MISS BULGIN IS WED TO LIEUT. M. S. WILSON

The marriage of Miss Ann Rosalind Bulgin of Gainesville, Ga., and Franklin, to Lieutenant Malcolm Stephen Wilson of Milledgeville, Ga., and Fort Bragg, was performed on Saturday, December 19, by the Rev. Jack G. Mand, pastor of the Inman Park Presbyterian church, at his residence in Atlanta.

For the ceremony, the bride was attired in a gold dress with brown accessories.

The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. George M. Bulgin and the late Mr. Bulgin of Franklin. She has been dietitian at the Downey hospital in Gainesville for the past four years. She is a graduate of the Franklin high school.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Bart Wilson of Milledgeville, Ga. He was graduated from the military college in Milledgeville and entered the armed service as a reserve officer. He was promoted on July 1 to first lieutenant and is in the quartermaster corps, assigned to company A, 9th C. M. Jagers battalion at Fort Bragg. Prior to his entering the service, he was produce superintendent of the Colonial Stores, Inc., of Atlanta.

After a brief wedding trip, the couple returned to their respective posts of duty for the present.

McCALL-NICHOLS

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Nichols of Franklin, Rt. 1, announce the marriage of their daughter, Ella Annis, to Corporal Cornell McCall of Franklin, who is stationed at Camp Hawze, Texas.

The bride was attired in gold with brown accessories. The wedding took place November 7, in Clayton, Ga.

The bride holds a position in Jacksonville, Fla., but hopes to join her husband soon in Texas.

GUEST-PARKER

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Guest of Franklin, have received the announcement of the marriage of their son, Pvt. George R. Guest, to Miss Hazel Parker of Greenville, Miss., on December 12.

SARAH E. SETSER

COMPLETES WAAC COURSE FORT DES MOINES, IOWA

December 28—A member of the WAAC from Franklin, North Carolina, recently completed advanced training in the Specialist Schools for members of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps here.

She is Sarah E. Setser.

This Corps member was given four weeks basic training in military routines and procedures on reporting for duty. She was chosen for advanced training in courses in the Specialist Schools because of the excellence of her work in basic training. The Specialist Schools comprise the Baker's and Cook's School, Motor Transport School and Administrative Specialist's School.

She will be assigned to fill a non-combatant Army job now held by a soldier thus fulfilling the purpose of the Corps, which is to release trained fighting manpower for combat duty.

CHRISTMAS PARTY AT PANORAMA COURT

A delightful impromptu party was given on Christmas evening at Panorama Court, which was especially for the occasion by Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cagle who were host to all the young people home for the holidays. The party was especially in honor of Miss Luellen Davis, who came from Bryson City for a holiday visit, and Richard R. Johnson who arrived a few days before from a trip with the North Africa Convoy.

A large crowd of young people from college and soldiers and sailors on leave had this opportunity to get together for a good time after separation from friends and schoolmates here at home. Square dancing and games were enjoyed by all.

MR. AND MRS. ALEXANDER GIVE CHRISTMAS PARTY

A delightful event of the Christmas season was the Christmas party given at Panorama Court formerly of Franklin, now of Scott, Arkansas, who are visiting Mrs. Alexander's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Leach, on Saturday evening, December 26.

About a hundred guests enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander, and the party was declared to be one of the most enjoyable ever given in Franklin. Round and square dancing was enjoyed and refreshments were served throughout the evening.

BEAUTIFUL DINNER TO ZICKGRAF EMPLOYEES

The Zickgraf Hardwood Company honored its employees with a beautiful dinner on Wednesday evening, December 23, at Panorama Court, where 54 men were seated at a delicious Christmas feast. This was the fourth annual dinner with which the company has celebrated the holiday season.

The decorations were in keeping with the Christmas season with the patriotic motive also represented, and place cards printed in red and green carried a message of appreciation and good wishes to each guest.

At the beginning of the dinner, W. C. Zickgraf, arose and explained three empty places which were each marked by a small American flag. These, he said, represented the men of their company who have entered the armed forces of their country; Ray Swanson of the Navy, George Mashburn serving somewhere overseas, and Ellwood Bailey, in training in a branch of the Army. Mr. Zickgraf then requested all to stand and bow their heads in prayer, asking God to watch over these men and our other boys and bring them safely back to their loved ones.

Other good talks were made by several of the guests, all of whom thanked their host for a most enjoyable occasion.

Travelers Warned Against 'Loose Talk'

NORFOLK, VA., Dec. 9—Due to the constant and increasing danger of "loose talk" concerning military activities, the Seaboard Railway is furthering its efforts in this campaign by distributing a leaflet on the subject to every employee of the system. "Travelers, also, should be on guard", C. E. Bell, passenger traffic manager, pointed out. "Wherever one travels he sees impressive evidence of the war effort. Discussion of any military activity, though it is felt to be of common knowledge, may easily put a military secret in Axis ears."

"Axis agents are everywhere", the booklet says, and points out where they are likely to be found, how a small slip of the tongue may divulge a military secret and prove disastrous to many of our men. Admonition is given against repeating rumors and stories, also, due to Hitler's principle of "convincing the masses by a long term campaign of lies and exaggerated and misleading facts", and winds up with "you can't tell an Axis agent by the way he looks, but you can tell him an awful lot by the little things you say."

CARD OF THANKS
