tend a War Traffic School beginning Monday and lasting throughout the week. It is expected that the conference will be one of the quarterly meetings of police officials to discuss problems of sabotage, espionage, alien enemies, and other matters affecting the ever important internal security of the United States. This conference is one of a type which is being held throughout the country under the F. B. I. Mobilization Plan for Police.

Sessions of the Asheville school will be held in the roof garden of the Langren hotel. Officers completing the course will receive diplomas issued by John Edgar Hoover, director of the F. B. I.

Girl Scouts Begin Spring Work

The Girl Scouts met Thursday, March 12, at the scout house. Refreshments were served outside before the meeting began. The meeting was called to order by the newly elected patrol leader, Elizabeth Wasilik. The laws and motto were reviewed and the 4th law was emphasized: "Be a Friend to all and a Sister to Every Other Girl Scout." As we all know, March 12 is the Girl Scout's birthday and this year is the 30th anniversary of girl scouting. Mrs. Thompson talked to us on national defense and Juliette Lowe (founder of the Girl Scouts). She brought us a birthday cake which we all enjoyed.

Money was collected for the Juliette Lowe Fund. Tin cans and other similar articles will be gathered for national defense. Plans were made for a short bicycle trip, Friday, March 27. It was decided to take a picnic lunch along. A refreshment committee was appointed and is as follows: Lillian Jones, Carolyn Long, and Carolyn Leach. The meeting closed with the "Girl Scout Goodnight Song". Merrily Brooks, Scribe.

Another Reminder About Your Suit of Clothes
Just received a small price advance, and I am told that another advance may be a little later.
BUT THE PRICE IS NOT ALL
I have a letter, just came; said—"On all wool suits, send us your requirements for confirmation, as our present stock is limited. Things are changing from day to day, which is beyond our control." Aside from that, the pants will be narrow at the bottom, which you no have been hearing about. We have a sample to show you, which is called a new style.
It's like the old woman said about the cow eating the grind-stone, "I told you so".
Our stock now on hand is the quality and style you want, so BUY NOW—for two good reasons:
Prices are right and quality that you want.
