MRS. FRANK E. JENNINGS PASSES AT HOSPITAL

Mrs. Frank E. Jennings of Jacksonville, Fla., and Highlands died in Angel's hospital in Franklin Saturday, June 13th, following a long illness. She had been in Highlands only a few weeks when she became acutely ill and was taken to the hospital. Internment was in Richmond, Kentucky.

Colonel and Mrs. Jennings have been among Highlands' most interesting summer people since building their lovely summer home "Puck-rup," on Satulah mountain. Mrs. Jennings wrote beautiful poetry and her poems written here were expressive of her deep love for the mountains. Several of her poems have been published in the Franklin Press and the Highlands Maconian. She is survived by her husband and one son.
