WOMEN BOND SALE AMOUNTS TO OVER $4,000

Mrs. W. C. Newton, chairman of the "Women at War Week" bond campaign reports the sale of $4,344.75, maturity value, in bonds and stamps for the week.

Working with Mrs. Newton in the sale of the bonds and stamps the past week were: Mrs. O. E. Young, Mrs. Elliott Caziarc, Mrs. H. T. Bridgman, Mrs. W. S. Davis, Mrs. E. R. Gilbert, Mrs. Fred Littleton, Mrs. Harry Holt, Mrs. Joe Reese, Mrs. J. S. Higgins, Mrs. Tudor Hall, Mrs. Frank B. Cook, Mrs. C. J. Anderson, Miss Ethel Calloway, Mrs. W. G. Soderquist, Mrs. H. P. Thompson, Mrs. Frank H. Potts, Mrs. W. H. Cobb, Miss Ruth Carter and Mrs. Sidney McCarty, Jr.

The chairman said that all of the women responded to the call and worked faithfully to boost the sale of the bonds and stamps, adding that honorable mention should go to Mrs. Young and Mrs. Caziarc who "sold well over two thousand dollars worth."

HARBISONS ENTERTAIN WITH THANKSGIVING PARTY

A lovely event of the Thanksgiving holidays was the dinner party giving by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Harbison Saturday evening at the Potts House when they entertained a number of their friends. An attractive arrangement of fruit centered the table, with lighted candles at either side. Games and contests were enjoyed after dinner.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Tudor Hall, Dr. Jessie Z. Moreland, Mrs. Joe Massey, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Cook, Mayor and Mrs. W. H. Cobb, Prof. and Mrs. W. C. Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilcox and C. C. Potts.

TREES PLANTED ON METHODIST PROPERTY

The transplanting of twelve white pine trees and one holly tree, with its rich red berries, on the sidewalk in front of the Methodist church property has improved that section of Main street and added to the attractiveness of the church grounds, which were beautified years ago with purple rhododendron, balsam and white pine trees.

UNION PRAYER SERVICE HAS LARGE ATTENDANCE

One Hundred and ten persons attended the Union Prayer and Praise service at the Baptist church last Wednesday night. Announcement has been made that the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, rector of the Episcopal church, although living in Franklin, hopes to take an active part in these services in the near future along with the three resident ministers, and a mid-week meeting is planned for the Episcopal church at an early date.

The attendance goal at these meetings has been placed higher from week to week, and so far the higher goal has been reached each week.

MISS GILDER ENTERTAINS WITH "OPEN HOUSE"

Following her usual Thanksgiving custom, Miss Sara Gilder held an open House Thursday afternoon at her home on Satulah Road. Bridge and rummy and just visiting featured the afternoon. Mrs. John C. Blanchard won the high score bridge prize. Prizes were also won by Mrs. Frank B. Cook and Mrs. H. G. Story.

Refreshments were served from the beautifully decorated table in the dining room, which was lighted by four lemon candles, carrying out the fruit idea, and centered with a bowl of Nandina berries.

New methods of saw-milling recently introduced by numerous Southern lumber mills are salvaging about one cord of pulpwood material from every 4,000 board feet of timber sawn. At present, the pulp is used chiefly for paper and explosives.

MRS. COOK HOSTESS TO CARD CLUB

Mrs. Frank B. Cook was hostess to the Wednesday card club last week at her winter apartment at Highlands Inn. A dessert course was served before the game. English Ivy and pink thrift decorated the rooms. In the progressive game, Mrs. C. C. Potts won high score prize and Mrs. O. E. Young the traveling prize. The guest prize was presented to Mrs. John C. Blanchard.

Personal Mention

Mrs. Frank Fleming of Brevard, Mrs. Grover Edwards, Mrs. G. W. Sheppard and Frank Fleming spent Sunday in Franklin where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Jackson.

The keno party held at the school lunch room Tuesday night for the benefit of the Hudson Library netted approximately ten dollars. The two grand prizes were won by Mrs. Frank H. Potts and James Henry.

Mrs. W. H. Cobb returned Saturday from a visit with her brother, A. B. Perry in Charleston, S. C., and with Mr. and Mrs. Allen Miles at Monks' Corner.

Miss Lula Smith of Clayton, Ga., district health nurse for northeast Georgia, and her sister, Mrs. John Deadwyler, were guests of their brother-in-law and sister, Colonel and Mrs. Elliott Caziarc, for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Soderquist attended the Georgia-Tech football game in Athens Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Jay Chapman and daughter, Carol Anne, have returned to Florence, S. C., after a Thanksgiving visit here with Mrs. Chapman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Potts, and with her brother, Corporal Steve Potts, who has returned to Camp Polk, La., after a fifteen day furlough.

Mrs. C. C. Potts and Mrs. O. E. Young returned Tuesday from a visit to Atlanta. Mrs. Young also visited her son, Earle Young, at Riverside Military Academy in Gainesville.

Miss Elizabeth McCarty has returned to Highlands after accompanying the Misses Marguerite and Clare Ravenel to Philadelphia. Sidney McCarty was substitute high school teacher for Miss McCarty while she was away.

Prof. E. B. Mell, principal of Athens Junior College, spent Thanksgiving day here with his brother, James C. Mell.

Richard Zoellner has enlisted in the naval reserve corps and is awaiting his call. He is the third son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zoellner to enter the service of his country.

Corporal Benjamin D. Young of Crescent City, Calif., has returned to Camp Forrest, Tenn., after a Thanksgiving holiday visit here with his aunts, Mrs. George W. Sheppard and Mrs. Grover D. Edwards.

War Bond Good Only To Owner

Disproving that "losers weepers, finders keepers" is the story of the lost war bond... the finder can keep, but it won't do him any good, for the war bond is non-transferable, and issued only to the owner or co-owner. A lost war bond is good to no one but the owner. So the finder might as well return promptly and enjoy a clear conscience.

State College Hints For Farm Homemakers

By RUTH CURRENT

(N. C. State College)

Beans are high in food value and low in cost. There are red kidney beans, pea beans, white narrow beans, yellow-eye beans, white kidney beans, black turtle soup beans, and all the rest.

Eat beans for energy, eat them for economy, eat them for patriotism; but eat them often. North Carolina grows them, almost every kind for almost every purpose.

Appeal—Beans appeal in cost, in convenience of storage, in their variety, and in their keeping quality. They are good in soups, in salads, and in sandwiches.

Nutrients are plentiful in beans. They contain protein for body building, carbohydrate for energy, and many of the vitamins and minerals for general good health and growth.

Serve beans hot; serve beans cold; serve them as a main dish for dinner, or as a pick-up supper. Serve them simply, attractively garnished and seasoned.

Beans are as American as is apple pie and today it is doubly important to use them because they are low in cost and high in food value. (When combined or served with milk and eggs they may take the place of more costly meats).

Eggs are a protective food. Serve them to your family because of their protein, fat, mineral, and vitamin content; they are bomb shells of protective food against vitamin-short meals. They should be included in diets at all times, but especially when extra strains necessitate more than ordinary health and vigor.

There is a place for at least a small flock on every North Carolina farm.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The Navy is making a plea to civilians to turn in their binoculars for military use during the War. The Army and Navy both need binoculars for navigation and scouting purposes. Depending on the power of the lenses, they cost from $50 to $80 each.

If you have a set of 6 x 30 up to 7 x 50-power lens binoculars loan them to the Army or Navy. If not, your purchase of War Bonds and Stamps will help buy this equipment for our fighting forces. At least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every payday will do the job... and provide the "eyes" through which a scouting pilot may spot an enemy battleship. U. S. Treasury Department

Aquone

Not much news this week. Ruth Stepp is gone to Baltimore. It is a sad day for Fathers, Mothers and Sisters and brother, wives and children, to see their men going off, maybe never to return. It is perilous times now.

We are little Aquone—nine families and 11 children school age but no school. We regret to hear of the death of Mrs. Leora Brawner. She died at Peachtree, at her sister's, Mrs. Zora White, Nov. 22, survived by two brothers, four sisters, preaching at the funeral building at the cemetery at little Aquone.

Mr. Horace Briant is suffering bad with a mashed thumb. Mr. Lee Russel is suffering with a hurt finger.

Mr. Welden West is the pastor at this church. He did preach two good sermons for the people. The Sunday school is very weak—few in number but strong in faith; three in the adult class, two in the junior class, two in the card class, Lillie May and Bobbie Lee Ferguson, Mrs. Vertie Lambert, Mr. Dubin Lambert, and Mr. Sam Ferguson are teachers. We hope it will increase very soon.

Mrs. Ethel Lambert will be at home soon. Mr. Homer Taylor and family visited Mrs. Ester Taylor. Mrs. Boid Arwood of Peachtree visited Mr. Horace Briant Sunday. Mr. Doc Taylor visited Silver Mine church Sunday night. Mrs. Lee Dillard and Mrs. Nora Briant made a flying trip to Andrew last week. Mr. Allie Brien is getting along fine. The people is all getting along very good in this section—a few cases of chicken pox. Mr. and Mrs. Dillard's mother and sister received a nice present from Mr. Robert Dillard who is at Little Rock, Ark.

CARD OF THANKS

We sincerely thank our many friends for their kindness shown in the death of our son and brother, Jonas Andrew Talley. We extend our sincere thanks and appreciation for the floral offerings, the nice service conducted by Rev. Higgins, and the many kindnesses shown by Oscar Bryant. MRS. EVANS TALLEY AND FAMILY

Word reaching the United States from Norway indicates that Bishop Eivind Joseph Berggrav, head of the Norwegian Church who has been imprisoned by the Nazis, has begun the translation of the New Testament into modern Norwegian while he is in prison. Due to efforts to replace several dialects of the country by a Norway-wide tongue, a new translation has become a matter of importance during recent years. Bishop Berggrav is starting by translating the Epistles written by St. Paul while a prisoner in Rome.

State College Answers Timely Farm Questions

Q. How may rust of galvanized roofing be controlled?

A. At the first sign of rust, says D. S. Weaver, Extension agricultural engineer of State college, or when the roof shows dark discoloration, the galvanized roofing should be painted with metallic zinc paint. Before applying the paint, the roof should be put in good physical shape and all gutters and low places should be cleaned of fallen leaves and dirt. If the roof has been painted with any kind of paint previously, all loose and scaly parts must be removed with a wire brush, rinsing the roof with water, and allowing it to dry.

Q. How should meat be cooked for canning?

A. Mrs. Cornelia C. Morris, Extension food conservationist of State college, says there are several ways to pre-cook meat for canning. "If meat is to be cooked before it is canned," she said, "it should not be more than half done. It can be browned quickly in a small amount of hot fat in a frying pan; it can be roasted in the oven; or it can be stewed or boiled. Do not add salt to the meat until after it is packed in the jars." Mrs. Morris also emphasized that a pressure cooker is essential in canning meats. Other methods are not safe, she declared.

Q. What substitute for steamed bonemeal may be used in the hog ration?

A. Thoroughly steamed bone meal is now always available for use in making mineral mixtures for hogs, says Ellis V. Vestal, animal husbandry Extension, specialist of N. C. State college. When it is not available, he says, a mixture of 10 pounds of ground limestone and two pounds of salt may be used. If it is available, use 10 pounds of ground limestone, 10 pounds of steamed bonemeal, and five pounds of salt. Minerals should be placed where the hogs can have free access to it, but should be kept dry.

American forests have furnished most of the material used in the homes of the people, which now represent a value of about $80,000,000.

Home Beautification Suggestions Are Made

John H. Harris, Extension landscape specialist of N. C. State college, says there are many home beautification jobs that can be accomplished during the month of December. "We all need to keep our morale high," he declared, "and the improvement of the homestead will help make life more pleasant for those on the civilian front, and for the fighting forces when they return from the camps and battlefronts."

He offers the following home beautification suggestions for December:

1. Now is the time to transplant trees and shrubs—you will wish you had next spring.
2. In gathering Christmas greens for decoration, or sale, why not go deep into the woods rather than destroy the beauty along the road. Even in the woods, our decorations may be gathered by careful pruning rather than by destroying the tree.
3. This is a good time to prune grapes, raspberries, and many shrubs such as Abelia, Crapemyrtle, Hardy Hydrangea, Desmodium, Butterfly Bush, and other late summer and fall-blooming shrubs. These may be pruned equally as well in February or March, but don't put off too much until spring.
4. Keep the leaves off your lawn—use them for compost. Mow your winter lawn as often as necessary.
5. Avoid pruning (dehorning) your valuable shade trees. The only pruning shade trees need is removal of the dead limbs, or perhaps some thinning out of the branches.

Coffee drinkers of southern Louisiana and Mississippi drink two or three times as much coffee as the average in the U. S., many of them from 10 to 15 cups a day.
