MRS. MARY K. FLEET VISITS EASTERN STAR CHAPTER

Mrs. Mary K. Fleet of Rocky Mount, Worthy Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of North Carolina, Order of the Eastern Star, made her official visit to Nequassa Chapter No. 43 Thursday evening at a special meeting held in the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Fleet's address, based on the motto for the year, "Let Us Love One Another," and her aim for the year, "Victory Through Self-Sacrifice," was an inspiration to all present. She also gave many helpful instructions on different phases of the work.

Upon her presentation, Miss Virginia Slagle sang as a solo, "Love Eternal" to the Worthy Grand Matron, and at the close of her address a very effective and impressive program, "Wishes Five" was given in her honor by the Marshal. At this time gifts were presented to the Worthy Grand Matron and to Mrs. Mary C. Weatherly of Rich Square, Grand Secretary of the Grand Chapter of North Carolina, to Mrs. Kathryn Daniels of Asheville, Grand Ruth of the Grand Chapter of North Carolina, and to Mrs. Edna Fay Lathan of Bryson City, District Deputy Grand Matron of the twelfth district, all of whom accompanied Mrs. Fleet.

A gift was also presented Elizabeth Slagle, Past District Deputy.

Other out-of-town guests present for the meeting were Mrs. Carrie R. Womack, Mrs. Olive Ellis, Miss Leuna Tatham and Miss Mabel McFalls, all members of Andrew Chapter No. 15, Andrews.

Mrs. Alice Ray, Worthy Matron of the local chapter, presided at the meeting. Prior to the meeting the guests were entertained with a dinner party at Kelly's Tea Room, with 35 members and visitors in attendance.

Aim above morality. Be not simply good; be good for something.
