MISS ANITA LOUISE MCCLURE BRIDE OF ROBT. P. WALKER

Friends will be interested in the following announcement appearing in The Courier Times, Sedro-Woolley, Wash.:

The Chapel of the St. Paul's Episcopal church in Seattle was the scene of a quiet wedding February 27 when Miss Anita McClure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee H. McClure of Bremerton, became the bride of Robert P. Walker, son of Grover P. Walker of Bayview, Wash.

The Rev. Walter G. Horn read the impressive rites before a group of relatives and close friends at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride chose a dress of heavenly blue with corsage of white orchids and stiefnoeis. Miss Ruth La Fontaine, the bride's only attendant, wore a suit with corsage of Gardenias and Tailsman rosebuds. Harry Atlas acted as best man for the groom. Ushers were Lee Walker and Lee McClure, Jr., brother of the bride. The bride's mother wore a dress of Navy blue with matching accessories and a corsage of gardenias and rosebuds.

Following the ceremony a lovely wedding dinner was served in the Marine dining room of the Hotel Corrento to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Lee H. McClure, Grover Walker, Miss Ruth La Fontaine, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Atlas, Lee McClure of Sedro-Woolley, Miss Shirley Anne Lindbloom of Big Lake, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Walker, Lee Walker, Mrs. Mattie Champenois, Mrs. Florence Dodds, Mrs. Lelia Jorgenson, Mrs. Marion Bulgarelli, Miss Phyllis Schlotman, Miss Vivian Peterson, Mrs. Lillian La Fontaine and Clarence Polson.

The bride cut the wedding cake, which was beautifully decorated with a miniature bride and groom and wedding bells.

Miss McClure is formerly from Franklin, N. C., where she was graduated with the class of 1938, and now is employed in Seattle.

Mr. Walker was graduated from the Burlington high school and is now enlisted with the Army Air Corps.

The wedding was to have been in May but the date was set ahead because of war plans.

For traveling the bride wore an emerald green dressmaker suit, a tan topcoat with brown accessories. After a short trip down the coast, Mr. and Mrs. Walker will reside at the Paramount Arms Apartment, in Seattle.
