Navy School at G.E.

Just one evidence of the cooperation between the armed services and our vast industrial army—a school for submarine electricians conducted at one General Electric factory.

1. Electricity is vital to the running of every submarine. It does an amazing variety of important jobs, from turning the propeller to cooking the coffee.

2. For that reason, there must be well-trained electricians on every underwater craft. At this school, Navy electricians attend classes taught by G-E engineers.

3. and go out into the shops where they watch workmen construct the same kind of electric equipment that will some day be put in their charge.

4. This is but one proof of thorough training which Navy gives its men, so that vital equipment of war will be ready for action.

General Electric believes that its first duty as a good citizen is to be a good soldier.
