MELLERS-NEUHAUS NUPTIALS SOLEMNIZED

Quiet simplicity marked the marriage of Mrs. Pauline Edwards Neuhaus of Davenport, Iowa and Moline Illinois, to Lewis L. Mellers of Chicago, which was solemnized in the Presbyterian church here Sunday morning, September 27th. The couple was attended by the bride's father, W. W. Edwards, and by her cousin, Miss Estelle Edwards. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. T. Bridgman, pastor of the church, in the presence of relatives and close friends.

The church was attractively decorated with Southern Smilax and white chrysanthemums banded around the altar bordered with two copper urns filled with white gladioli. The wedding music was played by Mrs. A. C. Holt.

Mrs. Mellers wore a mist bieve tweed dressmaker suit and matching toque with a matched box coat fashioned with Labrador fox collar. Her shoulder corsage was of American Beauty roses, held by a diamond and crystal clip, the gift of the groom. Her accessories were of copper alligator. Miss Edwards wore a dark brown dress of bark crepe with matching accessories. Her corsage was of bronze orchids.

Mrs. Mellers has been associated with the Isabelle Ramey Shop in Davenport for a number of years. Mr. Mellers is with the Westinghouse interests in Chicago, and has done considerable design work for the power plants with the local utility company and industries in that area. Mr. and Mrs. Mellers will reside in Chicago.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at Hotel Edwards.

WEDDING BREAKFAST FOR MR. AND MRS. MELLERS

Hotel Edwards was the scene of a wedding breakfast for Mr. and Mrs. Lewis L. Mellers, following their marriage at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom. Seven tapers in star-shaped holders, with red rosebuds in each star, formed the central decoration at the bride's table. Seated with the bride and groom at this table were: Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Edwards, Miss Estelle Ginger Edwards, Miss Dorothy Linardy and Henry Willard. Decorations at other guest tables were carried out in the red and white colors.

BUFFET SUPPER HONORS BRIDAL COUPLE

Mrs. Frank Ruthvin entertained with a buffet supper Saturday evening honoring Mrs. Pauline Neuhaus and Lewis L. Mellers, whose marriage took place Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church. The buffet table was centered with vari-colored nasturtiums in a silver bowl. Other guests included in the courtesies were W. W. Edwards, Mrs. A. G. Edwards, the Misses Mary and Estelle Edwards, John Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Dane Linardy, and Miss Sylvia Nutrizion.

MISS HARRIS ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF MR. AND MRS. HAGER

Miss Rebecca Harris entertained with a small tea Wednesday afternoon honoring Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hager, whose marriage was an event of September 8. Miss Alice Frost presided at the tea table and Miss Rebecca Hall assisted the hostess in entertaining. Mixed fall flowers graced the rooms and the front porch. About twenty guests were invited to meet Mrs. Hager.

THE MISSES RAVENEL HOSTESS AT TEA

The Misses Marguerite and Clare Ravenel were hostesses at a tea Saturday afternoon at "Wolf Ridge" their summer home on Sunset Mountain, given as a courtesy to the new school principal, W. C. Newton. Mrs. Newton, the school faculty, members and officers of the parent-teachers' association and others interested in the work of the school. Six new teachers have been added to this year's faculty and the tea was in the nature of a get-acquainted affair.

Autumn flowers from the Ravenel gardens decorated the rooms and entered the lace-covered tea table, where Mrs. S. L. McCarty, Sr., and Mrs. Nathaniel Martin presided over the tea and coffee service. Mrs. Frank H. Potts, Mrs. H. P. P. Thompson and other P. T. A. members assisted the Misses Ravenel in serving and entertaining.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR MRS. WILSON

Mrs. Don Watson and Miss Wright entertained with a surprise dinner party for their mother, Mrs. S. A. Wilson, on her recent birthday anniversary. The white birthday cake, encircled with pink gladioli, formed the table centerpiece, and place cards were boutonnieres of pink gladioli. Guests included Mrs. Annie Price, Mrs. Lilly Pierson, Mrs. Carl Zoellner, Henry Wright, Vernon Wilson, and Charles Watson.

RALLY DAY AT PRESBYTERIAN S. S.

"Rally Day" will be observed by the Presbyterian Sunday School next Sunday morning, as a climax to religious education advance week, it has been announced by the pastor, Rev. H. T. Bridgman. This church is also preparing for a series of meetings beginning on the 14th and closing on the 24th. A number of cottage prayer meetings have been held in preparation for these services.

TRUCKS BEGIN TO COLLECT SCRAP

On October 1 several trucks will begin collecting scrap metal in Highlands and vicinity in the three weeks' scrap metal campaign. The collection of this scrap metal will be under the supervision of the Mayor and Town Board of Commissioners.

Although more than a year ago individual citizens, with the help of the school children, gathered and sold a number of truck loads of scrap metal for the benefit of the Red Cross war emergency fund, it is believed there is still a large amount of this much needed war material uncollected in this section.

Steel cargo ships require as much as 300,000 square feet of plywood in their construction.

A new method of making cans of wood fiber without changing the machines formerly used for making tin-steel cans, has been developed by the American Can company as part of the war metal saving program.

Using wood instead of steel for folding chairs for the Army will save 21,750,000 pounds of steel this year, according to the Army Quartermaster Corps.

Forty-one states cooperate with the forest products industries in programs for the prevention of forest fires.

The volume of wood used for fuel in America is second only to the amount which is used for lumber.

State College Farm Questions And Answers

Q. Will there be any cattle shows this fall, in view of the fact that the State Fair and other events of this nature have been cancelled?

A. Yes, A show and sale for 4-H Baby Beef Club members and vocational agriculture students in the Western part of the state will be held at Asheville October 7 and 8. A similar show and sale for Piedmont and Eastern Carolina boys and girls will be held on the State College campus in Raleigh October 13 and 14. L. I. Case, extension animal husbandman of N. C.
