POST OFFICE RECEIPTS UP

Postmaster PorterReports On Gross Receipts Of 1942 and 1941

The Franklin postoffice receipts for the year of 1942 were the highest in the history of this office, and T. W. Porter, postmaster, in releasing the following figures for the past year as compared with those of 1941.

Gross receipts for the year 1942 were $16,543, with last puarter's amount being $5,216.81. For the previous year the gross receipts amounted to $15,554.18, figures for the last quarter being $4,467.37.

War conditions have increased postal receipts all over the country, it is observed. This is due to stepped-up industrial production with attendant moving of the working population to industrial areas, as well as increased correspondence of armed forces, and shifting of population which would be stable in peace time under nrmal con-

Cpl. Waldroop entered the service Feb. 10, 1942. After taking training at Fort Bragg for three months, he was sent to the Signal Radio Intelligence Co., Army Air Force, Bolling Field, Washington, D. C., where he is now stationed.

Judging from the number of applications now in our files for new truck tires, it appears many truck owners will be forced to suspend operations because new tires are just not available. This word of

One Bright Spot in The World

A PROCLAMATION

By The President Of The United States Of America

WHEREAS The American National Red Cross during the first year of our participation in the war has rendered vital humanitarian services to the members of our armed forces and to their families;

WHEREAS the demands made upon the Red Cross are steadily increasing from day to day as it is called upon to accompany our Army and Navy into worldwide theatres of action, to provide blood plasma for our wounded, to send relief to our American and United Nations prisoners of war, and to extend its preparations to meet emergencies at

WHEREAS The American National Red Cross is under the necessity of raising further funds inorder that these essential services may be continued and expanded:

NOW, THEREFORE, I,

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

President of the United States of America, and President of The American National Red Cross, do hereby designate the month beginning March 1st, 1943, as "Red Cross Month," and I request that during that month our people rededicate themselves to the splendid aims and activities of the Red Cross. I summon the men, women and young people of our country, in every city and town and village, in every county and state throughout the land, to enlist in the army of mercy mobilized under the banner of the Red Cross and to contribute generously to the Red Cross War Fund in order that the sum of One Hundred Twenty five Million Dollars, every cent of which is needed, may be raised promptly.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this twenty third day of February in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-

AMMONS BARN AND LIVESTOCK BURNED

The barn and livestock of Elias Ammons of Rabbit Creek were entirely destroyed, by fire of unde-termined origin last Friday morning about I o'clock, with damage of over $5,000. This is one of the best farms in Macon county and the sympathy of the entire county is with Mr. Ammons and his family. The work of many years has been wiped out, and, we understand there was no insurance.

Mr. Ammons awoke to find the barn ablaze. In addition to the loss of the barn and farm implements, he lost five head of fine Guernsey cattle, one horse, two mares, between 600 and 700 bushels of corn, quite a bit of hay, about 100 bushels of wheat, barley and oats, around 300 cans of fruits and vegetables, 25 bushels of Irish

Two cows and one steer, and several head of hogs escaped.
We understand that the Futire Farmers of America of Franklin High School, led by E. J. Whit-mire, with many friends are plan-ning to give Mr. Ammons a neighborly boost in the way of a start Former Franklin Citizen Dies At Sylvester, Ga.

News was received by Mrs. G. L Houk last Thursday, Feb. 26, of the death of her Uncle, William Robert Johnston, 80, at his home in Sylvester, Ga.

A former well known citizen of Franklin, Mr. Johnston was a son of the late Jackson and Eugenia Siler Johnston and was born in Franklin, December 14, 1862. He was the last member of his immediate family; his sister, Mrs. Mary Allman having died two years ago, and his two brothers, Frederick Swain and Thomas Jackson Johnston died some years before. He was a member of the Siler and Swain families.

Mr. Johnston was graduated from Emory college, Oxford, Ga. He married Miss Beulah Alford, of Sylvester, Ga., where he was associated with his father-in-law in the lumber business and where he made his home the rest of his life. They had no children, but they brought up in their home as their own six brothers and snisters of Mrs. Johnston.

"Of a generous nature, cordial, endowed with a voice of unusual beauty and devoted to his church, he was always active in church and musical affairs and for many years was superintendent of the Methodist Sunday School in Sylvester, from which recipient of many tokens of appreciation. After retirement he became superintendent emeritus of the school.

Mr. Johnston was, until recent years, a regular attendant at the Siler reunions in Macon county His death came unexpectedly of aan illness of a year and a half. nephew.

Chairmen And Workers Meet; "Give Double" Is Slogan

The Red Cross War Drive is going forward with great success, according to reports from workers ming in to their chairman, Mrs. H. F. Church, "From the response being made, it is evident that most of the gifts follow the sloran "This Year I Am Giving Double." So far, no final reports have been made as the workers have not yet completed the canvass of their territory," said Mrs. Church. At the dinner last Friday night at the Tavern, 28 workers and chairman attended, and an enthu-siastic meeting was held. In spite of the cold night, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. Tudor Hall, and the Rev. I. S. Higgins, Highlands chanter chairman, atended. The cathering ups address-ed by the War Fund chairman, Rev. A. R. Morgan, the chapter chairman, Rev Philip Green and Mr. Higgins. Dr. J. L. Stokes, home service chairman, made a report of the increased work being carried on by the chapter on account of the war. Other chairmen reporting were Mrs. Floence Sherrill for home mursing and Miss Gladys Maxwell for nutrition, Mrs. H. E. Church was appointed assistant treasurer to Grover

Jamison, Jr. Mr. Morgan closed his address to the workers with the appeal "Give at least twice as much and then as much as you can."
