80 Years Old

Mrs. George Andrew Jones, who was honored with a birthday celebration by her family at the home of her son, Weimar, in Weaverville last Sunday.

80TH BIRTHDAY OF MRS. GEORGE A. JONES CELEBRATED RECENTLY

The eightieth birthday of Mrs. George Andrew Jones was celebrated last Sunday by her children and grandchildren at the home of her children, Mr. and Mrs. Weimar Jones, in Weaverville, where she has been visiting for the past two weeks.

The party was planned as a surprise, but this mother was as wise as her years, and it was she who "turned the tables," as it were, by having ready gifts for all—young and old—who were present, and expressing appreciation in verse of her own composition.

Five of the Jones children and seven grandchildren were present at the celebration. Out-of-town members were: Miss Laura M. Jones, of Raleigh; Mr. and Mrs. Gilmer A. Jones, of Franklin and their three daughters, Lieut. Nancy Jones of the U. S. Army Nursing Corps of Camp Croft, S. C., Miss Lillian Jones and Miss Dorothy Jones; Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Jones and their two children of Franklin. Besides the Weimar Jones family, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Jones and Lyle Jones, Jr., of Asheville, attended. Altogether 18 were present including the Rev. Fred O. Dryman, pastor of the Weaverville Methodist church.

Birthday letters and telegrams from those unable to come were read aloud. These came from children, daughters-in-law and grandchildren, in half-a-dozen states and Puerto Rico.

Mrs. Jones, whose youthful spirit and active interests belie her three-score years and twenty, is one of the most beloved of Franklin's citizens. She was born in Franklin August 25, 1862. Prior to her marriage she was Miss Harriette Sloan. Her husband was the late Judge George Andrew Jones, who was reared on Hominy creek near the present site of the American Enka corporation's plant.

Is Active In Church Work
Mrs. Jones, a member of the Franklin Methodist church, has been a faithful worker in that church for many years. She is a charter member of the Woman's Missionary society of the old Holston conference. She served as president of the Missionary society several years and for many years was a teacher in the Sunday school of the Franklin church. Outside of her family, her main interest is her church.

One son, Dr. J. Paul Jones, of Rhode Island, could not come for the reunion. Two grandsons, who are in the Air Corps, W. G. (Bill) Jones, of Scott Field, Ill., and Ensign Gilmer A. Jones, Jr., of the Navy air force, are among a number of grandchildren unable to attend the celebration.

Four Freedoms

Emphasized This Week At Library Inf. Center

Informational material especially prepared to answer the question, "What Are We Fighting For?" has been assembled for feature display during this week at the new War Information center in the Franklin public library.

The peacetime objectives expressed by President Roosevelt in his statement of the Four Freedoms will be given the main emphasis.

A special collection of books and pamphlets relating to "The Home and Defense" has been borrowed from the University of North Carolina and are on display at the local Center. The materials included in this packet are the following: "America's Nutrition Primer (Sense)"; "The Home Front Digest" (Logan); "101 Things To Do In Spare Time" (Horth); "Living Under Tension" (Fosdick); "The World We Want To Live In" (Cinchy); "This Is Your War" (Childs);

"Stretching Your Dollar In Wartime" (Brindze); "Picture of Health" (Clarke); "Woman For Defense" (Banning); "The Women of England" (Biddle).

An Economic Challenge To American Women, To Parents In Wartime, The Home Front In National Defense, More For Your Money, Defense and The Consumer, The Farm and The Home, Guide For Planning the Local Victory Garden Program, Food and Nutrition, and Home Again are among the special collection of pamphlets.

And string should be saved for the materials from which string is made are being scarcer every day. It's no laughing matter now to copy grandmother and have a string-saving box. Roll up each little piece neatly and tie it so you can get to it easily when you need string.

LABOR DAY 1942

THIS LABOR DAY brings to us the realization that we are working on the toughest job Americans have tackled since 1776. We are fighting for our liberty—for our very existence.

IT ISN'T the Government's war—it's yours, it's mine. Don't indulge in any patronizing, tea-party planning to win the Peace. We've got to win the War first.

LET US, this Labor Day, pray for victory, pray as we keep right on firing at the enemy. It's a fight between God and the Devil, between the Creator and the Destroyer. And, we are on God's side.
