has gladly consented to open the library on special days for the children of the school.

MARY SUMMER HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

Little Miss Mary Summer, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. O. F. Summer, celebrated her fifth birthday anniversary on January 15th with a spend-the-day party, inviting as her guests for the occasion Jane Anderson, Mary Lou McCarty, Martha Reese and Becky Johnson. A birthday cake with five candles was a part of the table decorations.

MISS GILDER ENTERTAINS WEDNESDAY CARD CLUB

Miss Sara Gilder entertained the Wednesday Card Club with a bridge-luncheon on Wednesday. Following the luncheon which was served at the card tables, the three tables of players enjoyed a very delightful game. High score prize was won by Mrs. H. G. Story, and the defense stamps, given as a traveling prize, were won by Mrs. Frank B. Cook. Mrs. E. E. Newsom, who is spending the winter here with Mayor and Mrs. W. H. Cobb, was a luncheon guest.

Holly and other evergreens were used as decorations. The red and white monogrammed score pads and tally cards were a novel feature of the game.

SHOWER FOR MRS. CLEAVELAND

Mrs. Maurice Cleaveland, a recent bride, was honored with a miscellaneous shower Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. A. Cleaveland. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. C. H. Zoellner and Mrs. S. E. Potts.

The bride was lovely in a dress of navy blue chiffon over red taffeta. She is the former Miss Bethel Crisp, and her marriage was an event of late December. Miss Doris Potts assisted the honoree in opening her many attractive gifts.

After the refreshments, which consisted of a salad and a sweet course, Mrs. A. C. Holt and Mrs. O. F. Summer gave several piano selections. Mrs. Summer sang "I Love You Truly" and other numbers. The entire party joined in singing "The Star Spangled Banner."

About twenty-five guests called during the afternoon.

Personal Mention

Mrs. Frank H. Potts is still working for the Red Cross War Relief fund and reports two additional contributions: School Children $2.04; Anonymous, $10.00.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Holt, who have recently returned from a Florida wedding trip, are making their home for the present with Mr. Holt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Holt, and expect to be at the farm until Mr. A. C. Holt returns from St. Petersburg, Fla., where he is spending his annual winter vacation.

Mrs. Annie Westbrook will return this week-end from a ten days' visit in Washington, D. C., with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Francis L. Westbrook and another son, Gibbon Westbrook. Francis L. Westbrook has been promoted to Warrant Officer in the U. S. Navy.

Miss Fannie George Lucas left Friday for an extended visit in Jacksonville, Fla., with her sister, Mrs. Hubert Marshall and Mr. Marshall.

Rev. J. S. Higgins is attending a meeting of the Southern Methodist churches in Nashville, Tenn., this week. Attending the meeting with Mr. Higgins are Rev. W. L. Hutchins, superintendent of the Waynesville District and the Rev. J. C. Madison, pastor of the First Methodist church in Waynesville. During Mr. Higgins' absence, Mrs. Higgins and their young son will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis.

Miss Leona Norton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Norton, is reported to be making a splendid recovery from an operation for a ruptured appendix at Angel's hospital on January twentieth. She is a tenth grade student at Highlands high school.

Mrs. Lyman Picklesimer, who has been a patient in Angel's hospital for several days, is reported to be very much improved.

Miss Margery Waller has succeeded Miss Ella Moore as assistant in the telephone office here. Miss Moore has a position in Harry's Cafe.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Cook have as their guest this week Mr. F. L. Wideman of Palm Beach, Fla., and Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Wideman is here in the interest of work he is having done on his property on the Dillard Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Newman Ormond of Murphy were week-end guests of the latter's mother and sister, Mrs. J. A. Hines and Miss Bess Hines. Miss Bess Hines returned to Murphy with them for a month's visit.

Mr. L. D. Rouse of Montgomery, Ala., spent a few days here last week at the Potts House. Mr. Rouse's handsome new summer home on the Dillard Road near ruptured appendix at Angel's hospital. The Country Club has just been completed. W. H. Cobb was the contractor in charge of the building.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Knight of Arlington, Va., have returned to Highlands for a visit. Mr. Knight for a week and Mrs. Knight for two weeks.

Mr. J. W. Reese, Sr., who is foreman on a construction job in Wilmington, is spending a few days at his home here.

Mrs. Jack H. Wilcox and her mother, Mrs. H. D. Randall, returned to Billy Cabin Farm Tuesday, after a week-end visit in Atlanta.

Otter Creek Athletic News

The Otter Creek boys continue in the winning column save another defeat with Cullowhee, 14-15.

On January 3, the local boys defeated the Robbinsville boys in a game 8-11.

The outstanding game of the season was played here Wednesday, against the well-coached Cherokee Indians. The Indians were winning until the third quarter, when the local boys, "Big Bertha" Wilson and Newell Owenby along with the splendid guarding of the rest of the team, won a 26-22 score. This is the second game lost by the Indians, the first being with Asheville. The "B" team won a score over the little Cherokees 26-15.

The P. T. A. is sponsoring a Boy Scout Club for the Otter
