Festive Table for Holidays,

THE MARK of a good hostess is her ability to set an attractive dinner table. Her linen is spotless, her silver shining and her glassware is of matching design. Above, rich brown plates are used on a pale green cloth with matching napkins. The centerpiece is a simple arrangement of large chrysanthemums. Modern American crystal water and wine glasses in the Concord pattern have matching fluted base. The silver is the dignified Formality pattern.

Jr. Red Cross Roll Call Exceeds Previous Years

Mrs. Lola P. Barrington, Chairman, Makes Acknowledgment

The following is a list of schools in Macon county, which the amount raised, that have reenrolled 100 per cent in the Junior Red Cross. The first seven named more than doubled the minimum requirement for class room enrollment:

Franklin, $68.36; Highlands, $14; Otto, $8.10; Allison-Watts, $6.05; Slagle, $5; Chapel, $4; Cowee, $3.31; Oak Grove, $1.62; Oak Dale, $1.50; Sealy, $1.25; Clark's Chapel, $1; Burningtown, $1; Mountain Grove, 50 cents; Camp Branch, 50 cents; Buck Creek, 75 cents.

The American Legion Auxiliary gave a check for $25, to be used exclusively for child welfare. This makes a total of $141.94 to date.

This is a splendid report and I want to thank the principals and teachers of these schools for their unsurpassed cooperation. To you belongs the honor for the most successful Roll Call we have had. To the pupils of these schools I want to say, thank you and assure you that you are having a part in relieving the hunger and distress of multitudes of children less fortunate than you. To Mrs. J. W. C. Johnson, secretary of the Macon County Red Cross Chapter, and all others who have so willingly and efficiently helped in this Roll Call, I want to express my appreciation. This has been your Roll Call. I have had such a small part in it.

To the few schools that have not re-enrolled, if you wish to enroll you may leave your report at The Press office or send it to me and I will forward it to National headquarters. Last year we raised $93.00. This year to date, $142.00.

Lola P. Barrington,

CHILDREN'S COLDS

FOR DIRECT RELIEF from misery of colds—coughing, phlegm, irritation, clogged upper air passages—rub throat, chest, and back with Vicks VapoRub. Its poultice-and-vapor action brings relief without dosing.

ALSO, FOR HEAD COLD "sniffles", melt a spoonful of VapoRub in hot water. Then have the child breathe in the steaming vapors.
