LAST RITES FOR L. DALRYMPLE

Young Victim of Stabbing
Dies; Several Arrests
Made

Lonnie Dalrymple, 22, of Franklin, Route 1, and Hamilton, Wash., who suffered knife wounds in the abdomen and chest early Monday morning, died in Angel hospital here Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock.

According to Deputy Sheriff John Dills, Theodore Hedden, 20, of Gneiss, had confessed to cutting Dalrymple. The officer quoted Hedden as saying he did it after he had been knocked down with a blackjack at Shady Nook tourist camp, four and a half miles west of Franklin, early Monday morning. He said about 20 persons were present and that he did not know who wielded the blackjack. He is in jail in Franklin.

Deputy Sheriff Dills also said that Lee Hedden, 21, also of Gneiss, who was arrested Monday, was released Tuesday for lack of evidence, but that Homer Hedden, 16, and Bill Berry, both of Gneiss, were held on charges of assault in connection with the affray, but are now out on bond.

John Hedden, father of Theodore Hedden, Tuesday swore out warrants charging three men with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill. The three are John Lyle Lenoir, of Franklin Route 1; Glover Reynolds, of near Franklin; and Robert Hawks, of Nantahala. They have been released on bond.

Dalrymple was the son of Mrs. Obrie Dalrymple, of Hamilton, Wash., formerly of Franklin, and of the late Samuel Dalrymple. Besides his mother, he is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Mamie Sanders and Mrs. Dorothy Kiser, of Hamilton, and Mrs. Margaret Bates, of Murphy, and four brothers, Clifford, Jeff, and Wiley, of Hamilton, and Fred, of the U. S. Army.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Mt. Zion church, the pastor, Rev. J. C. Swaim, officiating. Burial will be in the church cemetery. Only one sister, Mrs. Bates, will be able to attend the funeral, since the rest of his family are so far away.

The pallbearers are Julian Kiser, Bill Shields, John Wallace, John W. Lenoir, Jim Passmore and Edd Wallace.

Revival

By Girls of Catholic Guild
Evenings of July 6, 7, 8

The Catholic Evidence Guild of Rosary College, River Forest, Ill., will conduct a revival in Franklin from Monday, July 6, through Wednesday, July 8.

Catholic Evidence work is just another name for street preaching. About eight years ago Rosary College for Girls, River Forest, Ill., organized a class for Catholic Evidence training. During that time it has been under the direction of the Very Rev. Reynold Hillenbrand, Rector of St. Mary of the Lake Seminary, Mundelein, Illinois.

For the past seven summers a group of students has carried into Oklahoma the training received at the college. This year, however, a group of four undergraduate students plans to work in St. John's Catholic parish, comprising the eight extreme Western counties of North Carolina. The girls will be accompanied by two sister members of the faculty of Rosary College. The open air meeting in Franklin will be held at the Chamber of Commerce Lot, Main Street. The meetings will begin each night July 6-8 at 7:30 and last till 8:30 p. m. Talks will be given on various subjects such as the Bible, The Church, Life of Christ, Divinity of Christ, Confession, Purgatory, Blessed Virgin, and Prayer. A question box will be arranged for and questions gladly received and answered.

Rosary College at River Forest, Illinois, is a Catholic college for women conducted by the Dominican Sisters of Sinsinawa, Wis.

Moose Lodge Meets 1st and 3rd Thursdays

J. J. Mann, secretary, announces that the Moose Lodge, No. 452, will meet on the first and third Thursdays during the summer season.

Henry Morgenthau Jr., Secretary of the Treasury, today made public the official War Bond Quotas for the month of July, which places the nation on a billion-dollar-a-month basis to aid in meeting the War cost. The above table also gives May War Bond sales in the various states in comparison to the May Quotas. (June sales by states will be available for publication shortly.) The percentage of Quotas range from 21.3 percent above quota in Utah, to 22.6 percent below the quota in Montana, but puts the nation as a whole above the $600,000,000 total May quota. Vulnerable Alaska and Hawaii led all states in sale of War Bonds on quota basis.

"Everybody, every day pay ten percent" is the Treasury slogan which is expected to place one of the attractive new window stickers in every American home. "We're Buying at Least 10%" reads the sticker, printed in the national colors. The new window stickers and the new "10%" label button, which indicates that the wearer is investing at least ten percent of his income in War Bonds every day, are yardsticks of patriotism in the War Bond Drive.

All-Stars

Win 2 From Murphy; To Play Walthalla Here
July 4th

The Franklin All-Stars opened the last half of the Smoky Mountain League with a double win over Murphy Sunday 7-6 and 5-4, while Bryson City was doing the same thing to Kyle 7-6 and 6-3.

In the opener, Murphy was leading 4-1 in the sixth when "Iron Horse" Elliott started a four run rally by singling over second, Reynolds lived on an error, Swanson laid down a bunt and also lived when the pitcher fumbled, McCollum doubled to left field scoring Elliott and Reynolds, Buie then slapped a single over short to score Swanson and McCollum. Murphy scored another in the 7th to tie it up but the All-Stars came right back in the 8th to score two and put the game on ice.

"Curve Ball" Buie not only pitched a swell game in the opener to win his sixth straight game of the season but led his teammates to bat with 4 for 8, while "Phantom Phil" McCollum set them down in the night-cap with 7 hits, and collected two singles and a double out of five trips to the plate.

The All-Stars take on the Walthalla, S. C., nine here Saturday, July 4th at 3:30 p. m., and then journey to Bryson City Sunday for a twin-bill. The fans will probably see a dark-horse perform in the pitcher's box.

One of the chief attractions of the 4th of July celebration will be a parade in which veterans of the Spanish-American War, veterans of World War I, soldiers of World War II who are at home on leave, and the Boy Scouts are asked to participate. The parade will form in front of Frank Murray's house at 10:45, and will pass through Main street at 11. Veterans of the Spanish American War will be in charge of Jack Mashburn and William Collier, both veterans of San Juan Hill. Veterans of World War I will be in charge of Tom Moss, who wears American, English, French and Belgian decorations for bravery in action on European battlefields. Soldiers of World War II will be in charge of a man at home on leave, to be selected.

All veterans of the Spanish-American War, veterans of World War I, and men now in the Armed forces of the United States are requested to take part in this parade. Gilmer A. Jones has planned and will direct the parade.

The parade will be led by three drums played by St. Clair Anderson, a National Guardsman in the state of New York for 13 years; Sergeant James B. Elliott of the Coweeta CCC camp and Bill Moore.

Lions Club Entertainment

Besides the parade and games, the Lions Club will stage a benefit performance in the courthouse at 2 p. m., to be followed by the driving of a car down Main street blindfolded. There will also be a performance in the courthouse at 8:30 p. m. Admission will be 15 cents and 25 cents. The proceeds will be used for the club's work in providing glasses for those who need them.

The show will feature Edd Bowers in person, one of the world famous trick riders and fancy roping experts of Tom Nix's circus. Anderson Bros. will furnish the music.

Registration By Owners Of Motor Vehicles Required

After July 22, 1942 all motor vehicles will be required to have Gasoline Ration Books in order to secure gasoline. Registration for Ration Books will be held in Macon County on July 9th and 10th between the hours of 9 a. m. and 6 p. m.

All Passenger Vehicles, except taxicabs, ambulances, hearses, cars held by dealers for resale and public owned vehicles will register at one of the following places:

Franklin courthouse; Otto school; Highlands School; Nantahala Otter Creek School.

All trucks, taxicabs, hearses, ambulances, vehicles held for resale and public owned vehicles will register at the office of the Ration Board in the Ashear building, Franklin, North Carolina.

It will be necessary for all registrants to present Vehicle Registration Cards.

Ration Board office is the Ashear building to have complete information as to mileage and gas consumption of each vehicle.

Only basic ration books will be issued at the time of registration. Application blanks for supplemental ration may be had at the place of registration. These will be filled in and filed with the Board by those registrants, who by reason of the essential nature of their work will require gasoline in excess of the basic ration.

These applications will be considered by the Board and such supplemental ration books as are found justified will be issued at some time after July 22.
